Its pages will take your mind away from everything that can possibly worry. Next Sunday's "Press" will give all the gossip of the seaside and mountain resorts; will give complete information about the wonderful gold fields of Alaska; tell how English women are employed in the manufacture of bicycles; describes some wonderful relics that have been discovered in a mound in Georgia; reveal the sad misfortunes that have come to the family of Harriet Beecher Stowe, the author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and will give a host of other special features to be found in no other paper. In addition, every reader will receive free a copy of the $25,000 reward, "The Battle of Lake Erie." Order next Sunday's Press in advance.

The County Asylum.

Dr. Henry H. Wetherill, Secretary and Inspector of the State Lunacy Committee, and Charles H. Wolfgen, of Pottsville, inspected the county almshouse yesterday and found that the management has not yet made the improvements in that institution to enable the county to pay $1.75 per week for each patient treated there. The county has been losing $8,000 per year since June, 1895, by not complying with the law in this respect, not to speak of the gain there would be to the patients in comfort. It is said that one death every other day has been the mortality record the past two weeks, and is due to the crowded condition of the almshouse. The institution, in its several departments, was caring for 485 indigent, sick and injured men, women and children. Of these 105 are in the insane department. There is but one remedy and that is to make use of the new hospital at once, and in the opinion of Dr. Wetherill the Directors would be justified in taking possession at once, despite the differences of county officials.

A Newark Murder Mystery.

Newark, N. J., July 23.—Mrs. Michael Kmentz, wife of a saloonkeeper of this city, was found murdered in bed at their home yesterday. Her husband and her 7-year-old son are in the custody of the police. The officers are looking for Andrew Muluak, who, the child told them, shot the woman and fled. Muluak had for several years boarded with the family, but was recently ordered from the house after boasting to Kmentz of his intimacy with Mrs. Kmentz. The boy, who slept with his parents, declares he saw Muluak creep up to the bed and shoot his mother. Kmentz declares he was awakened by the shot and fought Muluak, but was overpowered. The police doubt his story.

TO FORCE A TARIFF VOTE.

Today's Session Will Be Prolonged With That Object in View.

Washington, July 23.—Shortly before the Senate adjourned yesterday Senator Allison, in charge of the tariff bill, made a strenuous effort to have a time fixed for the final vote on the tariff conference report. Failing in this Mr. Allison gave notice that today's session would be protracted with a view to securing a vote. It was the first definite movement made thus far toward bringing the debate to a close. Mr. Allison's first proposition was for a vote at 3 o'clock this afternoon, but this was objected to by Mr. Pettus, of Alabama. Then he proposed a vote sometime before adjournment today, which was objected to by Mr. Morgan. The suggestion of Saturday at 1 o'clock met with like objection from Mr. Morgan. The Alabama senator explained his last objection by stating that he thought all debate on the report would be exhausted today, so that it would be useless to make an agreement in advance.

Finding that there was no disposition to reach an agreement, Mr. Allison finally gave notice that hereafter, while the report was pending, the Senate would not adjourn at 3 o'clock without a yeas and nays vote.

The debate on the report yesterday was participated in by Senators Chilton of Texas, Jones of Arkansas and Pettigrew of South Dakota in opposition, while Mr. Aldrich took frequent occasion to defend the report against the criticism of these senators.
