A Womanly Woman OF THE OLD SCHOOL,

Whose Motherly Face Inspires Confidence and Veneration, and is the Index of a Mind Stored With Lofty Ideas,

F Between the lines of Mrs. Bradley's statement as given below one reads something of the history of this devoted wife and mother. Surely she has passed through the furnace of affliction "heated doubly hot," and the joy that reigns in her household on account of her restoration will be shared by a large circle of acquaintances. Mrs. Bradley is a widely known pioneer resident of Brockway, Trumbull Co., Ohio. It is with a view to helping others who are sufferers from nervous disorders or disease of the heart, that she sends us the statement of her case, which is certainly one of the most complicated in medical history, and should convince the most skeptical reader that Dr. Miles' remedies cure when all other means fail.

"Twelve years ago the £5th day of last December I was compelled to take to my bed on account of extreme nervousness. My husband said he would rather go to the penitentiary than through another such siege as he had with me for a few years previous. Little did he suspect he was then on the eve of a twelve year campaign. We employed in all twenty-six different physicians, the best we could hear of, and it cost us over $2,000.00, but I only grewworse. I became wholly unable to walk, and they carried me from one room to another. I became so nervous the doors had to be cushioned, the clocks were stopped and the family went about in their stocking feet. I was so miserable that life seemed unendurable, and all I asked for was death. The doctor said my extreme nervousness was caused by excresence of the urethra and performed four different operations, which nearly cost my life each doctor said my extreme nervousness was caused by excresence of the urethra and performed four different operations, which nearly cost my life each time, but no benefit resulted. To give me strength strychnihe was given me every day for five years and calomel every third day for three years. My headaches were terrible, especially in lower back part of head, and sharp pains between shoulders, down my back and side of limb. My back was cearred and cupped for three years and blistered the whole length with ily blisters. Nothing I ate would digest, but simply distressed me. Worse than all, however, was my nervous fear. I was so full of fear I dared not eat, nor drink, nor try to walk or sleep, yet I did not know what I was afraid of. I was a wearisome burden to my friends. At last the draggist persuaded my husband to have me try Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. The first bottle was not finished before I could eat with a relish and was able to walk, and before I had taken three bottles was able to do my own work, and after taking six bottles I am cured. My weight has increased over fifty pounds. No words of mine are able to tell the good it has done me and I never tire of telling to others the story of my cure." Mrs. S. Brandley.
