AN ABLE

The Large Edifice Was Crowded to the Doors, and Those Present Listened Attentively to the Patriotic Words of the Pastor-The Sons of Veterans and Auxilliary Organizations Were Also Present.

When the hour arrived for the celebration of the 10 o'clock high mass in the Annusciation church yesterday morning the edifice was crowded to the doors and many people were unable to gain admission. The mem-bers of Watkin Waters Post No. 146, G. A. R., Henry Horncastle Camp No. 49, Sons of Voterans, the Womens' Relief Corps and Ladies' Aid Society occapied the pews nearest the altar and many people from other con-gregations were in attendance to listen to the sermon of the pastor, Rev. H. F. O'Reilly, in commensoration of Memorial Day. The mass was a very impressive ser-vice in which the paster was assisted by Rev. Dr. Kennedy, of St. Charles' Seminary at Overbrook, and Rev. Henry Naylon, of lown, and the choir rendered inspiring and impressive music. The alters were claborately decorated and at each side were the olors of the visiting organizations.

Upon the close of the mass Rev. O'Reilly read the epistle for the day and then proceeded with the sermon, which was a very able and impressive effort. Rev. O'Reilly commenced his sermon by saying, "Soldiers of the Grand Army, it is a picusing privilege to hid you welcome to our church. some years of holding commemorative service in some church, as well as decorating the graves of the dead soldiers, is highly commendable; and let me say to you, as I stated to the committee that waited on me when you first proposed to come to use church and said that you had been to all the other churches in the town and now wished to come to mine, that no matter how many churches you may have visited the custom is one of honor. And why should it not be? carpets.—Our entire second floor is devoted to this branch of our business and is packed to its utmost capacity with the choicest designs and best makes of the leading manufacturers.
