The robbers broke into the house, and after binding and otherwise mistreating the mother went up stairs to where Hill slept. They first clubbed him over the head, and then shot him. There were evidences in the house of a terrible struggle, which goes to show that Hill made desperate resistance. So far as known the robbers got nothing, as Mrs. Hill says there was no money in the house. There is no clue to the murderers.

Many Injured by a Falling Wall. Philadelphia, May 31.—While Grand Army men were firing the salute over the graves of revolutionary heroes in the graveyard of St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal church, Fourth and Pine streets, Saturday afternoon, a portion of the old wall which incloses the churchyard fell, burying in a mass of bricks, mortar and iron pickets a number of children who had been perched upon it and several men who had been peering over at the ceremonies within.

Cruelties in Western Africa.

London, May 31.—Governor Wahls, of Congo Free State, has a column letter in The Times controverting the statements recently made by Missionary Bjelkema, in this city, at a public meeting at Exeter Hall, where the subject of western African Christian missions was under consideration. He admits the truth of many of the charges, such as the mutilations and the severing of hands by the natives, which, he says, is a native custom extremely difficult to eradicate. He admits that an attack was made on the village of Mandakavagige, and that many cruelties were practiced there. But he declares that all these offenses have either been punished or are being investigated. The latter is, on the whole, less a denial of the offenses imputed by the missionaries than a justification of the Congo administration.

Norwegian Town Wiped Out by Plague. Christiansia, May 31.—The town of Namsoy, province of North Trondhjem, near the mouth of the Namson river, on the Namson fiord, west coast of Norway, has been entirely destroyed by fire. The houses, fanned by a fierce wind, spread so rapidly that the 1,800 inhabitants were unable to save even their furniture.

The Plot to Kill King George. London, May 31.—The Berlin correspondent of The Daily Mail telegraphs: From a Russian source comes news of a conspiracy against King George of Greece far more deeply rooted than was supposed. There is irrefragable evidence that Premier Ralli and his colleagues in the cabinet are gravely implicated in a plot to overthrow the dynasty. The Kolnische Zeitung says that Greece will be compelled to pay a large indemnity, to release her army to 20,000 men and to give up her fleet.

This Investigation a Fiasco. Havana, May 31.—The Ruiz investigation is practically over, and at the conclusion of the sorry farce the matter is in the report of last February. His position now, as then is that Ruiz died because he was deprived of treaty rights, and that Spain is responsible for this result of a most aggravating case of brutality toward an American citizen on the part of Fondeviola and his subordinates. General Lee and Mr. Cuthoun have found it impossible to get at the facts.

An Invalid's Fatal Fall. Trenton, May 31.—Joseph D.
