Harvard and Cornell Defeated in Remarkably Fast Time,

FRESHMEN RECORDS LOWERED.

The New Haven Students Covered the Two Mile Course in Nine Minutes, Sinctoon and a Half Second -- Har-

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 24.-Three crews of freshmen on the Hudson has evening amashed to emithercons all revious records for freshmen on a two dle course, and put up one of the hottest intercollegiate races ever wit-nessed in this country. A crew of sturdy Xale freshmen rowed the two miles course in 9 minutes 1915 seconds; a trifle lighter crew of Harvard freshmen fought them every inch of the way, and finished a trifle over two lengths behind in 9.26%, and the Corthat none of its freshmen crows have over been benten before, finished a length behind Harvard in 9.29%. The best previous record for two miles was better exhibition, yesterday's race was a very remarkable one, all three of the a very remarkable one, all three of the crews having lowered the record, the last crew in the race—Cornell—doing so by 114 seconds. All three of the crews used every pound of power in their boats at every stage of the two miles, and each crew at some period of the race was in the fead.

For sale in Shenandeab, Pa., at A. Wasley's and Kirila's, Droggists. some measure indicative of the result of tomorrow's big 'varsity race. It is not contended that the order of finish will be the same, for Mr. Lehmann, of Harvard, has all along said that his freshmen had been badly neglected, and could not be looked upon as a rep-resontative freshmen crew. On the resentutive freshmen crew. On the contrary, the Yale craw of youngsters has been said to be more sure of winning than their 'varsity, while Mr. Courtney's Cornell crows have had equal attention paid to them. The chances, therefore, as picked out today are that the order of Friday's finish is likely to be Harvard, Yale, Cornell, On account of the reservations. On account of the rough water at the bridge the race was postponed until o'clock last evening, and at ten min-utes must that hour the boats were started. Harvard got the best clip on the water, and in a few strokes drew to the front, closely followed by the Cor-nell crew, with Yale almost a quarter ength to the rear. Harvard and Cornell started at 15 strokes to the min that she was trailing behind, increase her stroke to 36, and began to draw up while Harvard and Cornell dropped down to 21 each. At the quarter Yale was still behind, but seemed to be owing easily, while Harvard and Cornell were working hard, Cornell draw Yale was easing up her stroke, and within the next half mile brought it down to 33 and 34, but even then sho eptible dash to the boat that sceme acking in the others. There was little or no hang, while the Harvard boat seemed to go hard, and the Cornell boys did not seem to be able to keep up to the mark, acting as though they had finely trained. At the three-quarter mark Yale was coming up rapidly on Harvard and Cornell, rowing 25 to the minute, while the two latter, evidently feeling the effect of the pace in the first mile, had dropped to 34 each. Just crossing the mile line Yale had pulled her boat up even with that of Harvard and was shoving his nose forward a few inches with each stroke ornell was laboring a length behind

From that point on to the finish Yale rowed steadily at 33 and 34. Yale rowed steadily at 32 and 34, quickening to 36 several lengths from the finish in an endeavor to make the breach between her old enemy, Harvard, and herself a trifle wider. And although Harvard picked her strokes up to 30 after passing the mile, and held it there until the finish, it lacked power, and the boat dropped gradually behind, crossing the line a trifle over.
