The Daily Edition

IT is now announced that Gov. Hastings is a candidate for the seat in the United States Senate now held by Senator Quay. Mr. Quay, having been apprised of the rumor, expressed no surprise nor any apprehension as to the result should the Governor take the field against him. In connection with this matter there are wheels within wheels, and complications that will need to be unraveled before anything like a reasonable conjecture as to what the outcome of it all will be.

HENRY CLEWS, of New York, has received a letter from a Kansas farmer informing him that he has finally paid up all his mortgage debts and has money to invest. He asks what he would recommend for an investment of $20,000. "My feelings," he writes, "now are with the capital-Ists, as I am one of them. I consider that they have been very much abused people, and wrongfully so, for political purposes. Now that good times have come back I have left the Populistic camp forever, and there are others like me in this part of the country.

THE many admirers of Congressman Brumm throughout the state are speaking of that gentleman as the next Governor of Peunsylvania. Commenting upon the many phases of that contest, and the numerous candidates seeking the honor, the Philadelphia Inquirer says it has "acommunication from a respected citizen of Schuylkill county, foreshadowing the appearance in the convention of the Hon. Charles N. Brumm. of Beer and Porter sive candidate. In no part of Pennsylvania is there a man who loves a fight more than the Schuylkill Congressman, nor is there one who more frequently indulges in that exciting pastime. We shall not at this moment go into the question of what his admirer calls his pre-eminent qualifications for the Barbey's Bohemian Beer.
