ENCOURAGING TRADE REVIEW.

Reports From All Parts Show a Gratifying Result. New York, Aug. 7.—R. G. Dunn & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Four years ago, Aug. 5, 1913, the first number of this publication was issued.

The fall of heavy timber from a straw stack instantly killed Farmer Samuel Nagle, of Heidelberg township, Lebanon county.

Mrs. Eva Ray Hamilton, who gained worldwide notoriety some years ago, is spending the summer at the Hotel Wabash, in Glen Oakdale.

Aged Samuel Slink, while picking coal on the Pennsylvania railroad, near Gap, Lancaster county, was struck by a train and killed.

The passenger employes on the different railway lines are being measured for their winter uniforms, which they will don about November 10th.

Employers of the Weatherly silk mill, at Weatherly, Carbon county, have brought suit against Superintendent Lovatt to recover wages delinquent as fines.

The iron works at Danville, owned and operated by the Reading Iron Company, which have been idle since June 1, will resume operation on Monday next.

Daniel Shetter, a wealthy farmer of Londonderry township, Lebanon county, has been sued for breach of promise by Mrs. Annie Young, his housekeeper, who claims $2500.

The Northumberland county Sunday school convention will be held at Harford on the 10th and 20th of October. There are about one hundred and fifty-six Sunday schools in the county.

Commencing next Monday all collieries in the Panther Creek Valley owned and operated by the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, will work full time, six days per week, until further notice.

Ex-Alderman C. A. Z. Griesmer and several other men, of Reading, have brought action for $5,000 damages against Maxatony township, Berks county, for injuries received by driving into an unguarded ditch.

The position of principal of the Centralia public schools, held by J. Eisenhower, was declared vacant on Monday night and the board of directors met to elect a successor, but they failed to accomplish anything.

The County Commissioners of Berks have decided not to take any action looking to the enforcement of the law against alien workmen until the test cases in the Philadelphia and Pittsburg courts have been decided.

James Dougherty, of Mahanoy Place, was arrested for burglarizing the house of James Rosington at Patterson, near Mt. Carmel, early Wednesday morning. About $50 worth of goods was found in his possession. He was committed to jail.

The Cadets of Pottsville, St. Clair and Orwigswill, who comprise the Golin Battalion of Schuylkill county, went into camp at Camp Park, near Reading at noon today.

The members of the battalion will enjoy the 10 days' outing on about 75 in number. The vein of coal which has been found on the McLaughlin tract of land at Switch Bank, near Shamokin, is a good one and a shaft will now be sunk and the vein fully developed.

The shaft will be driven to the vein and the opening of the vein makes the tract a valuable one.

Edward Loran, the well-known chopper of Catawissa Valley, employed by his brother-in-law, Andy Faust, on a large timber contract, met with a distressing accident. While cutting a heavy limb his sharp axe slipped and penetrated his foot, almost severing a large portion of the same.

Recently an order was issued by the Pennsylvania Coal Company, stating that its chambers worked by two miners one must remain with the laborer or laborers until the day's work is done. It is understood that the object of this requirement is for the miner to see that the coal is in a clean condition.

Great preparations are being made for the dedication of the Roman Catholic cemetery which has been recently laid out by the Magyars at McArdoo. The ceremony will be performed in an elaborate manner on the 14th inst. Clergymen from all parts of the county will be in attendance as well as Roman Catholic societies.

When you want good roofing, plumbing, gas fitting, or general remodeling done call on E. F. Gallagher 18 West Centre street Dealer in stoves 1-14

Anthracite Coal Defined. The definition of anthracite coal under the new tariff will have an advantageous effect upon the interests of the business of coal mining in this country.

Under the old tariff the coal importers of the Pacific coast have been imposed with an antidumping and, therefore, free of duty, Welsh coal containing 90.30 per cent. of carbon, but the new law classifies as bituminous all coal containing less than 92 per cent. of carbon and imposes a duty on it of 67 cents a ton. Inasmuch as Pennsylvania anthracite, the purest in the world and the highest in carbon, contains only 90.45 per cent. of that element, this amounts to a tariff on all coal imported and rebates the fuel users of the Pacific to the tertiary lignites of their own section.

Skin and blood diseases, causing all sorts of dire disasters to human happiness are easily and quickly cured by Burdock Blood Bitters.

James Brady, by heirs, to Katie Brady, premises in Kelly township.

Henry O. Seidel to John Zimmerman, premises in Washington township.

John E. M. Schell, et. al., to Albert F. Drentheller, premises in Landingville.

Wm. H. Miller, et. al., to Louisa Reed, premises in Walker township.

Lehigh Coal and Navigation Co. to Jos. E. O'Donnell, premises in Coal Dale.

It heals everything except a broken heart, may be said of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Piles and rectal diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, fetid, scurfed and itchy sores may be cured by it quickly and permanently. C. H. Hagedorn.

Marriage Licenses. Peter Deuschke and Annie Messer, both of McArdoo. Joseph Cotszagakis and Fannie E. Eleznitas, both of Wm. Penn.

Excursion to Ocean Grove. For the accommodation of persons desiring to attend the annual camp meeting at Ocean Grove the Philadelphia & Reading Railway will run an excursion on August 24th, leaving Shenandoah at 10:30 a. m. by special train. Fare for the round trip $4.00. Tickets will be good to return up to and including September 1st. This is the only excursion of the season to that point.

Ask your grocer for two "Royal Patent" flour, and take no other brand. It is the best flour made.

PITHY POINTS.

Happenings Throughout the Country Chronicled for Busy Persons.

The Bloomsburg Wheelmen hold a meet August 14th, and will give $400 away in prizes.

The Tamaqua Manufacturing Company is increasing its force to the full capacity of its shops.

While bathing near Harford, Berks county, young Louis Snyder ventured beyond his depth and was drowned.

Walter Flitz, aged 12 years, was crushed to death at Catawissa, Lebanon county, by falling beneath a heavy wagon.

The mistake of Elizabeth McCullough, of Wilkes-Barre, in swallowing a tablespoonful of liniment nearly cost her life.

John Kelly, of Shamokin, to-day reported at Philadelphia as a new member of the National Base Ball League.

It is now stated that the Lehigh Valley railroad will not discontinue the C. & L. police, but will re-organize the force.

The Lehigh Valley Grand Army Association will celebrate Grand Army day at Lansford, Carbon county, on September 4.

The fall of heavy timber from a straw stack instantly killed Farmer Samuel Nagle, of Heidelberg township, Lebanon county.
