Thrilling Experiences of the Survivors, Who For Seventeen Days Were Held Captive on a Reef, With the Vessel Gradually Breaking to Pieces.

Aden, June 30 .- The Indian government's steamer Mayor, sent out in search of the missing steamer Aden, which was last heard of whenl eaving Colombo on June 1 for this port, has returned here, and reports that the Aden was totally lost off the Island of Socotra, at the eastern extremity of

The captain of the wrecked steamer, some of her officers and crew and seven hlte passengers were swept overboard and drowned very soon after she ran

Eight women passengers, nine children, two officers and a few of the Aden's crew succeeded in getting away from the wreck in a boat, but they have not been heard of since, and Attle hope is entertained of their safety.

The Mayor saved nine of the Aden's passengers and three of the white and 33 of the natives of the steamer's crew. All of these persons were rescued just as the Aden was breaking up. In all the drowned and missing in-clude 25 passengers, 20 European officers and 33 natives of the Aden's crew. Two days after leaving Colombo the Aden was struck by a severe monsoon, with squalls, violent and incessant. Day by day the weather grew thicker and the passengers became more and more alarmed. At 3 o'clock on the morning of June 9 the vessel struck upon the Rasradresa Reef, on the east-the upper decks in the scantiest clothing. The women and children screamed in fright and confusion, but the men retained their self possession and courageously assisted the officers and craw to do their best to save the vessel and to inspire calmness.

But it was soon seen that the steamer could not survive the shock, and that the only chance for safety lay in the boats. Life belts were distributed, distress signals given and the boats on the lee side prepared for launching Those on the weather side had already been washed away. In the meantime seeing that some hours were likely to clapse before it would be possible to launch the boats, the passengers gladly accepted the assistance of the crew to obtain more clothing. The storm continued to increase in violence. The seas washed the vesse with terrific force. Daylight brought no relief, and only served to reveal still further the awful situation. Misfortune followed misfortune. A lifeboat was lowered, only to be swept away im-mediately, with three lascars and the dies fail t dispatched to the rescue, with Mr. Miller, the second officer, but both boats were rapidly swept away.

The only remaining lifeboat was to any address then lowered amid a scene of intense by the Swift emotion, A cry of anguish broke from the lips even of the men when this half capsized, throwing the sallors and the stores into the sea. After great efforts the boat was righted and the wo-men and children were lowered into it, with the exception of Madagas (1997) with the exception of Madames Gillett, Pearce and Strain, who heroically decided to share the fate of their husbands, and Misses Lloyd and Weller who remained on board. The boat manned by a European crew, left in a tremendous sea and drifted rapidity out Shenandoah and Vicinity

Vast waves still swept the wreck dashing the people about and leaving them almost prostrate on the deck. One by one, men, women and children grown too weak to withstand the re peated buffetings, were washed over board in sight of those who were mo mentarily expecting the same fate. Among the first thus engulfed were Mr. and Mrs. Strain and their two children; Misses Lloyd and Weller, the missionaries; Mrs. Pearce's baby, with its Chinese nurse, and then Captain Hill, whose leg was broken, but who had borne himself calmly and bravely. He was washed overboard with sev eral of the native crew.

All day the victims were picked off one by one, until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when these who still survived retreated below. Many were badly hurt, and passed the night in suspense and bodily pain, huddled in the small cabin, which they expected would be their tomb. None of the survivors care to talk of this terrible night.

The storm abated slightly on the morning of the 19th, and those who were able to move began to search for food, hunger, until then, having failed to assert itself over more acute privations. This proved a task of the greatest danger, as big seas were still sweeping the vessel. The fourth engineer, while trying to procure water near the poop, was struck senseless and almost washed overboard before he could be dragged to a place of safety. Artificial respiration and similar expedients were resorted to, but it was five hours before he was restored to consciousness. Mr. Pearce was only saved from being washed overboard by the prompt action of his dauntless wife.

The search for food resulted in their getting very little of it, and this was shared out equally and in very small portions. All the time desperate men kept a sharp lookout. But no vessel was signted until the 12th, and even then the fifth, and again on the 20th, other FOR NEW YORK.

Cave and Valpy bravely ventured across the well deck to the storeroom and got a fresh supply. That evening two steamers were sighted. One proceeded without paying any attention to the distress sizenal. The other anchored under the ise of the island. As soon as sine was sighted a lascar mounted the rigging and signaled her. In reply candless burned at her portholes, and at daybreak on the 26th a suspense of 17 days was relieved by the spectacle of the steamer rounding the point and heading towards the wired. She dropped anchor about a mile appre almost exhausted, Messrs. White, Kelt.

A very neavy sea was buil running With heartfelt joy, mingled with tears of the men and hysterical sobbing of the women, they saw the lifeboat lowered. It took her three-quarters of an hear to reach the wreck. Everyone rushed to the broken side of the ship. It was the lifeboat of the Indian government steamer, in charge of Lieuten ants Dobbin and Goldsmith. They skillfully avoided the tremendous wash, and rescued all of the survivors in two Suffivan and Firz Cannot Box. Brooklyn, June 30.—Police Superin-tendent McKelvey said yesterday: "Fitssimmons and Sullivan cannot meet in a sparring match or exhibi-tion at Ambrose Park or anywhere else in Brooklyn on July 5. Ambrose Park holds a theatricat license, Under this license Fitzsimmons and Sullivan might give an illustrated lecture. They could show their knockout blows, swings, cross counters and upper cuts, but they would not be permitted to give an exhibition of sparring, either scientific or otherwise, and they would have to be mighty careful in presenting their illustrated lecture. People always worse," who go to the exhibition with the expectation of seeing a fight will be disappointed.

Mr. Lincoln Nelson, of Marshfield, Mo., morning of June 9 the vessel struck upon the Hasradresa Reef, on the eastern coast of the Island of Socotra.

The engineroom was instantly flooded, and utter darkness ensued. Wild with panic the passengers rushed from their cablus and fled terror stricken to the upper decks in the scantiest clothmonths' constant treatment here, my physician urged me to submit to a removal of the gland. At this critical moment a friend recommended S.S., and laying aside a deep-rooted prejudice against all patent medicines, I began its use. Before I had used one bottle the enlargement began to disappear, and now it is entirely more, though I am and now it is entirely gone, though I am not through with my second bottle yet. Had I only used your S.S.S. long ago, I would have escaped years of misery and saved over $150."

Scranton, Pa., June 20. A dynamite explosion early yesterday morning in South Scranton blew up the Susiness block of Leon Olchefski, a dmible dwelling block owned by him and a detached house owned by hichael O'Hara. The business block, a two story building, was torn to pieces. Twenty other houses had all the windown blown out and the plaster torn from the walls. The shock was felt all over the city.

The cause of the explosion is unknown, but Olchefski alleges that it was the work of enemies he made during political and church disputes in that section, he being one of the principals in the troubles which led to a

Chiefs Robling and Hicky, of the podee and fire departments, respectively, and a corps of assistants worked with a great deal of eagerness yesterday in an effort to fix the responsibility for the explosion. Olchefsky, owner of the main building, was arrested last night on a charge of arson. A bureau that was removed during the fire from his double dwelling at the rear of the store was found saturated with kerorene in all its three big drawers. He had his clothes on when the explosion occurred, and after rushing from the house fell sonsciess in the street. His apparel was saturated with kerosen The wreckage in the streets was partially removed yesterday, and no bodies were found. Experts say that about 100 pounds of dynamite, or a propor tionate amount of some equally pow-erful agent, must have been used. "Dr. Fowler's Ext. of Wild Strawberry is considered a necessity in our house. It is an excellent remedy for summer complaints, esannumumumumpe commingamumumumumumumumumumum
