MANY of the statements made by Dr. Swallow, editor of the Pennsylvania Methodist, published at Harrisburg, are doubtless made on hearsay evidence, nevertheless one of these exposes, referring to a Schuylkill countain, demands more explicit information, and the Dr. should not be slow in furnishing the names of the parties referred to. Until this is done we are somewhat reluctant to believe that any Schuylkill county "statesman" would be guilty of the fraud charged. Here is what the Methodist editor Scronton, Pa. says: "A gentleman in this city did the work as paster and folder of two men, one from Wayne county and another from Schuylkill county. Each got $6 a day. These men miver pretended to be present, or to supervise the work. The two paid Mr. Hoke $1.50 a play. The reverend gentleman said in part: "We can no longer wait for age to tell its tale to age; the times are big with significance. The daily papers are our modern scriptures given of tiod and profitable that his servants may be thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

In the newspapers as in nothing else we see what humanity is. There as in a mirror, stands portrayed the image of mankind. the press will have to continue to show as many things it would be pleasanter not to behold. But it is necessary to look on them If you wish to make men and women better. There is no better text book in the pathology of the soul than the press. We need to cultivate a genuine sympathy for mankind, and that is what the newspapers are trying to do toacquaint men with each other; to bring them closer together; to put them listo touch one with another.
