CHIEF OF THE BUREAU.
Mine Inspector Stein suggested for This Important Position.
By the passage of the Bureau of Mines and Mining bill presented to the Legislature by Representative Mansfield, several new offices are created, giving the appointing power to Governor Hastings. It provides for Chief of the Bureau at a salary of $3,000 and traveling expenses, an assistant at a salary of $1,400 per annum, and a messenger at a salary of $200 per year. The Chief shall be a competent person, having had at least 10 years practical experience in the working and ventilation of coal mines of this state, and a practical and scientific knowledge of all noxious and dangerous gases found in such mines.

The position is an important one, and the appointment must be made within thirty days. Among those who have been mentioned for the position are the names of our townsman, William Stein, now serving his second term as mine inspector in the Sixth anthracite district, meets with general approval at the hands of those engaged in the mining industry. He would certainly be the right man in the right place, and would fill the position with credit to himself, by a strict and faithful performance of the duties of the office.

This morning's Journal says Mr. Stein is to be the appointee, and that he has the support of the leading people of the region, in all walks of life. In conversation with Mr. Stein this morning he stated that he knew nothing of the movement in his interest. If the position is tendered him, he would likely be reluctant in accepting. His friends, however, feel elated over the fact that his name is mentioned in connection with so important a responsible position as that of Chief of the Bureau of Mines and would be pleased to learn that the office had been tendered him.

A Pleasant Evening.
The O'Donnell residence, 228 West Oak street, was the scene of a very social affair last evening, the friends of Daniel C. O'Donnell, who left for Philadelphia this morning, tendering him an informal testimonial to his popularity. Music and dancing were the principal amusements. The Pool Room Quartette, composed of Messrs. Grady, Kalper, Devitt and Toole, were in attendance and rendered a number of pleasing selections. Mr. Grady sang a solo while Mr. Kalper's recitations were heartily approved, as were his other feats. Miss Maggie Brennan rendered several fine solos on the piano, as did also Miss Golda. A collation was served at 7:30 in the entertainment. At a seasonable hour all departed, expressing themselves in praise of the event and bidding Dan good bye and good luck. Those present were: Misses Maggie Brennan, Mary Kilty, Sadie Griffiths, Delia Dudgeon, Lizzie and Agnes Caution, Katie C. Golden, Annie and Charles J. Williams, P. McLaughlin, Martin J. Conroy, Martin Tooley, Mary A. Owens, William Schmidt, Harry Irwin, Ervin Moyer, John C. Breslin, P. J. Devers, William Neiman, John Conroy, P. F. Dan, Harry, and Master William O'Donnell.

Deaths and Funerals.
One of Mr. Carbone's oldest residents, Patrick Malone, proprietor of the Kauterbach Hotel, died on Sunday night after an illness of several months. He was a sufferer from rheumatism. Mr. Malone was widely known throughout the coal region and was respected by everybody.
The funeral of Anthony Gallagher, took place from his late residence at Rappahannock, and was the largest held in that neighborhood for some time. Mr. Gallagher was a well known resident of the region, having spent his best days in Schuylkill county. He had attained the advanced age of 70 years. High mass was celebrated at St. Joseph's church, in Girardville, and interment was made in the parish cemetery.

Peculiar Accident.
Yesterday afternoon Samuel Walker, aged 28 years, met with a peculiar accident while unloading prop timber from a car at William Penn colliery. Walker with a couple of other workmen had rolled a heavy log off the car when a log was tilted up and struck him under the jaw, rendering him unconscious in which condition he was borne to his home in that village. Dr. J. Pierce Roberts was summoned and found he had fortunately escaped without any broken bones, but had received several ugly lacerations of the flesh.

Wedding Announcement.
Next wedding invitations have been issued announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Isabel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Brown, of 104 Plum street, to Mr. Ebenezer Evans, a prominent young man of Wausau. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents, on Thursday afternoon, July 29th, at 3 o'clock.

Cards are out announcing the approaching wedding of Rev. J. W. Buck, McAdoo, and Miss Minnie Hehl, Bloomington, and of Harry Morris, of St. Clair, and Lizzie Jones, of McAdoo.

Not Yet Settled.
Our former townsmen, J. K. P. Schledy, who left here last spring to locate at Winston, N. C., has decided to leave that place. On a postal card sent to the Herald to-day he states that he is yet undecided where he will locate.

Driver Slightly Hurt.
Thomas McNeil, a driver at the Indian Ridge colliery, had one of his fingers cut clean to the bone while lifting a piece of coal on a cart at the colliery yesterday afternoon. The wound was dressed by Dr. J. Pierce Roberts.

In Our Parlor.
The undersigned hereby offers the public that he has discontinued the ice cream business on account of the increased business at his hotel which now requires his entire personal attention. NEW TUNNEL
RIDGE COLLIERY
Being Pushed Rapidly to Completion by the Company.
THE LARGEST IN THE REGION.
The New Breaker of the P. & R. C. & I. Co. Will Have a Capacity of From Fourteen to Fifteen Hundred Tons of Coal Per Day—Completed in Three Months.

A representative of the HERALD, during a general conversation upon mining affairs in this district with a mining official, gleaned some interesting information in reference to the new breaker now being built at Tunnel Ridge colliery, operated by the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company. The new structure, which will be a mammoth affair, is being pushed to speedy completion.
All the coal mined from the Elmwood mine workings will be prepared at the Tunnel Ridge new breaker which will have a capacity of from fourteen to fifteen hundred tons daily. To connect these two collieries a tunnel has been driven across the basin a distance of about 350 feet, from the south dip to the North dip of the Top Split of the Mammoth vein, through which the coal mined from all the veins on the Elmwood side of the basin will be hauled to the bottom of the Tunnel Ridge new slope. This slope is a distance of 316 feet, and is timbered with a fifteen-foot collar, twenty feet spread and eight feet high. Ginboats will be used into which the coal will be dumped at the bottom of the slope and will hold two cars of coal. The weight of the car and coal will be about twelve tons. The coal will then be dumped into a separator or cleaner, on top of the slope, when the rock will be separated from the coal and the latter conveyed to the breaker by means of a scraper line.

A new pair of hoisting engines have been built, diameter of the cylinder being 40 inches, length of stroke 60 inches, with steam brake and other modern appliances. From reliable authority this hoisting plant is considered to be one of the best of the P. & R. C. & I. Co. has built for any of their mining plants throughout their extensive coal mining system. The men will be lowered and hoisted through the Elmwood slope, which is the second main outlet, although several other outlets are available for the men to reach the surface from all the veins in operation.

The workable veins on the Elmwood side are the Top, Middle and Bottom Split, of the Mammoth, Skidmore, Seven Foot and Buck Mountain, having a total thickness of 571 feet. The workable veins on the Tunnel Ridge side of the basin are the Holmes, Top and Bottom Split, Skidmore and Buck Mountain, the total thickness of these five veins being about 60 feet.

A new boiler-plant has recently been built and consists of twelve tubular boilers, each eighteen feet long and 6 feet in diameter, with sixty-eight 4-inch tubes in each boiler. Three fans are in operation at this colliery. Each 15 feet diameter, which furnish 300,000 cubic feet of air per minute. The sanitary condition of this colliery is in every particular satisfactory.

The new breaker will be ready to prepare coal in about three months, when the Tunnel Ridge colliery will rank among the largest shippers in our anthracite coal fields.

Class as Ever.
The race of the contestants in the bicycle contest at the Shenandoah drug store has not lost any of its interest yet, and is creating its usual amount of enthusiasm daily among their friends. Toole with his 2549 votes seems to be "stayer" for first place, while Miss Whitelock retains the same privilege in second place with 2380 votes. She is running away and will be soon out of sight from McMenamin who is third with 2251 votes.

Her competitor, John Conville, is somewhat on the decline, with 1748 votes. Miss Margaret Maloy, Dr. W. N. Stein and Miss Mame respectively. The total number of votes cast yesterday were 2,888, and the total since the beginning of the contest is 16,335. In the near future a ladies' and a gent's bicycle will be placed on exhibition in the show window. We want to state here that we do not want the public to labor under any false impression and think that the two bicycles are subject to presentation for the largest number of votes. Only one of them will be presented to a lady or gentleman.

A Boy's Long Walk.
The 10-year-old son of John McCool, of Mahanoy City, strolled away from home Sunday morning and arrived in Hazleton, shortly after noon, hours and hours inquiring for a family named McCool. Fortunately he found them, having wandered into the McCool residence. The little fellow got away from home unawares to his parents and was returned yesterday. He walked the entire distance and was much fatigued.

Six Hundred Allens.
The work of ascertaining the number of unnaturalized citizens employed in the Shenandoah district of the P. & R. C. & I. Company is about completed and instead of 500 allens as stated recently there are at least 600. Although the Polish and Hungarian classes have the largest numbers, the officials say it is surprising how many Welsh, Irish and English there are.

Resumed Work.

The members of the Miners' Examining Board held a meeting here on Saturday to consider the features of the new law, published in last evening's HERALD. They refused to issue certificates, although a large number presented themselves. It was decided to hold a meeting in Shenandoah to-morrow evening, at which the members of the three examining boards in this district will be present. The object is to form an organization, elect officers and formulate rules. The boards will also communicate with each other in reference to certificates issued to miners moving from one place to another. Certificates will hereafter cost $1.00 instead of 75 cents.

The Tariff Bill Again Passed by the National House
BY A VOTE OF 185 TO 118!
The Result Announced Soon After Midnight, After the Opponents of the Measure Had Spent Hours in Debating It.

Washington, July 20.—The conference report on the tariff bill was adopted by the house shortly after midnight by a vote of 185 to 118, and at noon today the report went to the senate for action there. This eclipses all previous records. The result was accomplished after 12 hours of continuous debate. But two speeches were made by the Republicans, one by Democratic majority in opening the debate, and one by Mr. Payne, of New York, in closing it. The Democrats were thus forced to put forth speaker after speaker, but their bombardment of the Republican position was unavailing.

In all ten Democratic and one Populist speeches were made. The sugar schedule was the main point of assault, but the most interesting feature of the debate occurred when Mr. Bailey and Mr. McMillin, the two rival Democratic leaders, crossed swords on the question of orthodoxly the free raw material doctrine, the former opposing and the latter championing it.

The galleries were crowded up to the time the vote was taken, many distinguished people being present. Among them were a number of senators, several members of the cabinet and a few members of the diplomatic corps. Every Republican in the house who was present voted for the report. The Democrats, with five exceptions, voted against the report. The exceptions were Clayton of Texas, Broussard of Louisiana, Mayor of Louisiana, Davey of Louisiana, Kieberg of Texas.

The Populists and silverites did not vote. Mr. Shafroth of Colorado and Newlands of Nevada, silverites, abstained from voting. Mr. Hartman, silverite, of Montana, did not vote. The Populists who voted against the report were Baker, Marshall, Martin, Fowler, Jett, Lewis, Marshall, Martin, Peters, Simpson, Stroud and Vincent. Four did not vote—Howard, Kelly, Stark and Southland. The other Populists were absent.

An analysis of the vote shows that 180 Republicans and 105 Democrats voted for the report, and 105 Democrats and 12 Populists against it. The floor of the house presented an animated appearance long before the speaker rapped that body to order. Members stood about in groups and discussed, sometimes in excited tones, the result of the conference agreement on the tariff bill, which was presented for final action. The galleries were comfortably well filled, and every member in the city was in his seat when Speaker Reed ascended the rostrum.

An analysis of the vote shows that 180 Republicans and 105 Democrats voted for the report, and 105 Democrats and 12 Populists against it. The floor of the house presented an animated appearance long before the speaker rapped that body to order. Members stood about in groups and discussed, sometimes in excited tones, the result of the conference agreement on the tariff bill, which was presented for final action. The galleries were comfortably well filled, and every member in the city was in his seat when Speaker Reed ascended the rostrum.

Mr. Grosvenor got the floor and asked unanimous consent to print a speech on the civil service question. He said he did not desire to delay the tariff debate which was to follow. Mr. Terry, of Arkansas, raised a laugh by requesting Mr. Grosvenor to elucidate in his printed remarks the changes which the president was to make in the civil service regulations immediately after conference adjourned. The report was then adopted.

This out of the way, Mr. Dingley arose. Holding aloft the report and a great mass of papers he said, in calm tones: "Mr. Speaker, I desire to present the conference report on the tariff bill." He gave of applause from the Republican side of the chamber. The reading of the report was dispensed with at the request of Mr. Dingley and the statement of the effect of the changes read.

Mr. Bailey, the leader of the minority, dissatisfied before the reading began any responsibility for the statement which he said, the minority has, as yet, had no opportunity to read. At the conclusion of the statement Mr. Dingley took the floor. Before he began his speech he expressed a wish to enter into an agreement with the minority as to the length of time the debate should run. Mr. Bailey suggested that the majority would like three days, but would be willing to agree to a vote for adjournment today. Mr. Dingley said he was not prepared to agree to Mr. Bailey's proposition. When he expressed the hope that a vote could be reached before adjournment the Republicans broke into long and loud applause. "Talk at this time is very expensive," said Mr. Dingley. "It costs the treasury $100,000 a day."
