HANNA IS IN CONTROL

Of Republican Politics in the Buckeye State.

BUSHNELL TO BE RENOMINATED.

Despite His Defeat on the Question of the State Committee Chairmanship, He Will Accept Another Term—No Opposition to Hanna as Senator.

Toledo, O., June 22.—The Ohio Republican state convention assembled here yesterday. There is no opposition to the endorsement of Senator M. A. Hanna for both the long and the short term as senator, and there is no short term as senator, and there is no opposition to the renomination of Governor Bushnell and other state officers who have had only one term. The contest has been on the state campaign committee chairmanship. Senator Hanna wanted Major Charles F. W. Dick, secretary of the national committee, for the place. Governor Bushnell and other state officers wanted Chairman Charles L. Kurtz, who has managed the past two campaigns, retained.

Senator Foraker was not here, but it is known that he supported Governor Bushnell and Chairman Kurtz as strongly as possible by wire. It has been the custom for the head of the state ticket in Ohio to name the chairman of the state executive committee, but Senator Hanna had the convention to his own advantage, and he will not perfect the party organization according to precedent.

Major Dick arrived Sunday and opened headquarters for the contest. Governor Bushnell and Chairman Kurtz arrived Monday and opened headquarters. Governor Bushnell had gone so far as to say he could not accept renomination if Chairman Kurtz was defeated.

When Mr. Hanna arrived yesterday he held a number of conferences with both factions, but at none of these could he understand Senator Hanna proposed to have Major Dick withdraw, and the latter consented to retire from the race if Chairman Kurtz would also do so. The proposition was not accepted. Governor Bushnell insisted on his right to be elected as executive chairman, and Mr. Kurtz said that since the fight had been made on him he could stand defeat, but he could not compromise.

The contending factions carried their claim to the meetings of the delegates by congressional districts, and Mr. Hanna won more than two to one. He controlled the district meetings and the convention more firmly than the St. Louis convention last year. The Kurtz men concede their defeat, but claim out of the 21 congressional districts, Senator Hanna and Governor Bushnell had conferences again last night. While the governor regrets the defeat of Chairman Kurtz he decided not to demand renomination. Meantime the state central committee will not select the campaign chairman and the members of the state executive committee, but the central committee will meet at an early date in Columbus for this purpose. It is expected that Senator Hanna and Governor Bushnell will get together soon for co-operation in the campaign. It is understood now that Major Dick will be made chairman of the executive committee, and that Governor Bushnell and other state candidates will name the other members of the state executive committee.

It is announced that Major Dick will appoint John H. Mahon, secretary of the state executive committee. The Republican state convention was called to order in the elaborately decorated arena shortly after 4 p. m. All the 5,000 seats were occupied, and the standing room was in demand. As Congressman Groverman, ex-Secretary Charles Foster, Governor Bushnell, Senator Hanna and the other leaders entered the hall they were given ovations.

Honorable H. P. Crouse, chairman of the state central committee, before announcing the temporary officers of the convention, reviewed the Republican triumph in Ohio since 1895, and then introduced General C. H. Graevener as the temporary chairman. General Graevener made a ringing speech in the interest of party harmony, which was widely cheered.

The first day's session was taken up in the naming of the committees, and then the convention adjourned until today.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired or nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters supports the digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at A. Waseley's drug store.

Opposition to Governor Inquirer.

Nashville, Tenn., June 22.—The city is full of overflowing with visitors for the Confederate veterans' reunion, and the rush has not ceased. The chief subject of discussion is the proposed retirement of General John B. Gordon as commander-in-chief. Many names are suggested for his successor, among them General Simon Bolivar Buckner, General Joe Wheeler and General Stewart. The only intimation of a rift in the late of harmony comes from the suggestion of General Buckner for commander-in-chief. His position on the financial question is being used against him, and also his candidacy for vice president as the nominee of the Indianapolis convention.

PLESBARE TALK

About the Little Enemies to Backaches—What Home People Think About It.

Mr. John Gibbon is a citizen of Wilkes-Barre. Our representative found him at his place of residence, 237 Hazle street. Mr. Gibbon has been for a long time the victim of a bad back and kidney trouble. The following conversation held with him will interest many:

"Mr. Gibbon," said our representative, "How long have you been troubled with kidney disorders?"

"For ten years it has bothered me more or less, being very bad at times."

"What did you do for it?"

"I tried everything I heard of for which merit was claimed." Here Mr. Gibbon named numerous well-known kidney medicines, and one in particular, a high priced article that he had taken many bottles of, all to no purpose.

"How did you come to take Doan's Kidney Pills?"

"Just as so many others have. I saw them advertised and got a box at the drug store of Tuck & Co. I thought they might help me a little, and to my surprise they proved the best thing I ever had taken. Nothing has helped me like Doan's Kidney Pills, and I have not been slow to tell my friends of their genuine merit."

"How did your disorder affect you?"

"Exactly as you describe kidney complaint in your advertising, and my suffering with pain in the back, times was beyond description. I most emphatically endorse Doan's Kidney Pills and shall do all I can to recommend them to others, for they are worthy of it, and above all, I shall use them myself."

"Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers, price 50 cents, mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole agents for the U. S."

THE SUBURBAN WINNER.

Mike Dwyer's Bra Bush Captures the Great Event

IN THE LAST TIME OF 2:07 1-5.

Twenty Thousand People Witnessed the Race, and the Result Was Gratifying to the Large Majority, the Winner Being the Prime Favorite.

New York, June 22.—At last the tuck has changed, and the Dwyers have won one of the big handicaps. They tried for years together, and were beaten time and again, and then tried separately after dissolving partnership, and now, after many years, the younger of the pair, Michael F. Dwyer, has carried off the great mile and a quarter Suburban with Ben Brush. In the last time of 2:07 1-5. It was a victory for the favorite, and consequently a popular one, and, as far as could be seen, was a true run race. The attendance was enormous, even larger than on Brooklyn handicap day, which was the largest crowd at a race track in the east in several years. Only 20,000 people packed the stands, the two tiers of the grand stand, the roof and the paddock, and from the front that went up when Ben Brush handed the race, and Simms was hoisted into the floral gypsy's chair, it would seem as if all had backed the winner.

The day was a perfect one, the track was fast and a better race could not have been desired, even if the horses engaged were not of a class that has been seen in this classic stake in other years. The three races that preceded the great event were watched with more or less indifference, as nearly all the spectators had come down to see the suburban and were restless in waiting for it to come.

It was 4:30 before the bugle called the nine horses to the post. There was a slight delay at the post, owing to the fractiousness of Semper Ego, the Winner and Belmar, but within five minutes Pettinich got them in perfect line and they were away on their journey. The Winner was the first to show in front, followed by his stable companion, Belmar, the half-breed Havoc, Sir Walter, Ben Brush and the others, although there was little to choose between them. They were fairly straightened out before they had run a furlong, and then the boys began to hunt for the place, owing to which they wished to run the first part of the race. Curiously, not even the light-weight cared to set the pace, and the first three furlongs past the grand stand and around the lower turn were very slow, 29 seconds being required to cover the distance. The boys waited and hauled at their mouths to keep them from getting to the front. The furlong around the lower turn occupied 13-45 seconds.

That began the race, for Lewis saw that it was unwise to choke Havoc, and gave him a little of his own way, and the colt became the pacemaker. Close behind him was Semper Ego, but Scherer was urging him, while Havoc was going easily and with a lot to spare. Then came Ben Brush, the favorite, half a length away, with his boy doing all in his power to prevent him from using up all his speed so early in the race. It was in that order they passed the first half mile post of their journey in 51-5 seconds, the last furlong of the half being run in 12-5-8, the fastest with a little of his own way. Behind Ben Brush were the winner and Belmar, while the others trailed along, with Dutch Slater holding the rear and scarcely a bit of the speed he showed a few days ago.

On the way to the three-quarter pole conclusions began to tell, and Semper Ego dropped back to the rear ranks, his place being taken by Ben Brush, who at the six furlong mark was half a length behind Havoc, in 1:16-5-2, and a length in front of the Winner. Now they were beginning the upper turn, with a quarter-mile dash around it to the stretch, and Simms gave Ben Brush his head. Lewis did the same with Havoc, and lost but little, for in the 25-45 seconds required for the run to the mile pole, which was reached in 1:42-1-5. It was a matter of inches of a neck, while Ben Brush was a length and a half in front of the Winner, he in turn a length in front of Belmar, the others hopelessly beaten.

They rounded the turn in safety and straightened out for home. Then Simms began driving Ben Brush, while Lewis was driving but little on Havoc. The crowd began to shout "Havoc," and it did look for a moment as if the Canadian representative might win. Simms heard it, too, and worked all the harder on the game son of Drumbo. The colt responded to every inch and inch by inch narrowed the space between him and Havoc. Now he was at the horse's saddle, at his withers, at his ears, and now his nose shot in front. The danger was not all over, for the crowd dropped the shout of Ben Brush, which it had taken up when his nose was in front, and Simms heard the Winner's name in frantic yells. He glanced over his shoulder, and saw the determined Sloan driving the Winner as he ran, and rapidly gaining ground. They he looked ahead, saw the finish only a sixteenth away, and dug his snouts into Ben Brush's sides, madly flailing him as if his life depended upon it. It was a desperate race, nearer and nearer to the finish line, and heaver and heavier came the Winner. One violent push with knees and heels, and he was over the line in safety, winner of the coveted Suburban, with the Winner half a length away, and Havoc, stepping back in the third place, four lengths in front of the rest of the field, all badly beaten, with Belmar leading them.

Mr. James Parlin, an old soldier residing at Monroe, Mich., was severely afflicted with rheumatism but received prompt relief from pain by using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "At times my back would ache so badly that I could hardly rise up, if I had not gotten relief I would not be here to write these few lines. Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done me a great deal of good and I feel very thankful for it." For sale by Gruller Bros., druggists.
