Munyon Teaches You to Doctor Yourself.

"It is not necessary to call a physician every time you have a cold or a pain and pay him several dollars for counting your pulse and looking at your tongue," says Dr. Munyon. "Neither is it wise to neglect any symptoms that may indicate the beginning of a serious illness. Get the proper Munyon Remedy from some druggist at once. It will cure you before the disease has a chance to get you. Most of these cures are 25 cents a bottle."

Where you are in doubt, a personal letter to Prof. Munyon, 1200 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa., will be answered with free medical advice for any disease.

The Lynching of a Negro in Ohio Costs Two Lives, AND TEN OTHERS WERE WOUNDED

Soldiers Who Were Guarding the Convict Fled Twenty Volleys Into the Crowd—The Dead Were Innocent Spectators of the Exciting Scenes.

Urbana, O., June 5.—Two men were killed and ten wounded at 2:30 yesterday morning by a company of the Ohio National Guard in defense of Charles Mitchell, a negro rapist in jail at this place. In spite of the militia the mob finally entered the jail and lynched the prisoner. All of the victims were innocent citizens who were spectators of the scene of excitement. In addition to this list it is feared that Mrs. Eliza Gaudner, who was assaulted by the negro, will not recover, and several of the injured are in a serious condition. There is intense feeling against some of the officials, and further complications are apprehended.

The dead are: Harvey Bell, Urbana, shot in the head and instantly killed; Upton Baker, farmer north of Urbana, fatally wounded; Wesley Bowen, Carle, shot in the hip; Zach Wank, Urbana, shot in the groin and leg.

While the past two nights and days witnessed scenes of lawlessness and bloodshed, yet the feeling at no time has been as intense as it is here today. The body of Mitchell was exposed all day yesterday in a rough coffin, and it intensified the feeling among the crowds who viewed it. The bodies of the citizens who were killed were tenderly cared for, and their funerals on Sunday will tend to keep alive the bitter feeling. Several of the wounded will be crippled for life.

One week ago yesterday Mrs. Eliza Gaudner was assaulted by Mitchell here near in this city, near the court house. The brute accomplished his purpose. Keenly realizing her position, she requested her son to announce that she was assaulted for robbery. It was given out that Mitchell attempted to force her to sign a check for $500. As Mrs. Gaudner's condition became more serious the facts became known, and as it was also stated that the negro was afflicted with a loathsome disease. The negro was first held for robbery, but on last Wednesday was arraigned on the criminal assault charge. Gaudner was unable to appear in court, and the hearing was held at her home. As Mitchell entered her room she exclaimed: "The brute, hang him. How dare you face me again, you brute?"

Soon after the identification on Wednesday there was talk of lynching. Crowds surrounded the jail that night, and the sheriff and the local militia had trouble in protecting the prisoner. Thursday a grand jury was empaneled and it returned an indictment for criminal assault. Mitchell, disguised in a soldier's uniform, was brought there day night from jail to court. He waived the reading of the indictment, pleaded guilty and was promptly sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary, the maximum punishment for his crime.

An attempt was made to take Mitchell out of the city at 10 p. m., but the crowds which had gathered about the court house made a rush for the jail when the wagon drew up. The military drove them back, but the mob increased in numbers and grew more threatening. Sheriff McLean and the troops here all could do to hold the jail, and the trip to Columbus was given up before the departure of the last train. In the meantime crowds had also surrounded the depots, so as to make sure their man should not be taken away. At the night word of the mob increased, and the shouts and murmurings indicated that it was in dead earnest.

It was just 1:30 when the first attack was made on the jail and the military began firing. Over twenty volleys were poured into the crowd, and the mob was repulsed, leaving four killed and ten wounded. The range was close, but the soldiers fired wildly. Of the killed and wounded nearly all were on the outskirts of the mass of men, those immediately in a direct line of fire escaping. The volleys drove the crowd back a little way and it was found that two men, named Higgins and Bell, had been instantly killed. When their bodies were picked up in the court house square it made the crowd furious.

After the dead and wounded were cared for, the crowd rallied. The local militia had been on duty two nights, and they did no more shooting. Governor Bushnell had been asked for more troops during the night, and before 7 a. m. a company from Springfield arrived. Just then the local company was withdrawn from the jail. Mayor Ganson met the Springfield company en route from the depot and sent the troops back, saying they were not wanted.

The mob, seeing the way open, broke for the jail. No force was needed, as Sheriff McLean delivered the keys and the crowd soon found Mitchell's cell. Throwing a rope over the trembling wretch's head, he was dragged out, receiving some kicks and blows. When the outer door was reached the noise slipped off and Sylvester Zimmerman felt it so securely as to receive the cheers of the crowd. The rope was thrown over one of the limbs of a tree in the court house yard, Mitchell was jerked up until his head struck the limb and his neck was broken, and then his body dropped to the ground. The crowd repeated the jerking several times until they were sure he was dead. He died without a struggle as his neck was evidently broken by the first jerk. He was 23 years old and a hotel porter.

While the body of Mitchell was lying on the ground hundreds crowded about to see it. The colored people were greatly excited. They had previously met and adopted resolutions for the punishment of Mitchell, but many of them offered the opinion that he was not guilty.

Women and children, as well as a multitude of men, witnessed the lynching. There was no attempt at disguise or secrecy. The assemblies in the public square was open as any public place that has ever been held in this place. The local militia company, feeling the overwhelming public feeling against them, offered no resistance when the mob broke into the jail, or when the lynching was going on, and the Springfield company had been counter-marched to the depot.

TREATS THE MATTER LIGHTLY, The English Liberal Leader Gives the Young Man Some Good Advice and Declines to Prefer a Charge Against Him.

London, June 5.—While Henry Labouchere, the editor of Truth and Radical member of parliament, was on his way from his residence to the house of commons yesterday, a young man accosted him and struck him several blows with a horse whip. The assailant was the son of the Rev. George Brooks, otherwise known as the "Prince of Hugging Letter Writers," whose doings were exposed in the columns of Truth. Brooks, who was formerly a Methodist parson, is said to have obtained $40,000 within a period of five years by sending begging letters to cabinet ministers, dukes, archbishops, directors of the Bank of England, governors, admirals and it is said to William Waldorf Astor. Mr. Labouchere refused to make complaint, saying it was only the whim of a silly young man.

Brooks, who has also been dubbed "Bounty" Brooks, from the fact that he succeeded in obtaining a grant of $1,000 from the royal bounty fund voted every year by parliament to enable the queen to assist deserving literary men and women, brought a suit for libel against Mr. Labouchere, which resulted in a verdict in December last in favor of the editor, who is credited with having expended about $250,000 during recent years in exposing frauds in the United Kingdom. Brooks in Feb. 17 last sued the St. James Gazette for $25,000 on the ground that he had been denounced as a fraud.

But She Has Been Cured—Long May She Live and Long Live the Remedy to Which She Owes Her Life.

The following interesting interview concerning the efficacy of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, have lately been received at the office of this newspaper. The first embodies a conversation with Mrs. M. A. Whitely, the widow of the late Rev. Jonathan Whitely, D. D., an eminent divine of the Methodist denomination. Mrs. Whitely spoke as follows:

"I consider it my duty to tell for publication the immense benefit I have derived from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Three years ago I was stricken by paralysis, and lay helpless for months. I was at last advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which after many misgivings I concluded to do, as I had lost faith in all medicines. The first box helped me much, and the continued use of the pills has worked and is working wonders. To-day I have driven twelve miles without fatigue. I cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for they have done me a world of good."

My wife and daughter have been falling in health for some time and the treatment of physicians in their cases have been fruitless. So much has been said of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People that I resolved to try them, and myself and family will always be glad that Providence threw such a medicine in our way. The pills have cured and saved cheeks of my wife and daughter who have dropped, and the rosy glow of health has returned. You cannot read my feelings in the matter, and all I can say is that I trust all who are bowed down by the heavy hand of physical infirmity will learn that there is a remedy that cures and gives suffering humanity where they can enjoy this earthly existence. God bless the maker of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. They are never sold in bulk, or by mail, or by any other means, except by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Mr. John W. Hearty, who is a contractor and builder of Mendville, of the highest respectability, says:

"Although I have passed the meridian of life, I am glad to be able to say that I have little or no use for medicines of any kind. But my wife is not so fortunate. During the last few years she has been a sufferer from dropsy and disease of the heart, and at times suffers greatly. A few months ago she began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and has been greatly benefited by their use. She experienced a numbness and coldness in her limbs and at times could scarcely walk by reason of poor circulation of the blood. All these unpleasant symptoms have disappeared and I confidently hope to see her a well woman ere long. It will also take the liberty to speak for a brother-in-law of mine, G. W. Myer, who resides at Shenkleyville, Mercer Co., Pa. So great was his affliction by reason of erysipelas in the face and a general breaking down of the system that last winter he was given up to die. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People have cured him and he is now as well as ever and has a new lease of life."
