Georgia's Colored Revenue Collector. Atlanta, Aug. 6.-Henry A. Rucker, the new neuro collector of internal revenue, went into office last night with rather unusual ceremonies. When he mat with his predecessor to effect the transfer of the office he found a large gathering of deputies, who presented Mr. Trammell with a very handsome silver service. Speeches were made. ctosing with one by Rucker, whose tem-perate tone and fair words pleased his From all indications it will be the largest hearers. Realising the embarrassment hearters, Realising the embarragement nhead of him, he asked for the sup-port of all the deputies, and assured them they should have his as long as they were in service. His speech was a reassuring one. Yesterday about ton of the deputy collectors sent in their residerations and well out with their sederations and well out with their resignations and went out with their
