The free silver shouters appear to hate the advent of more prosperous times and are still trying to howl calamity but with fast decreasing strength.

The Tax-Payers Association and the County Commissioners appear to be entertaining a very intimate acquaintance, as the former now has an ex-official in the office of the latter.

The believers in the old omelette about St. Swithin's mysterious influence over the weather in mid-summer, have had their faith strengthened by the frequent rains of the past two weeks.

Despite the hard times, the statement of the Merchants National Bank, published in yesterday's Herald, is a very gratifying one to the stockholders.

Since 1892 the British mint has received 37,000,000 gold coins, sovereigns and half sovereigns.

It is interesting to note that the price of bar silver in New York on Monday was 59 cents an ounce, which made the value of the white metal in a silver dollar 45.63 cents.

Englishmen and English newspapers are very free to criticize American politicians and their methods, but we question if any American legislature ever accomplished a successful job of white-washing with more sleekness than the House of Commons whitewashed Cecil Rhodes for his connection with the Transvaal raid in January, 1896.

It has come at last—the game to be played on bicycles. It is called Royal, and is quite English, being an importation from London.

As the new tariff law went into effect the day it was signed, and that day began at 12:01 a. m., the Treasury department has decided that all goods entered at the Custom houses on Saturday, last, are subject to the rates fixed by the Dingley tariff bill.

Now that a regular supply of anthracite for steam purposes can be obtained the Reading Railway is rapidly refitting its locomotives to burn it again, as the Herald stated a month or more ago would be the case.

The action of Governor Hastings in signing the appropriation for the Lehigh University appears to be satisfactory. He has reduced it from $200,000 to $150,000, but that will enable it to get along comfortably for a few years.
