Howard Mann Wins the Great Race on a Muddy Track.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND SPECTATORS

Witness the Blg Racing Event, Which Was Won in 2.09%-Lake Shore Came in Second and Volley Third-Jockey Taral Did Not Participate.

Brooklyn, June 1 .- It was a light weight this time in the mud, and how the cruwd cheered when Howard Mann galloped home, almost alone, in the Brooklyn handleap at Gravesend res-teday afternoon. The crowd was like that on the day the long shot Diabio wniked off with the stake, for there was scarcely an inch of space in the grand stand or on the lawn that was not occupied when the race was being run, and hundreds of people had swarmed across the track, ankle deep in mud, to get a good position in the infield. There was little hope of a farge assemblage in the early morning hours. assemblage in the early morning hours, enabler, will reach nearly $10,000 Mets-for a heavy fog hung over the land, eips crocked business has extended over for a heavy fog hung over the land, and drizzling rain was falling at intervals. Toward acon, however, the rain ceased, the sun began to dissipate the fog, and by the time people were beginning to think of starting for the race track it was a beautiful spring day. Then the trains began to arrive, sometimes to many notes that must now be met by the people who are on them. Other banks in the Lahligh valley are known to be likeers through Meixell's transactions. As the bank officials offer-only 550 for his apprehension. the horses to go, to the post there were

In the first few jumps Simms brought Handspring up into third place, and then held him there a length behind The Swain, and with heads only separating him from Beimar, Loki and Sir Waiter, him from Beimar, Loki and Sir Waiter, birn from Beimar, Loki and Sir Waiter, and Sir Waiter, birn from Beimar, Loki and Sir Waiter, birn from the standard and liver. The half mile post was passed in that order in 50% seconds, excellent time considering the mud, and with the exception of Volley, still floundering in the rear, the general apearance of things was unchanged. It took 13 secondary the rear of the secondary in the rear of the general apearance of things was unchanged. It took 13 secondary in The Section 1. that short space of time there were many changes. Volley woke up con-siderably and left Ben Eder and Jefneared the three-quarter pole it could be seen that Simms was doing a good deal of urging on Handspring. They passed the three-quarter mark in 1.15%, having put a rapid furlong behind them, and with little change in a little different. Then came a crack in the atmosphere, and before The Swain or Handphere, and before The Swain or Handspring knew what had happened Howard Mann was a length in front of the field. Loki, too, had come up with a rush and was in the second place, a head in front of Handspring, with Belmar in fourth place. Sir Walter was in fifth place, and the others trailing.

Then came the run around the upper n field, and he was at it again, for he ate up space in an astonishing manper and looked as if he might show his burst of speed to the end. One horse was certainly out of it, for with every jump The Swain was losing ground. The time of the seven furiones was 1.25, remarkably fast, and Howard Mann even then looked unbeatable. Martin was sitting on him like a statue, saving the colt all he could for the final rush of those behind. Loki was a couple of lengths behind, while Hand-spring seemed to have a lot of rein to spare for the final dash through the stretch. Volley was still coming fast on the outside, and cutting his rivals down one by one as he flew along, and Scherrer was giving Lake Shore a bit of gaff. They were at the head of the stretch, with a mile behind them, in the fast time of 143%, and Howard Mann had not faltered.

Now they were fairly straightened out for home, and the judges were in sight. Martin bitched a little uneasily on Howard Mann as he was getting near the goal, and at the last furlong pole he began driving a little, although he was two lengths to the good. As the timers' watches stopped at 2.09% he sent Howard Mann past the post four lengths in front of Lake Bhore, who was three lengths in front of Volley, who had run about a sixteenth of a mile further than any other horse in the race. Loki had dropped back to secand place, and Jefferson and The Bwain competed for last place. One remarkable thing was Taral's absence from the race, as it is many years since he has been without a mount in the big handleap.
