THERE is good reason to hope for definite action on the currency question immediately following the completion of the tariff bill. It is now announced semi-authoritatively that President McKinley will send a message to Congress immediately upon the passage of the tariff bill recommending the creation of a commission which shall take up at once in time for consideration by Congress at its regular session which begins in December next.

Disgraceful Row in a Ball Game. Reading, Pa., June 22 .- The most disgraceful scene ever seen on a Reading ball field took place here yesterday afternoon in the Reading-Paterson game. Dissatiafied with a decision of Temporary Umpire Pyle, Catcher Smink, of Paterson, threw the ball at the umpire, and Pyle retaliated. Fitch-Lucid, of Reading, then picked up a ball and sent it crashing into Smink's face. He fell over like a log, and many thought him dead. He was unconscious, and were it not for the presence of a dozen policemen a thousand men would have engaged in a general fight. Smink had a half dozen teeth knocked out and his upper lip badly split. Umpire Betts arrived by this time, and assumed his position while Westinke took Smink's place.
