Detectives Guard President Farrow.
Paris, July 15.—In view of anarchist threats, special precautions were taken for the protection of M. Farrow, the president, while en route in the review yesterday. Many suspects were arrested. The thicket near the Cascade in the Bois de Boulogne, the scene of the last bomb outrage, was surrounded by detectives. More than 100 other detectives mounted on bicycles were ready at various points to carry out instructions and to pursue anarchists in case any emergency should arise.

Americans Gain Their Point.
Tangier, Morocco, July 15.—The difficulty arising over the disestablishment of the authorities of Morocco against Americans in refusing to permit them to employ native help, a privilege allowed Europeans, has been settled, and the United States warships San Francisco and Raleigh, which recently arrived here to support the protest of United States Consul General Barker against this discrimination, sailed today for New York via England.

Belongs Carried Aways.
Cloquet, Minn., July 15.—The river situation is very grave. Bridges both above and below town are out. The Dutch and Western tracks are three feet under water, and Grand Rapids is cut off from all communication. Nearly 100,000 feet of lumber are in the boom above Cloquet, and if they go, as is feared, they will take out five large saw mills and all buildings on Dunlap's Island.

Funerals.

The remains of Mrs. Margaret McCarthy, who died at Scranton last Monday of paralysis, were brought to town this afternoon and interred in the Annunciation cemetery. They were met at the depot by many friends of the deceased, who was a resident of town up to about a year ago, when she removed to Scranton and took up her residence with her daughter, Mrs. John Slattery. The pall bearers were Thomas Conors, E. F. Gallagher, John Kilty, James O'Hearn, John McDonnell, of town, and P. McCaffrey, of Scranton. O'Neill Bros. had charge of the funeral.

Married People Elope.

Today's Hazleton Standard says the particulars of an elopement which occurred last week have just been made public. The principals are William Hunsicker and Annie Koenig, both married and former residents of Black Creek township. Hunsicker left behind a wife and child who were at Berwick at the time, and Mrs. Koenig left a child and husband who are at Shenandoah. It was ascertained yesterday that the pair are located at Hunlocks Creek, where they purpose going to housekeeping unless disturbed by the officers of the law. The man is 24 years of age and the woman past 35.

Fifteen-Year-Old Girl Murdered.

Williamsport, Pa., July 15.—News of a brutal murder at Hill's Grove, Sullivan county, just over the Lycoming line, reached this city yesterday. The victim was 15-year-old Katie Doyt, daughter of John Doyt, and her remains were found along the banks of Loyalsock creek, not far from her home. Katie was engaged as a domestic by Samuel McBride, and it was her custom to walk from her home to McBride's every morning and return in the evening. About 2 o'clock Sunday morning Stephen Polinski, lover of Katie, came to her home, where he boarded. The girl's father and he quarreled, the lover making the statement that he would not marry the girl, for whose interesting condition he was responsible. The two men came to blows, and the girl tried to separate them. She was not successful, and left the house. On Monday her dead body was found, and her father and lover are under arrest.

Motion Court Next Monday.

Next Monday a session of Motion Court will be held and a session of the Orphans' Court. This will be the last session until September. A number of matters of interest will be disposed of. The Blythe township School Directors, who were convicted of misdemeanor in office, will be brought in for sentence. Little has been now in prison serving sentence for a similar crime, with the exception of Thomas J. Devlin, who is out on bail. Devlin's counsel made a motion for a new trial, but afterwards withdrew the motion, and on Monday next all will be called for sentence. Wm. Neri Dutzler is to be sentenced, it is known, as Judge Archbald has not yet notified District Attorney Bechtel when he will be here. The latter, however, thinks it will be before the 20th inst. The resolutions passed by the Bar Association at its meeting on Monday will be presented to court on Monday by the committee appointed for the purpose. Whether the court will adopt the resolutions and make them the rule for issuing naturalization papers remains to be seen.

His Big Bid For Votes.

From Mahanoy City Record. There appears to be no reason to doubt that the delegates to the First Legislative district convention will elect as their representatives to the Republican state convention, Charles T. Straight, of Shenandoah, and George Brill, of Delano. Both of these young men are worthy members of their party, who have been zealous in its interests. The delegates should give heed to the promises of ex-officio holders, who are making big bids for votes that they have not the power to make good.

The Bicycle Contest is Not in it With This.

Some time ago To our town did come, A firm that some thought Were on the run.

Some people said They're running a sale; Others tried to stop them, But without avail.

It was at 4 South Main street Where this firm held full sway, And gradually they grew Day by day, until now They occupy Franey's store And they're right in the fray.

And why did this firm Grow so quick, Simply because our town folks Are not so thick, And they push a good thing along When they are not sick.

Low prices, honest methods And treating all alike, Is making this firm Move onward with rapid stride.

In fact so rapid Has been their growth That in taking Franey's store They have made a clever stroke.

A great many folks passing that way Can be heard to say, It's a scene of delight As you pass by at night.

And seeing the place Lit up so brightly, Inside the store you can see Clothing galore At prices Shenandoah never heard of before.

The people all say As they go on their way, To the FAMOUS they'll go After the very next day.

Main and Oak streets for Clothing and Hats is the place And at the prices the FAMOUS sell There's no other in the race.

—MISS LIZZIE REESE.

A FISH WITH A RESERVOIR.

When He Comes on Land, a Queer Mollusk Takes a Volney in His Face.

The quoniam of all queer eyed animals is the periphthalmia, a fish inhabiting the coasts of China, Japan, India, the Malay archipelago and eastern Africa. This strange creature, when in pursuit of its prey, leaves the sea and comes out on the sands, thus existing for the greater portion of its life in an element which, according to the nature of things, ought to be fatal to it. The laws of evolution have, however, eminently prepared it for its peculiar mode of life. Its gill cavities are so large that when it abandons the sea it carries in them a quantity of water which yields up the necessary supply of oxygen.

Its locomotion has been provided for likewise, for continued use along certain lines has so developed its special fine that the creature uses them as legs, and jumps along at a surprising rate of speed. Its eyes are very large and prominent, and possess for a fish the peculiar faculty of looking around on all sides; hence its name, periphthalmus. These eyes are situated on top of the animal's head and present a very grotesque appearance.

The favorite food of this fish, says The Medical Record, is a naked mollusk called onchidium. And in the matter of eyes this last mentioned creature is itself worthy of remark.

Its cephalic or head eyes are like those of other mollusks and not worthy of special mention. But its dorsal eyes, sometimes several hundred in number, are truly remarkable. These dorsal eyes, although they are very simple in structure, in type are the same as those of vertebrate animals, having cornea, lens, retina and "blind spots." In the vertebrate eye the spot where the optic nerve pierces the external layer of the retina is sightless; hence it is called the "blind spot."

When this mollusk sees the periphthalmus bounding over the sands, it contracts a thousand or so of little bladderlike cells in the skin of its back, thereby discharging a ballistern of minute concretions in the face of its enemy.

The fish, terrified and amazed by the volley, turns aside, and the mollusk is saved. Thus its dorsal eyes are of great advantage to the onchidium. It is not able, like the periphthalmus, to move these eyes, yet, situated as they are all over its back, it possesses the power of seeing in every direction.

IT'S EASY ENOUGH

To sell you shoes if we can get you into our store. Once you're here, see our shoes and know our prices, you'll do the rest.

And to bring you to the store is why we print this "ad" every day. We want your first order; we're pretty sure of the next, and the next, if we get that. We know there's no store in this town that is doing, or that can do as well for you as we. If everybody else knew it as thoroughly as we know it, our store would be several times too small.

THERE ARE OUR TAN SHOES

For example. Ordinary stores ask 25c and 50c more than we do for them, and get it, too. They don't get it as often as they need to, because we have so much of their business. And the charm that does the price-lowering is Factory Price.

Women's tans, $1, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00.
Misses' tans, 75c and $1.
Men's tans, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00.
Boys' tans, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50.
