"Damage to 700 in Canada."
Toronto, Ont., July 28.—Dispatches from all over the province tell of great damage and in some cases ruin wrought to crops by the phenomenal rainfall of Monday night and Tuesday.

A prominent grain dealer estimates the damage to wheat in the neighborhood of 5 cents per bushel. Wheat is now cut and stacked in the fields, and the rain was so heavy as to soak every head in a shaft, tending to make the grain sprout and thus lowering the market value.

Escaped an Awful Risk.

The poker game was at its height. Beason had lost all his money, but he was burning with the gambling fever, and would not leave the table. He pledged his watch, a gift of his deceased father, for chips and quickly lost them all. Then he hid on the table a ring which had been given him by a loving sister. The chips he received in exchange lasted just three minutes. For a moment he hesitated, his face flushed, and he started to leave. But when he heard a sneering remark about his poker abilities, he uttered an oath, set down again and converted into chips a diamond pin, which was a birthday present from the girl he loved. In ten minutes he was broke again.

The fever was now burning fiercely in his veins, and he cried recklessly: "I'll put up everything I possess—the shirt on my back, if it comes to that." Wild with excitement, he sprang to his feet and shouted: "I will do you fellows yet. I will keep up the game even if I have to risk!"

He stopped. His face became livid. He looked around like a caged beast. Then, making a rush for the door, he muttered: "Not that! Oh, heavens, I cannot risk that! No, no, no!"

As he discharged one of the players remarked: "Poor devil! I guess he was going to put up some keepsake from his mother."

But such was not the case. For one awful moment Deason had been tempted to risk his life.—New York Journal.

MAHANAY CITY.

A lively discussion took place at the Mansion House this morning which created a great deal of excitement and attracted a large crowd. It occurred between Editor T. J. Joyce, of the Black Diamond, and Manager David Grimes, of Cuyler's Daily American. It was of such a nature as to afford lots of amusement to the spectators, who expected to witness a "go" between the two scribes. During the exchange of words Joyce accused Grimes of being "a moral, mental and physical coward."

Two base ball games will be played at the park on Saturday afternoon. At one o'clock the Jackson team will meet the Frackville nine. At four o'clock Mahanoy City will cross bats with Ashland.

Mrs. John G. Morgan, of East Centre street, sustained painful injuries by falling down a flight of stairs at her residence this morning. Mrs. Morgan, who is a corpulent lady, does not remember whether she stepped on her slip-on or whether she was tripped by the carpet. She fell headway down the stairs in which the ring finger on the left hand was dislocated and two bones in the back of the hand were also fractured. Her right arm was badly sprained and her lower limbs bruised. Mrs. Morgan had just recovered from the effects of a slight fall two weeks ago.

John L. Freck, the well-known horseman of Millersburg, sold Dr. Fetherolf his four-year-old sorrel gelding "Marl." The deal was brought about by the Dr. giving his Collier horse in exchange and a neat sum. He has served notice on Messrs. Ball and Haughey that they no longer can travel in his class.
