POWDER EXPLOSION.
Fire Attacked a Drying House at Wetherill Junction.
Special to EVENING HERALD.
ST. CRAWFORD, July 1.—The drying house of St. Crawford, located at Wetherill Junction, caught fire at noon today and blew up. The damage amounts to about $300. The magazine is located about a quarter of a mile from the site of the drying house. The fire started outside the building. A workman named Becker fought it until but a few minutes before the explosion took place and barely escaped with his life. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Potts trial ended.
Special to EVENING HERALD.
PORTERSVILLE, July 1.—The trial of Thomas Potts, charged with the killing of John Liddell, ended to-day in a verdict of "guilty of involuntary manslaughter." The prosecution abandoned the charge of voluntary manslaughter. It was not denied by the defense that Potts struck the blow that resulted in Liddell's death.

HE MAY DIE.
A Pale Terribly Burned by a Spark Falling on Powder.
Joseph Golski, a Pole, lies between life and death at the boarding house on South, Catharine street. He is a victim of an explosion that occurred at about ten o'clock last night in the Maple Hill mine. While Golski was engaged in filling a cartridge a spark from his lamp dropped into a keg of powder. The result was terribly serious from the waist up. Dr. Stein says the injuries are likely to prove fatal.

All Old Janitors Not Identified With the Democratic Party Ousted and the Same Rule Applied to the Janitresses—Smith Gets His Reward.
A special meeting of the School Board was held last evening, during which final reports bearing upon the old school year were received and the majority members gave an illustration of how they propose to make the minority fly. The Directors in attendance at the meeting were Messrs. Devitt, Baugh, Edwards, Dove, Connor, Higgins, Brosilo, James and Britt.

PERSONAL MENTION.
William Howard, of Philadelphia, is visiting Robert Lee, of West Lloyd street. Willie Seltzer, of North West street, has gone to Philadelphia to spend a month. William, son of Daniel Seawander, is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism. Peter E. Beck, of North Jordan street, is confined to his bed by an attack of pleurisy. Miss Nellie Baird went to Tananqua to-day where she will spend a few days with friends. Mrs. James McNeal, of Chester, is visiting her brother, Edward Isoltzky, of Elmberk street. Miss Euphemia Stein is home to spend her summer vacation with her parents, on West Oak street. William G. Taylor to-day resumed his new duties as driver for the Columbia H. & S. E. Company. A. H. Hagenbuch and family left town this afternoon for Orwigsburg, where they will spend the Fourth. George W. Keller, Sr., of Bloomsburg, spent to-day in town, looking after the interests of his mother's grocery here. James Melley, of West Penn, leaves to-night for Philadelphia, where he will enter the employ of the Traction Company. Howard Dodson has gone to Millersburg, to attend the annual graduating exercises of the Normal school, of which his sister, Agnes, is a graduate. Messrs. John Manley, of Leont Gap, and John Ryan, of Mahanoy City, agents for the Columbia Brewing Company, transacted business at the company's office yesterday. Miss Mary Roberts, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Frank Roberts, of North White street, have gone to Philadelphia, where the former will undergo treatment at the German hospital for appendicitis. John Costello, of the South Main street fruit store, has been called to witness the race at which John Timan's "Albatross" is entered. Mr. Costello is confident that the Shenandoah horse will come out of the race with flying colors.
