Mal. Flancy's Chances for the Navat Office at Philadelphia

Vectorday's Philadelphia Inquirer con-tained the following: "The announcement that Mr. Carr is to continue in office until September 8 has given the few Don the post office who are not under the civil scryles a new lease of life. The presumption that all of the other Federal chiefs are to serve out their four years has caused their mberdinates to breathe easier. It seems to be conceded that C. Wesley. Thomas will be Collector of the Port and James R. Holland, of Norristown, Naval Officer. Mr. Holland has been a stalwart for years, and the appointment would be a good one from the tand-point of fitness and experience.

"John F. Finuey, of Potisville, who is also a candidate for Naval Officer, was in the city yesterday. He bas always been an ardent Quay man, and he also enjoys the benefit of atrong backing from Schuytkili county. While it does not seem probable that he can obtain the Naval Office, his claims are strong enough to justify him in expecting semething "equally as good," It is binted that this may mean the Surveyorship.
