MAHANOCY CITY, June 6.—Fully 3000 people attended the diamond bicycle meet held here yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Mahanoy City Athletic Association. Prisoner Cut. Anthony Welonia was lodged in the lockup on a petty charge by the police late on Saturday night. Shortly after he had been landed two more prisoners, Joseph Zelietki and Felix Dabara, were made prisoners in the adjoining cell. To ring the night Welonia was hooked by his fellow prisoner for some unknown. While Welonia was seeking the tobacco man one cell to the other he was cut across the back of the left hand by one of the prisoners and the bone laid open. After his release he swore out a warrant for the arrest of both Zelietki and Dabara before Justice Toomey where they both entered $3000 bail.

Not Responsible. The Grant land picnic committee wishes to clear its skirts of any suspicion of fake advertising in connection with the failure to have the bicycle races at Columbia Park yesterday. The committee says it had a gold medal and bicycle lantern ready as prizes, but not one of the numerous grand stand street riders had the courage to compete, or even enter their names. The committee is justly indignant over the affair and anxious to have the public understand that had there been riders there would have been races.

FEVER CURE

The Death Warrant Read. Sheriff Alexander Scott performed an unpleasant duty on Saturday, that of reading the death warrant to "Eisenhower," convicted on the 23rd day of June, 1902, of murder in the first degree for the shooting of John Schwinkel on a public highway in this town. Eugene W. Dyson, of counsel for Eisenhower, had notified the prisoner a short time before of the proposed visit of the Sheriff. There was a painful stillness as Sheriff Scott read the document. "Eisenhower" turned to the prisoner the terrible fact that Thursday, October 7, 1907, has been fixed by His Excellency, Governor Daniel H. Hastings, for the execution of the prisoner, who he "shall be hanged by the neck, until he be dead, dead, dead." Eisenhower stood erect, with his hands crossed behind his back, as the Sheriff read the document. His little eye watching the lips of the Sheriff as he read each word of the fateful document. When the Sheriff finished, Eisenhower's lips quivered as he said: "I'm sorry it is so. Bill Schwinkel and my wife are responsible for both of our deaths. I feel that I am ready to meet my God and that I am not responsible for what happened." Messrs. Brunner and Dyson will take Eisenhower's case before the Board of Pardons. It is the general opinion that they will be successful in having his sentence commuted to life imprisonment.

The airship is riding on the surface of Lake Michigan, about three miles off the Evanston station, but it is anchored, and the aeronaut can have it on application. When the balloon was first sighted the life savers crew ran out their boat, and after a hard run managed to capture it. The life savers say the balloon is of the kind used for long voyages, and not the hot air kind sent up by parachute jumpers.

FOULLY ATTACKED.

Men From Wm. Penn. Attacked While on Their Way To Town.

Joseph Edmundson and David Schwinkel, of Wm. Penn. were victims of an outrageous assault last evening, at about 6:30 o'clock, while walking along the P. & B. railroad, on their way from Wm. Penn. to town. When they reached a point between the dirt banks of the Turkey Run and West Shenandoah cuttings three men suddenly approached from the rear. Edmundson received a blow on the back of the head from the first man, a slung shot that felled him to the ground. Schwinkel dodged several blows aimed at him with the same weapon and drove the assailants off by a clever ruse. He pulled a pipe from his pocket and pointed the stem at the three men, shouting: "Run, or I'll kill every one of you." The men walked to perfection and the three men disappeared. Edmundson recovered and was assisted to town by his companion, Dr. Stein drove a slung wound two inches long on the back of the victim's head. It is believed robbery was the motive for the assault, Schwinkel says he knows the three men, but not their names.

Motion Court. Judge Bechtel held a short session of motion court yesterday morning, and the most important opinion handed down was that for the sale of the Pottsville Iron & Steel Company's plant, including all personal property and real estate, during the last week in August. The purchaser must pay the liabilities of the Receivers besides his bid. In accordance with these instructions the counsel for the receivers will prepare the order to be signed by court without delay in order to give at least 40 days notice of the intended sale.

James Carlin presented a numerously signed petition praying court to appoint Thomas H. Doe as "assistant" constable of West Mahanoy township.

The report of C. E. Berger, auditor in the Philadelphia Shoe Company, was presented to court and confirmed. In the matter of dividing the Fourth ward of the Borough of Pottsville into two election districts, Carl Wagner stated that court had confirmed the report of the commissioners and he now asked that the report be confirmed absolutely. This was done.

The report of S. W. Douglas, William James and John O'Malley, who were appointed viewers to lay out a road in Union township, was confirmed.

The retail liquor license of Thomas Combe, of Macadoo, was transferred to Frank Golski.
