IN THE HANDS OF A MOB

Key West Excited Over the Killing of a White Man

BY A MOB OF EXCITED NEGROES.

Belleving That One of Their Own Culor Was in Danger of Lynching, on the first train. They Shoot Down a Citizen Who Was Resting at the Court House,"

Key West, Fig., June 26.-This city was virtually in the hands of a negro mob Thursday night, and a white citizen was killed by the mob. At 4 p. m. Thursday Bilvanus Johnson, charged with assault on a white woman, Mrs. Margaret Atwell, was conducted to the Margaret Atwell, was conducted to the courtroom was crowded, and C. B. Pendleton, a well known citizen, arose and asked. "Are there enough white men present to hang the negro?" There was a chorus of "yees," and the crowdelowed in on the prisoner. The sherin and his deputies drew their revolvers and held the crowd at bay, while John son was at once hurried back to jail. A big mob gathered in front of the building, and one of the negroes cried out to lynch Pendleton, and a rosh was made for him. Through the efforts of himself and his friends Pendleton made his escape in a carriage.

The negro mob then gathered again about the jail building to prevent the lynching of Johnson, and open threats were made by them to kill any white man that might come to the jail, About it o'clock Thurseday alight William Gardener, a white man, was sitting in fromi of the court house. When averaged the earn of the negro mob approached him and ordered him to move on. He arose to obey, and as soon as his back was turned there rang out the crack of a number of rifles, and Cardener roceived a mortal wound, from which he died two hours latter.

The whites are inclined to avenue Gardener's death, and another attempt to lynch Johnson is expected. A serious conflict between the whites and the blacks feared.

The militia is in rendiness for any disturbance, having been ordered out by the governor, and the United States troops are at the orders of the sheriff.
