BURGULARS CAPTURED.

Two Men Responsible For a Number of Robberies Caught.
POTTSVILLE, June 1.—Chief of Police Hiram Davis has played a waiting game which has resulted in great success. William Seno, alias "Spider Webb," of Bird alley, and George W. Faust, alias "Stump," of Harrison street, are in prison, charged with the following burglaries: May 12, Fleet's store on the Allegheny Canyon Works; May 18, Richard's grocery; May 19, Sylvester's produce store; May 28, Esterly's hardware store; May 30, Gulong's saloon on South Centre street and also Goodman & Co's, Henry Snyder and Moll's butcher shop. The two men arrested were under suspicion and at one o'clock this morning Seno was met on the street and taken to the station house. A search warrant was sworn out and Seno's home searched.
He squealed on Faust. A double-barreled gun valued at $50 and a trunk full of stolen articles were found on the way from Seno's house. Faust was met on the street and arrested. Both men were committed without bail on charges of burglary. The chain of evidence against them is complete.

A DANGEROUS PLACE.

Highwaymen Hold Sway Between Wm.
Penn and Lost Creek No. 2.
The road leading from the western end of Wm. Penn to Lost Creek No. 2 has become a rendezvous for highwaymen and the people travelling at this place have become so timid that they now travel only by day and by the Lehigh Valley railroad to and from Troy. They will not risk walking over the road at night and at one o'clock on Friday night another man was beaten and robbed. A few nights previous a Hungarian was stopped. Only ten cents worth of peanuts were found with him and he was allowed to depart after a beating. On another occasion a man was relieved of ten cents and a pocketknife after being beaten. Something should be done to stamp out this gang, who evidently only seek to rob to get drunk.

troubles arise from Davidson's wife taking refuge in Mrs. Williams' house when they had their trouble on Sunday.

THE GERMAN SOCIETIES.

Their Annual State Convention Opened
This Morning.

BISHOP PRENDERGAST IS PRESENT

Pontifical High Mass Celebrated This Morning, Followed by the Convention and Parade of the Societies.
This Afternoon—The Attendance Large.

By Long Distance Telephone.

POTTSVILLE, June 1.—The convention of the German Catholic Societies of Pennsylvania began here this morning, and will continue three days. It will be one of the largest conventions of the societies, and will be one of the most important gatherings in the history of the church in this county.
Yesterday's proceedings consisted of a reception to the delegates at Centennial Hall.
In honor of the event Pottsville presents a beautiful appearance. The decorations are upon an elaborate scale, and the complementary expressions of the thousands of visitors to-day shows that the efforts of the people, without respect to class, creed or condition, is greatly appreciated. Never in the history of the town have the residents and business men so universally decorated their homes and business places, and their efforts have never been excelled. Beautiful arches line the principal streets, and streamers are noted in every direction the eye may turn.

Bishop Prendergast arrived last evening and was accompanied by Rev. Joseph Nery, of Philadelphia. They were taken to the residence of Father Longinus, where his reverence and several visiting clergymen were waiting. The evening was spent quietly at the priestly residence. Bishop Prendergast is a man of commanding presence, fully six feet in height and of well knit figure. His face is kindly yet showing strength of character and indicative of executive ability, just the signs that no doubt caused him to be chosen to his present high office in the church.

Another distinguished clergyman will arrive on Wednesday. This is Monsignor Joseph Schneider, D. D., professor of Dogmatic Theology at the Washington University.
Mgr. Schneider is no stranger in Pottsville.
He is well known and admired for his eloquence. He will address the mass meeting in the Academy of Music on Wednesday evening.

The day's proceedings opened with a Pontifical High Mass in St. John the Baptist church at 9 o'clock. The delegates and visiting societies assembled at Centennial Hall at 8 o'clock. Headed by the Third Brigade Band they marched to the church where they occupied the pews in the central aisle. The Pontifical High Mass was then begun, the choir singing Mozart's Third Mass, Offertory, "Aubade" by Et "Veni Creator" by Fr. Witt.

The celebrant of the mass was by the Right Reverend Edmund Prendergast, D. D., Bishop of Seattle and Auxiliary Bishop of Philadelphia. The other officers of the mass were as follows: Assistant Priest, Rev.
Thomas Stettelbacher, of Shenandoah, the Assistant Deacons, Rev. F. J. Metzger, of St.
Patrick's, Pottsville, and Rev. Louis Frederick, of Pittsburg; Deacon of the Mass, Rev. Bernard Korvas, of St. Louis church, Philadelphia; Sub-Deacon, Rev. Herman Dietrich, of Mahanoy City; Master of Ceremonies, Rev. George Hines, of Reading.
The sermon was preached by Rev. Anthony Zielebach, of Pittsburg.

Immediately after the mass the delegates assembled in the hall in the basement of the church. Christian Dulby, chairman of the Fest Committee, called the assembly to order and introduced Chief Burgess Walker, who delivered the address of welcome. His remarks were well received. Philip Weiss, of Wilkesbarre, president of the Union, then took the chair and the convention began its three-days session. The business transacted was of an important character.

The annual parade of the societies of the Union moved shortly after 2 o'clock, headed by the mounted society under command of Capt. George Wachter, followed by Chief Marshal Joseph Wolf and his aides. The first division was headed by the March Club band, an complete parade from that place, Wilkesbarre, Reading, Newtown and carriages containing state officers. The Grand Band and St. Michael's Society, of Shenandoah, led the second division, and included societies from different parts of the county, as did also the last and third division. The parade passed over the principal streets.

To-morrow morning another mass will be celebrated at St. John's church. The convention will be called together by President Weiss, and sessions will be held morning and afternoon. The reception in the Academy of Music will be held in the evening and Charles M. Yagle, of Pittsburg, will deliver an address.

The closing session of the convention will be held on Thursday morning. There will be a banquet held in Centennial Hall at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

M'COY WITH EASE.

The "Kid" Has No Trouble in Handling Jack Boner.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—The six-round fight between "Kid" McCoy and John Bener, of Summit Hill, the coal region wonder, took place at the Arena club room last night. About 5,000 people were present.
The first round opened with Boner swinging wildly for the face and body, the "Kid" keeping out of his reach. A great deal of sparring was done, with not a clear blow during the round. The second round was a repetition of the first, Boner rushing at Mc-Coy with no effect. No clear blows were landed in this round.

In the third and fourth Bener did all the forcing, but did not achieve hitting, while McCoy occasionally jabbed him in the face with his left. In the fifth the "Kid" seemed to play horse with Boner, hitting him whenever he pleased, but not punishing him to any extent. In the last round, however, he went at him in true style, jabbing his left punch in his face, and giving an occasional body blow. Boner fought back wildly and only landed a few times with any force.

Boner jabbed his adversary hard, when he realized he could not win. This spurred McCoy on and the punishment he administered to Boner was frightful. The coal region wonder, however, was in a condition to take it and when time was called McCoy had failed to knock him out. The referee declared the contest a draw.

THE STATE FINANCES I

The Governor Asked to Suggest Proper Subjects For Taxation.

THE QUAY COUNTY BILL IS KILLED

Senator Thomas Refutes the Charge That the State is Practically Bankrupt, and Quotes Statistics to Prove His Statement—Three Bills Are Voted by the Governor.

Harrisburg, June 1.—In the senate last evening Mr. Quay introduced a concurrent resolution asking the governor to inform the legislature of the financial condition of the state, and if there should be a deficit he is asked to suggest subjects of taxation.

Mr. Thomas asked permission to record his vote on the foregoing resolution in the affirmative. This permission was granted, whereupon Mr.
Thomas said: "I have been charged that the state is practically bankrupt, and that there should be a deficit he is asked to suggest subjects of taxation. This statement is not founded on facts. It is true, however, that there is a deficit, but it is no fault of this legislature.
Some years ago the state was in debt $1,000,000, at that time some $1,500,000 was appropriated to public schools. Today the public schools get $5,500,000.
From 1885 to 1896 the state has met several extraordinary expenditures, including $1,000,000 for the Johnstown flood sufferers. For new buildings on Centennial Hill $250,000 has been spent, and $500,000 was appropriated to remove the islands in the Delaware river.
Notwithstanding this the state's debt is now less than $2,000,000. We can wipe out this deficit either by taxing proper subjects or by borrowing. The governor ought to suggest proper subjects for taxation, and as soon as he does we will be ready to act. Until then our hands are tied."

The governor sent to the senate his veto of the bill increasing the salaries of the county sheriffs, says the real estate deputy in the sheriff's office of Philadelphia from $1,000 to $1,500.

In veto messages sent to the house the governor declined to approve the bill allowing schoolhouses to be used for religious purposes. He also vetoed the bill for special taxes for street sprinkling and street cleaning.

When the Quay county bill came up a motion that it be dropped from the calendar was adopted without a dissenting vote.

May Engender a Mine Strike.
Altoona, Pa., June 1.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company having notified the coal operators in the Westmoreland and Clearfield districts that the company would export a reduction of from 85 to 80 cents a ton for Westmoreland coal and from 75 to 65 cents a ton for mountain and Clearfield coal to take effect on June 5, a number of operators came here yesterday and conferred with Senator Quay. Motive Power Company on the subject. The operators say that a reduction in the price of coal would necessitate a reduction in wages of miners, and thereby engender a strike. They entered a protest, and the final decision is left with the general railroad office in Philadelphia.

a most congenial trio and contemplate an ex-stimulant to the planning of a campaign of a political nature, as can be attested by such men as Senators Matthew Stanley Quay, John F. Hartranft, of Bluefield, West Va., Mr. F. E. Maguire, of Shenandoah, Pa., who aspires to be Sheriff of Schuylkill county, subject to Republican rules, with a good chance of success.

EDITOR HERALD:—Kindly allow me to space a challenge for a game of ball between the Shenandoah High school and the Mahanoy City school. We would prefer to play them at Lakeside on Thursday, the day of their annual picnic, and will pay all our own expenses. If this is not satisfactory they may appoint a date and place at their own expense. Furthermore we will pay all their expenses and give them full privileges for the arrangement of a game, no matter what place they suggest. Now if there is any grit in that team let them accept this challenge

Council to choose these officers.
