"All the News That's Fit to Print."

Evening Herald

FRIDAY, JULY 9, 1907.

WIKES John J. Ingalls declared that the deaconage had no place in politics, he evidently had in view several local politicians, judging from recent events.

THE railroads have inaugurated the customary summer excursions to the seashore, and if the warm weather continues the indications are they will be well patronized.

CHAIRMAN EDWARDS has issued a call for a meeting of the county executive committee to-morrow morning, at Pottsville, for the purpose of selecting dates for holding the Republican county convention.

AMONG those members of the Legislature the Philadelphia Inquirer feels called upon to compliment upon their record during the last session, we fail to note any from this neck of the woods.

THE circulation of the HERALD is doubt that of any other paper in Shenandoah, and has now for several months been at the highest level it has enjoyed since the period in which it was the only one-cent newspaper printed in this town.

PUBLIC sentiment is already so strong against any changes being made in the present corps of public school teachers, that it will have the effect of blocking the well laid schemes of a few malcontents. The wholesale dismissal of janitors and janitresses set the people to thinking.

Now that the tariff bill is out of the way, it is the hope of the office-seekers that the President will pay a little attention to their claims, some of whom have become very impatient. To make matters worse the President has decided to take a two-months' vacation.

THE New York Press lately expressed the conviction that "the advertiser who gets his money back with interest is he who takes advantage of an enormous circulation to reach all classes." In other words, it is advertising as with farming—it doesn't pay to do things in a small way.

IN various sections of the state, where there is at this time a rush to the naturalization courts, the judges are more discriminating than formerly. Especially is this the case in Lackawanna county, where Judges Archbald and Edwards have adopted an iron-clad rule that inability to read in the English language was an absolute disqualification. If such a rule were adopted in this county there would be fewer naturalization papers issued, as the majority of those applying are invariably accompanied by an interpreter to answer the questions propounded.

SENATOR QUAY having received an invitation to go to Europe, thinks his fences are in sufficiently secure condition to enable him to leave matters connected with his side of the house in the hands of his special lieutenants whom he thinks fully competent to see to their successful management. His impressions, it appears, are that he is going to have a quiet "walk over" of it, as far as the state nominations are concerned. This has given rise to the oft-repeated story that the Old Man is about to retire from politics, but so far he has remained in the saddle much to the discomfort of his political opponents.

THE Coal Strike.

Some interesting and important facts as to the effect of the Wilson tariff law upon coal mining and upon the miners themselves are brought out by the coal miners' strike which is now agitating the country. The Wilson law reduced the rates of duty on coal from 75 cents per ton to 40 cents per ton. This is just about the amount of reduction in miners' wages, of which complaint is now being made and emphasized by the strike inaugurated on July 4th. President Hatchford, of the United Mine Workers' Association, in a communication to the New York Herald, indicates that the wages of miners have been reduced since 1893 an average of 30 cents per ton, which is just about the amount of the reduction in duties made by the Wilson law.

Curiously this reduction in wages is thus coincident as to time and amount with the reduction in tariff. That the reduction in wages was a direct result of the tariff is, however, accurately shown in another and equally striking series of facts. Prior to the enactment of the Wilson law the eastern cities and manufacturing establishments were supplied with coal largely from the Virginia and West Virginia mines.

acted, however, coal from Nova Scotia invaded the eastern market, driving out the Virginia and West Virginia product, and compelled the mines of that section to find a market elsewhere. The result was that their coal went west instead of east, as it formerly had done, and, with reduced railroad rates, was laid down in the markets of Cincinnati, Chicago, and other western cities at such low rates that a coal war, followed by a railroad rate war, was precipitated.

The natural result of this and the reduction in prices which followed was a reduction in the wages of coal miners, all of which is thus clearly traceable to the Wilson law and its reduction in duties on coal.

Disinfect to Amalgamate.

Atlantic City, July 9.—At yesterday's session of the glass bottle blowers convention the proposition to amalgamate with the American Flint Glass Workers' union or the American Federation of Labor was defeated. In a proposition to unite with the latter association alone the vote was close, looking only four of the necessary two-thirds.

The Weather.

For eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland: Fair; southerly winds.

It heats everything except a broken heart, may be said of De Witt's Little Blue Pills and rectal diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, itching, eczema and all skin troubles may be cured by it quickly and permanently. C. H. Hagobach.

"Lord Beesford" Again in Trouble.

Atlanta, July 8.—Sidney Laucelles, alias "Lord Beesford," of Georgia, a shrewd swindler known throughout the country, who was recently paroled out of the state penitentiary and immediately established himself in business at Fitzgerald, the Grand Army colony in Georgia, is again a defaulter and fugitive from justice. Laucelles ingratiated himself with the people of Fitzgerald, and quickly became one of its most popular citizens, marrying the daughter of the wealthiest man in town. Last Friday he left Savannah, and has not been seen since. Warrants have been issued for his arrest for cheating and swindling. His pecuniations from citizens of Fitzgerald and non-resident wholesale houses amount to about $10,000.

Mr. W. H. Smith, Editor of The Argos.

Benton, Pa., recommends a remedy for diarrhoea which he has used with magical effect. "Several weeks ago," he says, "I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after using less than one-third of the contents the results were magical—effecting an entire cure. I heartily and cheerfully recommend the remedy to all suffering from diarrhoea." This remedy is for sale by Grubler Bros. druggists.

Was His Admirer's Vaguer.

New York, July 9.—Eighteen months ago yesterday Frank Burton left the city hall for a trip around the world. He began the journey as the result of a wager made by two prominent sporting men in this city. One, who was an admirer of Burton, declared that he could go around the world, starting without a cent in his pocket, and make the trip without begging, borrowing or stealing a dollar. Each of these two men staked $5,000 on the trip. Yesterday afternoon Burton walked into the mayor's office, his journey completed. He comes from New York with $3,000 earned on the trip, and last night received $2,500 of the money wagered. The young man carried proofs that he carried out the terms of the wager. He was ill with typhoid fever for 14 weeks in Shanghai, and was wrecked on the steamer Angemant in the Indian ocean. The steamer was a total loss.

Commander Mullin's Punishment.

Washington, July 9.—The president yesterday disposed of the case of Commander Horatio Mullin, of the navy, lately in command of the Pensacola navy yard, who had been found guilty by court martial of drunkenness on duty and recommended for dismissal from the service, but mitigates it by providing that Commander Mullin be reduced to the grade of lieutenant of command in the navy, and be suspended from rank and duty on one-half of sea pay for five years. The practical effect of this sentence probably will be to prevent the officer from ever becoming a captain, a place which he otherwise would have attained in the navy by the retirement of Captain Horst.

HOT WEATHER DYSPEPSIA.

Thousands Suffer From It at This Season of the Year.

Hot weather dyspepsia may be recognized by the following symptoms: Depression of spirits, heaviness and pain in the stomach after meals, loss of flesh and appetite, no desire for food, bad taste in the mouth, especially in the morning, wind in stomach and bowels, irritable disposition, nervous weakness, weariness, costiveness, headache, palpitation, heartburn. It is a mistake to treat such troubles with "tonics," "blood purifiers," "cathartics," "pills," because the whole trouble is in the stomach. It is indigestion or dyspepsia and nothing else.

All these symptoms rapidly disappear when the stomach is relieved, strengthened and cleared by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They should be taken after meals and a few carried in the pocket to be used whenever any pain or distress is felt in the stomach. They are prepared only for stomach troubles. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are endorsed by such physicians as Dr. Harlanston, Dr. Jenkinson, and Dr. Mayer, because they contain the natural digestive acids and fruit essences which when taken into the stomach cause the prompt digestion of the food before it has time to ferment and sour, which is the cause of the mischief.

YOUR TIRED STOMACH.

"I have no appetite," you say, "and the little I do eat does me no good. At first it little I do eat and dead in my stomach and by and by I have aches and pains that sometimes go to my chest and back. I feel weak, low spirited and out of sorts all over. I fancy the demon of dyspepsia has got me." That's the way you talk and no wonder. But wait a moment. Let us reason together. Perhaps you have your stomach merely tired. You have been eating too much, eating the wrong things, and irregularly. You have given it too much to do, and like all living things, when overworked, it stops at length from sheer exhaustion. There may not be an actually diseased condition as yet. Still it is nature's warning, and you must heed it or worse will follow. "But I must eat and sleep," you say. True enough, but safety surely lies in middle courses. Here is one for you. You don't need drastic purges or exciting stimulants. Your condition is one easily relieved if we go about it gently and sensibly. The tired stomach won't work under whip and spur. It has probably had too much of that already. What you require is something that is at once a food and a digester of food. Such an article is the Slaker Digestive Cordial, discovered and prepared by the Slaker Community of Mt. Lebanon, N. Y. Taken right after eating, so as to mix with the food, it does the stomach's work for it, gives it the advantage of further rest, strengthens you in a natural way, and soon enables the stomach to do full duty. There is nothing else like this simple, safe, certain and palatable remedy. Yet the Slakers respect your doubts, and authorize druggists to sell a trial bottle for ten cents.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle of common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or setting indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. Cancer of the Breast.

Mr. A. H. Crausby, of 158 Kerr St., Memphis, Tenn., says that his wife paid no attention to a small lump which appeared in her breast, but it soon developed into a cancer of the worst type, and notwithstanding the treatment of the best physicians, it continued to spread and grow rapidly, eating two holes in her breast. The doctors soon pronounced it incurable. A celebrated New York specialist then treated her, but she continued to grow worse and when informed that both her arm and grandmother had died from cancer he gave her the case up as hopeless.

Someone then recommended S.S.S. and though little hope remained, she began it, and an improvement was noticed when she had taken several bottles it disappeared entirely, and although several years have elapsed, not a sign of the disease has ever returned.

A Drowned Man's Identity.

New York, July 9.—The effects found on the body of a man picked up in the North river were brought to the coroner's office yesterday. Among them were several letters in the Swedish language. One of the letters, addressed "Brother Alfred," was signed "Otto Johnson, Clermont, Pa. There was also a passport, No. 15, made out at Plymptonburg, and dated April 8, 1893. A postoffice order for $50 was secured upon the dead man's estate, and in his pockets was $125.50 in cash and a $50 confederate bill.

State the STATE'S SALOON FRONTS.

Columbia, S. C., July 9.—Shortages amounting to $1,000,000 of the money due by county districts to the state were brought to light by the dispensary board of control yesterday. The books are in such state that no report can be made of all the shortages, but it is probable that the total sum will be much larger. The bonds given by the dispensary who have held behind in their accounts are in such a sad condition. The showing has created a sensation.

Hives are not dangerous to life, but they are a profligate breeder of misery and prostration. De Witt's Ointment gives instant relief, even in the worst cases of this and other exasperating diseases of the skin.

STOCK AND PRODUCE MARKETS.

Profit Taking the Order of the Day on Wall Street.

New York, July 9.—Profit taking was the order of the day in the stock market. The decline of the tariff bill to conference on the Senate side, and the bill's continuation of which has formed subject for speculation in the recent market. The termination is regarded as a favorable influence on values, but has been previously discounted, resulting sales were not looked for in the natural order of things. The reaction did not develop immediately at the opening, however, to several sustaining influences which resulted in a rally after the early decline that carried prices generally to the highest of the day and St. Paul to 47 1/2, the highest of the present movement. The influences were of only temporary effect, however, in checking the reactionary tendency in the market, and it finally served to accentuate the desire to take profits. Closing bids: Baltimore & Ohio, 46; Lehigh Valley, 27 1/2; Chesapeake & Ohio, 15 1/2; N. Central, 45 1/2; Del. & Potomac, 10 1/2; N. York & N. E., 15 1/2; Penn. Ry., 45 1/2; Erie, 15 1/2; Reading, 21 1/2; Lake Erie & W. 13 1/2; St. Paul, 47 1/2. All rest quiet.
