At this point the banners "Blineis Endeavorers," hanging on the Bullock coaches, were taken by the Ransom people with the plea that the former did not officially represent the Illinois delegation. The Bullock passengers were all Illinois Endeavorers, and maintained their right to organize a separate California bound excursion, and to so designate themselves on their coaches. The banners, however, were not recovered.

The second chapter of this religious a. war has been written on the Pacific stands. The Hullock party, which arrived two days ahead of the Ranson; party, planned, under the leadership of Mr. Bullock, who had been officially assigned to sium meetings in connec-tion with the convention, a series of gospel meetings in Chinatown and similar districts. When the Ransom people arrived they promptly had Dr. Bullock turned down as leader of slum meetings, and also ignored him in the Illinois rally Saturday evening.
