PITHY POINTS.

Happenings Throughout the Country Chronicled for Easy Perusal. The Mahanoy township schools have closed for the term. Sixteen aliens were naturalized by Judge Dechler on Saturday. The Third Regiment N. G. P., will encamp this year at Mt. Gretna. The Lithuanian Socialist party will meet in Synkowitz hall to-night. It is estimated that Forepaugh's circus took $15,000 out of Pottsville last week. The primaries for the Berks county Democratic Convention will be held on Saturday. The construction of the trolley line between Lansford and Tamaqua is progressing rapidly. The members of the defunct Hose Company of Girardville are taking steps for re-organization. First class work and reasonable prices are the magnets that cause the HERALD'S job departments to be kept busy. There are any number of bad pavements in town, and if not speedily repaired may cause the borough heavy damage. The St. Clair School Board has organized as follows: President, A. T. Jenkins; Secretary, Robert Donkin; Treasurer, Arthur Reese.

The annual session of the Schuylkill County of the Reformed church will be held in Frackville this week, commencing this evening. On Tuesday and Wednesday of next week the annual convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Sabbath Schools will be held at Pottsville. The annual commencement of the Central High School will take place at Odd Fellows Hall next Tuesday evening. There are seven graduates. Marriage licenses were issued to the following: Dennis Farrell and Annie Quinn, both of Tremont township; Edolph Schurz and Margaret C. Schelzer, both of Pottsville. At the organization of the new school house in Ashland the old officers were re-elected, as follows: President, Johannes Cechill; Secretary, John W. Edwards; Treasurer, Peter Flanagan; Fireman, Lester S. Keiser. S. H. Clair was elected librarian at a salary of $5 a month.

Class Sessions. The Reformed church classes will hold its regular semi-annual sessions at Frackville to-night and to-morrow. Child's Arm Fractured. John Howard, 7-year-old son of Letter Carrier John M. Beck, fell from a wagon Saturday night and broke both bones of his left arm between the wrist and elbow in two places. Dr. M. S. Kistler reduced the fracture.

Attempted Robbery. Robbers tried to break into the warehouse at the Indian Ridge colliery Saturday night. The breaking of a dog in the place attracted the attention of a watchman and a fireman at the latter house who hurried to the place, but the robbers escaped over the timber bank and in the direction of the red bridge.

Ask your grocer for an "Royal Patent" flour, and take no other brand. It is the best flour made.

Death of Rear Admiral Lee. Washington, June 7.—Rear Admiral Samuel Phillips Lee, U. S. N., retired, the last of the commanders of great squadrons during the civil war, died at his home at Elvess Springs, near this city, Saturday evening, after a short illness, of a stroke of paralysis. He was a Virginian by birth, and a direct descendant of Light Horse Harry Lee, of revolutionary fame. Admiral Lee's war record was one of the brightest in American naval annals.

Detailing Boat Ends in Battle. Pottsville, Ky., June 7.—A pitched battle in which Tom Lewis, Preston Lee, Green Charles, J. W. Charles, Shuler and Hemp Lee engaged occurred near the Virginia-Kentucky border in Virginia. J. W. Charles was killed outright and Green Charles, Hemp Lee and Tom Lewis were mortally wounded. The parties had been drinking, and a quarrel ensued.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. Robert O'Boyle spent to-day at Pottsville. William Veale visited the fair at St. Clair yesterday. Jacob Smith, of Shamokin, spent Sunday in town with A. P. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Hess returned home from Bloomsburg on Saturday evening. Miss Ella Bowman and Katie McDermott spent to-day at Pottsville visiting friends. Mrs. Guyan and family to-day sent their household effects to Philadelphia, where they intend to locate.

"Doc" S. D. Small today left town for Brooklyn, N. Y., where he intends to locate. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooks, of Pottsville, were the guests of town relatives yesterday. Miss Mary Pomeoy, of Pottsville, spent yesterday in town as the guest of her mother. Daniel Keady has changed his family residence from North White to 27 East Centre street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hood and Mrs. Thomas Hoff spent yesterday with James P. Linton, at Kingston. Fred. Wadley, E. R. Brown and Elwood Jacoby made a trip to Hazleton and return on their bicycles yesterday.

Fall on the Pavement. By stumbling against an elevation in the pavement in front of Franey's new store room on North Main street, last evening, Mrs. Charles Barhill, of Mahanoy City, was thrown violently to the ground. The lady was picked up and removed to the home of her mother, Mrs. Oliver, who lives nearby. Her injuries are slight.

A New Team. Through the dissatisfaction among some of the players of the Shenandoah Browns, a new team is being organized to be known as the Relief nine. The new team will be under the management of Robinson Hall.

Received an Appointment. Prof. Henry C. Krebs, principal of the Hazleton, N. J., schools, has been chosen supervisor of the schools of Somerville, N. J. Prof. Krebs is the son of L. W. Krebs, of Krebs' station, in the Catawissa valley.

Relieved by associates. Whiting, W. Va., June 7.—M. Bacon, Hazleton county, Friday night, John Nicholas and Ida Sutton, members of prominent families, were married, and after the wedding feast went to Nicholas' home, preparatory to a bridal trip. When they arrived there a gang of hoodlums collected to hold christening, and just as the bride and groom were entering the yard Ford Hart, a boy, fired a heavily loaded gun. The barrel burst and a piece struck Mrs. Nicholas, crushing her skull. She died Saturday. Hart was arrested.

When you want good roofing, plumbing or fitting, or general plumbing, don't call on E. F. Gallagher, 15 West Centre street, Dasher in store.

Taken to Mt. Carmel. Detective Amour on Saturday night arrested a man named Smith at the Farmers' hotel on charge of juggling a hand bill at Mt. Carmel. Smith was taken to Mt. Carmel yesterday and committed to jail after a hearing at that place.

GIBSON-MCDONALD FIGHT.

Pretty Certain That the Man Will Meet To-night. Notwithstanding the numerous reports to the contrary circulated this morning, it appeared quite certain at the time the HERALD went to press this afternoon that William Gibson, of Palo Alto, and Darby McDonald, of Mt. Carmel, would meet to-night for their fifteen-round glove contest in private for $100 a side. Gibson claimed this morning that the fight was off, saying he had received a letter from McDonald, in which the latter refused to fight outside of Mt. Carmel and Gibson's backers would not consent to go there. Later in the day, however, matters assumed a shape indicating that the men would get together to-night and it was learned at three o'clock this afternoon from parties who should be in a position to know that the fight would take place.

Casarets stimulate liver, kidneys and bowels. Never sicken, weaken or gripe. 10c.

Columbia's Day Out. The Columbia Hose Company have secured the grove at Lakeside for their annual day out on July 10th. The firemen generally have a very enjoyable time and their preparations this year are for a better time than ever before.

Children's Day. The Sunday school connected with the Presbyterian church will celebrate Children's Day next Sunday. An elaborate program is being arranged.

Just try a 10c box of Casarets, the finest liver and bowel regulator ever made.

Choir Augmented. The choir of the Annunciation church was augmented yesterday by the assistance of Miss Catherine Moore, an excellent soprano of Mahanoy City; Prof. John Jones, the violinist of that city, and Mr. Thompson, of Newark, N. J. Miss Moore's rendition of Ave Maria with Prof. Jones' accompaniment was very impressive. Mr. Thompson is an excellent tenor.

Death of a British soldier. Toronto, Ont., June 7.—A private cadet named here announces the death of Lieutenant General Edward Osborne Hewitt, C. M. G., governor of Woolwich, England. Lieutenant General Hewitt was well known in Canada, having been sent out here in 1881 at the time of the antipole war with the United States over the Trent affair, to occupy the position of commanding royal engineer of Ontario, west of Toronto, in which capacity over 2,000 regular troops were then stationed.

MAHANOY CITY.

A Child's Body Found in a Cess Pool Saturday Afternoon.

Another case of infanticide was brought to light here on Saturday afternoon, one Rosie Jackonowicz, aged 24 years, being the defendant. The discovery was made by a householder, Anthony Lias, who discovered the remains of a male infant in a cess pool in the rear of the house, which was partly hidden by a cloth. Suspicion rested on this young woman who was immediately put under arrest. She admitted that the child was born last Wednesday and that life was extinct upon birth. She was committed to jail by Justice May.

George Autalik, a Hungarian employed at Tunnel Ridge colliery, had his left arm badly scalded while drawing the steam and water from a boiler on Saturday to make repairs. The School Board will meet to-night for re-organization. The new members of the board are: M. R. Stein, Third ward; Thomas J. Thomas, Fourth ward, and James Griffith, Fifth ward.

The people of Trenton turned out in a mass Saturday afternoon in honor of old glory which was unfurled at the school. At 2 o'clock the scholars of the Delano school marshaled by Prof. J. M. Schroppe and several teachers, headed by the Delano band and Washington Camp No. 72, P. O. S. of A., marched to Trenton, where they were joined by the Trenton scholars. Amid the waving of flags by the school children and national airs by the band, the flag was presented to the schools by Prof. J. M. Schroppe in behalf of the school. C. E. Green, a member of the Delano School Board, responded for the local board, while Capt. Edward Reese accepted the flag in behalf of the people of Trenton.

The marksmen of town, will hold a meeting in Kaiser's opera house next Wednesday evening for the purpose of organizing a gun club.

Paul Schistner, of Morea, was before Justice May on Saturday evening for committing assault and battery preferred by Henry Zerlich, who accused Schistner of cheating him out of 50 cents. The case was settled.

Estasus Reese, a young woman residing on East Water street, received painful bruises about the body last evening by falling from a pole swing near Gorman's turn-out. Shortly after a boy named Daniel Jenkins fell from the same swing and had one of his shoulders badly wrenched.

British Enterprise in the Northwest. Seattle, Wash., June 7.—Elli A. Gange, manager of the North American Transportation and Trading company, is in Seattle on his way to the company's trading posts on the Yukon. To a correspondent he said today that a chartered British company is proposing to operate on the Yukon, on the same plan and scale as that of the famous Chartered South African company. It proposes to build and govern towns and cities, maintain a force of soldiers, operate mines, build steamships, etc. The company is admitted to have millions of money back of it.

Victim of a Mysterious Murder. Greenwich, Conn., June 7.—Edward Long, aged 18, a back driver, died at his home here yesterday from a bullet wound in the head received in a melee Saturday night. Long was unconscious when found, and expired without being able to give any information as to the cause of the shooting. A man thought to belong in Stamford and a woman about town are supposed to be the principals in the affair, but as yet their identities is not known, and no arrests have been made.

Defaulting Bank President's Sutefile. Ocala, Fla., June 7.—H. B. McConnell, the defaulting president of the defunct Merchants' National bank, committed suicide Saturday afternoon. He sent a bullet crashing through his brain, and before medical aid could be summoned was a corpse. The deed was committed at the home of his brother-in-law, W. K. McDonald, where he, his wife and mother were taking dinner. The affair caused greater excitement in the city than even the bank failure.
