FORMER TOWNSMAN WEDS

J. Harvey Lessig joined the ranks of Benedictines last Saturday.

Last Saturday evening at the hands of the priest, the Rev. J. Harvey Lessig, of the Benedictine monastery at Orangeburg, was married to Miss Catherine Holton, the daughter of the Lutheran church, at Orangeburg, Rev. Weller, the pastor of the congregation, performed the ceremony.

The church was thronged to the doors by many of the friends of the contracting parties. The bride was supported by Miss Catherine Holton, and the duties of bridesmaid were attended to by George Fundermacher, a brother of the bride. Immediately after they had been pronounced husband and wife, the happy couple were driven to the home of the bride where a wedding reception was in progress, which lasted from 9:30 to 9 o'clock. Fifty guests were present at the reception from the surrounding towns. The presents were numerous and costly. At nine o'clock, amid showers of congratulations and a sufficiency of rice the newly married couple left on a wedding trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

Both young people enjoy a large acquaintance in Orangeburg. The bride is a daughter of William Fundermacher, and the groom is employed as foreman in Albright & Sons shoe factory, and is a son of James B. Lessig, of North Main street. Among those who attended the wedding from town were: Miss May and Hattie, and Grant Lessig, sisters and brother of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Landig and son, James, of Shenandoah, were also in attendance.

They Are Admired. "Won't either of those two bicycles be a nice gift for the winner," is the expression frequently heard about the bicycles displayed in the show window of the Shenandoah drug store. The voting is still keeping steady pace, the number of votes polled yesterday being 1716. Two of the contestants, Dr. W. N. Stone and John Conville, have stepped out of the race, to enable the voters cast for them to be given the leaders, who are within easy access to each other. Ambrose Toole still continues to hold first place and has 5257 votes to his credit. Plucky Miss Whitehead has lost none of her interest and has an ironed hold on second place. She is credited with 5183 votes, only 74 votes behind Toole. Miss McMenamin holds third place, having 4980 votes. Miss Margaret Maley follows with 2833 votes. The total number of votes cast up to last evening was 22,684. The contest closes on September 11th.

KILLED BY FALLING COAL!

A Young Man Meets With Instant Death Last Night.

WAS EMPLOYED AS A LABORER!

Without a Moment's Warning, John Kielus' Life Was Crushed Out While He Was at His Work in the Ellingowan Colliery.

The perilous life of the teler in the coal mines is so well known to the people of the coal region that sudden deaths in the mines do not excite the interest in the community which would be otherwise aroused. Probably more lives are lost by the falling of coal from the roof of the mine than by any other cause and it is assumed that an amount of care or precaution can avoid them. An accident of this nature at the Ellingowan colliery last evening is a striking illustration of this, when Charles Kielus was hurled into eternity almost in the twinkling of an eye. Kielus, who is a Lithuanian, aged about 35 years and single, was employed as a laborer at that colliery and last night while following his vocation was struck on the head and back by a fall of coal which crushed his skull and seriously hurt his back, while his hands and face were badly cut also. He has no near relatives in the country, but lived with a fellow-countryman named Savel Beletsky, on East Lloyd street, where his body was removed shortly after the accident.

PEPPERS AND BONES.

California Boxer Proves a Very Shifty Middle-Weight.

Henry Peppers, the colored California middle-weight, proved last night to be the best of John Boner, who was even more, bearing Kid McCoy, at when their second round bout at the Arena, in Philadelphia was over, the Summit Hill boxer knew that he had been doing some lively boxing. Peppers kept running away from Boner nearly all the time and his actions rattled Jack greatly. In the second round Boner caught a punch on the chin as he was off his balance and he went to the floor, but was up in a moment. Boner had all the best of the second round. After that Peppers started his running tactics, and as he could Boner did not succeed in landing an effective blow. Boner's second round was a very close one, but he wanted him, but the shifty colored man got away every time. Peppers got in several good blows in the fifth round, which was a rather warm one. He had a good left hook, which he got in on Boner's face, but not on the right spot. In the sixth round Boner was a case of Gallagher feet and he went to the floor, but he got through his own clumsiness. In the round Peppers would sometimes mix it up and then he would run away, and at the end of the round Boner was tired chasing him up.

The Coal Trade.

The Anthracite coal trade continues quiet, and there is very little new business doing at the July circular prices. There is, however, a considerable quantity of coal being moved out of contracts. Last week, for the first time in years, many of the collieries in the Anthracite fields were operated on about three-quarter time. Since January 1 most of the miners have averaged only about two days' work a week, and consequently there has been much distress in the mining towns. Now there is promise of regular work at least three-quarters time six days a week until the end of this year. The movement of coal last week from the Reading Company's mines to market was reported to have been the largest tonnage of any single week for a long while past. Much of this coal has been moved to Tidewater and other storage yards and to eastern distributing points, from where it can be conveniently distributed later in the season as required. The Western Anthracite trade is quiet and has not yet been much benefited by the strike of the bituminous colliers. The storms along the coast during the past week have seriously retarded the movements of vessels and consequently there is a scarcity of bottoms in ports and freight rates have been temporarily advanced from 20 to 70 cents.

THE NEW TARIFF LAW.

Treasury Department Decides Its Operative Midnight, July 28.

Washington, July 27.—The secretary of the treasury holds that the new tariff act was in effect at the beginning of the day on which it received the approval of the president, and therefore became operative after midnight on Friday, July 23. Assistant Secretary Howell today sent the following telegram to collectors of customs: "Department holds that new tariff law covers and includes all customs business of July 24."

The treasury department expects its decision in regard to when the Dingley bill went into effect to be tested in court, but the secretary and his assistants are confident that their ruling that the bill covered all day of Saturday, July 24, will be upheld.

The treasury officials already have discovered a number of inconsistencies in the new tariff act, some of them. It is feared, being incapable of reconciliation. It is pointed out that section 282 places the duty on plums at 25 cents per bushel, and section 264 fixes the rate at 2 cents per pound. Another section fixes the rate of duty on hides of cattle at 15 cents a pound, and admits raw skins free. A question is involved in the classification of calf skins, it being contended that, commercially, calf skins are not classed as hides of cattle, and hence are entitled to free entry, which is believed to be contrary to the purpose of congress.

Highland University Gets $100,000. Harrisburg, July 27.—Governor Hastings approved yesterday the first and second specific appropriations, amounting to $150,000, and disapproved the third and fourth specific appropriations, amounting to $50,000, in the bill appropriating $300,000 to the Lehigh University at Bethlehem. The executive also approved the first, third and fourth specific appropriations, amounting to $4,000, in the bill appropriating $9,944.24 to the trustees of the State Hospital for the Insane at Wernersville. The governor vetoed the Spear bill, enlarging, modifying and defining the powers of third class cities.

A Drunken Miner's Freak.

Greenburg, Pa., July 27.—James Porter and John Hyde, two striking miners, were visiting Robert Rodgers, who is employed in the Ocean mines at Harrisburg, a little mining village on the Hamfield branch. Saturday night they drank heavily. They lay in a stupor until Sunday morning about 2 o'clock, when Hyde awoke, and, getting an old axe, struck Rodgers on the head, fracturing his skull. He then attacked Porter, fracturing his skull, besides cutting a terrible gash in his neck. The injuries of both men will likely prove fatal. Hyde is in jail.

The President's Vacation.

Washington, July 27.—Arrangements have been completed for the trip of the president and his party from Washington to Lake Champlain. The palace car has been assigned for the party. It will leave Washington over the Pennsylvania railroad at noon tomorrow and arrive at Jersey City about 5 p. m. The president and Mrs. McKinley will be accompanied by Secretary and Mrs. Alger and Secretary and Mrs. Porter. It is the president's intention to remain at Lake Champlain until Aug. 1, when he will go to the G. A. B. encampment at Buffalo. From Buffalo he will go to Ohio to attend the reunion of his old regiment, and also to be present at the wedding of the daughter of the late President Hayes on Sept. 2. Unless there should be an urgent demand for his presence in Washington, the president will return to Buffalo, and there go aboard Senator Hanna's yacht for a few days' cruise on the lakes.

Appointment by the President.

Washington, July 27.—The president has decided in appointing Hon. Robert J. Tracewell, of Indiana, for the position of comptroller of the treasury. The recent appointment of T. V. Powderly as commissioner of immigration was signed by the president yesterday for that office failed of confirmation in the senate because of the opposition to him on the part of labor organizations.

Another Victim of Kerosene Oil.

Philadelphia, July 27.—Alfred A. Clegg, his wife, Jennie Clegg, and their 2-year-old child, Edwin, were seriously burned by kerosene oil yesterday. The woman died later in the Episcopal hospital. The father and son will recover. Mrs. Clegg was hastening a fire with her oil.

The West Virginia Miners Will Not Join the Strike.

THE MEETING OF OPERATORS!

Arbitrators Have Hopes of Settlement at the Meeting With the Operators. Conference Expected to Last Two or Three Days.

Pittsburg, July 27.—Miners' Officials Dolan and Warner have assumed the position that the strikers had no intention of marching on the mines of the New York and Cleveland Gas Coal company. President Dolan said it was not intended to lose the sympathy of the public by and ill advised display of force. At the meeting on Thursday, he said he "was sure to crowd from other points. We want only our speakers and DeArmitt's men there, and it is my opinion that this plan will be successful. If we get a good meeting I think we can show to the public and the other miners that DeArmitt's men will have manhood enough left in them to come under our standard and join the strike. We have told the sheriff that our intentions are peaceful, and he believes us. We, therefore, will not be interfered with by him or his deputies."

A body of 1,000 miners, carrying their clubs, marched to the Castle Shannon mines at Oak Bluffs, where about 400 men were working, and prevailed upon them to come out. There was no disorder. Senator Hanna was in the city yesterday. In speaking of the efforts to settle the strike by arbitration, he said: "I am in favor of any plan that will better the condition of the men. That is the main point of the situation. That their condition needs betterment everybody knows, and I will give my hearty support and co-operation to any movement looking toward that end. Present conditions are in many respects inadequate, uniformly in fact, and that is something I have always advocated."

The sheriff of Westmoreland county has been called upon for deputies to protect the miners at the Rostraver mines at Webster. The Webster company proposes to start with non-union miners to-day. The arbitrators are highly elated at the prospects of the meeting of operators today. All agree in saying that it will be the largest meeting of operators ever held in this district. All of the western men are here, and the eastern men are arriving this morning. Hotel lobbies are meeting places for the operators already here, and the strike question is being well discussed. While a large number are not in favor of the old uniformity plan, all are anxious to hear what new phase the peace commissioners have given the subject. Some are decidedly opposed to uniformity, but all are in favor of arbitration for settlement of the strike. No one can at this time predict the outcome of the conference which is expected to last two and perhaps three days.

WEST VIRGINIA MINERS AT WORK

The Labor Leaders Failed to Draw the Miners Out. Wheeling, W. Va., July 27.—Eugene V. Debs made his appearance in Wheeling yesterday afternoon and was met by a large crowd at the railroad station. Last night he addressed a mass meeting in the central part of the city. The efforts to secure the public building square for the meeting failed, and the meeting took place a square away. In speaking of the situation in the Fairmont coal fields, Debs said he felt discouraged. He says the efforts of the organizers would have been more successful but for the fact that the operators, as he claims, prevented their men from attending the meetings. Practical slavery, he says, exists in the Fairmont mining region.

"Although the press may report the miners living under favorable conditions in the Fairmont region," said Debs, "I have collected data from farmers, miners and stockholders which shows that the mining companies cheat their employes at the mines, at the scales, and in the company store. The intimidation practiced by the operators has prevented many from joining the strike, but we are hopeful of ultimate success in West Virginia."

A mass meeting was announced for last night at New England, but none was held, because only 25 miners had gathered. The injunction issued by Special Judge Mason seems to have put an end to the strike here. With all the leaders at Wheeling, the men say there is nothing left for them to do but to go to work. Fully 100 men took this step at Monongah, which, with 80 men imported from the Connellsville region, makes 180 men at work there. The injunction issued yesterday has not yet been served, and the operators think this step will be unnecessary. It is said many miners want to go back to work.

The indications are that the coal miners strike in the southern part of the state is practically over. There are now only about 400 men out in the Kanawha field, about 150 out in the New River field, and possibly 200 in the Norfolk and Western fields. The strike organizers have abandoned these three coal fields and are leaving for other parts. Debs and Mahon claim that the published reports of the strike being a failure at Fairmont are incorrect. Debs says he is in possession of reliable advice to the effect that the strikers yesterday received heavy concessions. If the efforts of the agitators in West Virginia has really been a failure, it is believed that the railroad conductors, firemen and brakemen will be asked to refuse to handle West Virginia coal. The strike in the Fairmont district, which Hatchford predicted would be general yesterday, has proved a flat failure. After days of vigorous effort by Debs, Mahon, Coslett, Miller and Hatchford, the miners at Fairmont remain unshaken.
