ROCHESTER CLOTHING HOUSE!

20 DAYS SALE. 20 DAYS SALE.

FOR the next 20 days we intend to dispose of our entire line of Summer Clothing in Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits, of which we have yet a large stock in all shades and colors. As the time to dispose of them has now become so short, and as we do not intend to carry any of them over, we have made a cut in the prices that exceeds all former reductions, and as the saying is "Competition is the life of trade," we intend to be the leaders. A call to our store will convince you that this is the truth and not an ADVERTISING SCHEME. We can suit any customer that comes to see us; no matter how small or big he is, as we carry a full line of

MEN'S EXTRA SIZE SUITS AND SINGLE PANTS,
SIZES, 44 to 50.

If you want a nice Plain White Vest or Mixed Goods, you can get them here. In fact we do not know of anything that a man, boy or child needs in our line that we cannot supply. If there is any customer who cannot be fitted in ready-made clothing, we take his measure and have it made for him in any style of goods he selects, and without any extra charges.

Our Hat and Gents' Furnishing Department is Complete.

PROGRESS... BARGAIN STORE

Was opened on Saturday, June 10th, with an entire new stock of ladies' and gents' furnishings, fancy goods, notions, hosiery, ribbons, laces and embroideries, ladies' and children's waists and wrappers, table cloths, towelings and napkins. A specialty in ladies' corsets, the celebrated H. & H. corset, long steel, being protected with leather covers. Having been engaged with the New York Progress Hat and Cap Company, for many years, which has dissolved business, and whose stock I have retained, consisting of 800 dozen different styles of caps, will be disposed of at the following prices: Children's and men's caps, 5 cents and upwards; ladies' and misses' tam o' shanters at less than half the cost of manufacturing. Every purchaser of $1.00 worth of goods, all marked in plain, lowest cash figures, will receive a cap free. Larger purchasers will be presented with a finer quality of cap in proportion to the amount of their purchase.

One lot of dress goods at exceedingly low figures. Also a lot of children's nobby suits at bargain prices.

Marriages.
A quiet wedding was consummated last evening when William Cramer and Mary Willard, two popular young people of Hazleton, were united in the bonds of holy matrimony. John Mallen and Miss May Clark, of Forty Fort, supported the couple.

Thomas A. McGivins, clerk at the Merchants Hotel, Pottsville, and Miss Marie Rattigan, of Mill Creek, were married at Fort Carbon yesterday. The bride is a sister of the lamented John and James Rattigan.

The marriage of William O. Ritter and Miss Ida G. Matthews, both of Pottsville, was solemnized last evening in the M. E. church, at the above place.

Miss Hannah Igo and Mr. John Ryan, of Jackson, were united in marriage at St. Canine's church, Mahanoy City, yesterday afternoon, by Rev. Fr. John McMeniman. The bride was attended by Miss Nora Ryan, sister of the groom. Mr. John Igo, cousin of the bride, was groomsmen.

The marriage of Miss Johanna Sanger, of Mt. Carmel, to Mr. John Pratt, of Philadelphia, was solemnized at the home of the mother of the bride, Mrs. Paul Quick, at high noon yesterday in the presence of a large number of invited guests. Rev. W. A. Henck, of the Methodist Episcopal church, performed the sacred ceremony. Miss Gertrude Sanger, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, while Mr. Howard Thornton, of Philadelphia, supported the groom. Miss Wang, of Shenandoah, was the maid of honor, while Ethel Sanger, of Mt. Carmel, a niece of the bride, was the flower girl. The bride was attired in white organdy, valencienne lace and tulle silk. The bridesmaid in white organdy; the maid of honor in white organdy over pink. The flower girl was attired in white silk. The reception which followed was participated in by fifty guests. The presents received by the bride were valuable and of great quantity. For the past few years she has been a member of the family of Vice President Hobart and with much expression of regret she bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Hobart to make a home for herself. As a token of esteem in which she was held by them, Mrs. Hobart presented the bride with all the linen which had been in the Hobart home had been made. A large engraving work of the Vice President's family also among the gifts to the bride. The bride and groom are former Shenandoah residents, and the latter now holds a lucrative position with a dental firm in Philadelphia.

End of the Insurance Seasonal.
Harrisburg, July 1.—Chairman John S. Wilson, of the committee to investigate the $50,000 insurance scandal, submitted a report last night to the house, which declares: "Your committee is of the opinion that the representations of Leonard to the insurance company were the representations of an adventurer. There was no demand made by any member of the legislature upon any company or person for any money or other valuable consideration for the defeat of the insurance bill."

Condemned by the Senate.
Washington, July 1.—The senate yesterday confirmed the following, among other nominations: John Russell Young of Pennsylvania, librarian of congress; Bernard H.
