From the force with which the explosion swept the spot on which they were standing it is certain they must have been intantly killed. Either the bursting of a boiler or the explosion of mill dust alised the awful havoc.

The three firemen who were killed by the falling walls of the elevator were: Jacob J. Schnur, John J. Coogan.

The injured are: Charles H. Conway, fireman, burned about face and hands and body crushed, may die; Chief Dennis Swenie, right foot crush-ed, left arm wrenched and painfully and left arm wrenched and painfully burned; Fire Marshal Campion, burned table, and one thousand dollars reward is burned; Fire Marshal Campton, burned about face; Lieutenant Smith, both legs arushed; Lieutenant W. H. Bartlett, leg crushed; Assistant Engineer Benjamin Blanchard, badly bruised; John F. were mounting ladders and bringing leads of hose to play on the interior from the upper windows, there came a roar that could be heard for half a mile, the roof was raised high in the air and the walls came down with a crash.

The force of the explosion was so great that the eastern wall was hurled into the river, the west wait was tumbled down upon the heads of the unfortunate men below and the roof was torn into mighty fragments and distributed for blocks around. Every window in the vicinity of the elevator was shattered by the concussion, dozens of persons were struck by flying debris and several small fires resulted from falling timbers that were still in flames. ously harmed and others in the throes of death. It was dangerous work to get them out, but it was gallantly and quickly done, and all of the slightly injured were removed. The dead were, for the time, left where they lay. No man could reach their bodies and live. The fire was most difficult to control, as the elevator was surrounded by a number of small buildings, which were continually catching fire. The total loss is estimated at $300,000, which is fully covered by insurance.

THE NAVAHOE WON.

The Little Conqueror Arrives and Ehe Defeats Vigilant in an Exciting Finish.

BUT SIXTY-ONE SECONDS APART

The Race Was For the Goelet Cup and the Distance, Thirty-eight Miles. Was Made in a Little Over Four let cup for sloops yesterday by defeat-ing Percy Chubb's Vigilant in not only the most interesting race ever salled for one of the emblems, but in what was probably the finest contest ever continuous dull one, interspersed with sharp about and kept her lead until within piercing coes in the small of my back. If I three miles of the finish, when Vigilant > favored Navahoe, and taking in her-spinnaker and jibing she rounded it at 1 07:09. Vigilant, while undoubtedly ahead just before this, was 30 seconds started after Navahoe, Instead of keeping a good rap full, Vigilant's skipper immediately began to pinch her. But Captain Crocker gave Navahoe a good full, and she remped along in fine style. As this leg was a long and short hitch Navahoe was kept on the port tack until 3:16, when, with Vigilant to windward, but considerably astern, she tacked to starboard. The boats kept on for half an hour on this tack, when Vigilant again tacked to port. Then it was seen that the erratic steering had done its work, for she could not weather Navahoe. The latter then tacked on her rival's weather, and both boats stood for the second mark.

Just before rounding the big balloor jib was holsted and Navahoe romped away for home, well within her time limit. Vigilent was 30 seconds behind Then began one of the most exciting finishes seen for many a day. With lant started to get by Navahoe, and make up the five minutes necessary to win. She did the former, but fell short of the latter. Such a sight as the finish of those two boats has never beer seen in these waters, for both carried a cloud of canvass. Strange to relate not one of the dozen of the finest Amerloan steam yachts which were at the finish uttered a sound as the two boats rushed across the line. It was a grand race, without the enthusiasm.

Navahoe won by one minute and one second, actual, and four minutes and 21 seconds, corrected. Today the con-test between the yachts will be renewed, in the run to Vineyard Haven, with the accompaniment of all the rest of the yachts in the fleet.
