POLITICAL POINTS.

The Republican voters will now turn their attention to the election of delegates to the county convention, which meets next Monday.

Simultaneously with the humiliating defeat of Senator Coyle, the legal advertisement of the County Register in Republican papers in Democratic paper.

Resolutions were passed by the Second Legislative district convention endorsing Congressman Brumfin for the gubernatorial nomination.

Every voter should attend the party primaries on Saturday.

Apparently playing with men in a kindergarten, is not Coyle's stronghold.

The Fourth district will be represented in the Republican state convention by three delegates from the counties of Adams, York and Lancaster.

All the other districts elected Quay men.

How many promises for postoffice will now be faithfully kept?

The diamond pin in W. W. Lewis' shirt pocket sparkled with greater brilliancy when the defeat of Coyle was announced.

The man who said he would spend $1,000 to defeat his boss' opponent didn't part with that number of pennies; but he's a sick man.

This morning's Philadelphia Record says: "Of the fights that have already taken place none have been hotter or more surprising in result than that over the election of delegates to the Republican State Convention, in Schuylkill county, on Saturday. Quayites and anti-Quayites hammered away at one another without quarter. When the smoke cleared away it was found that the old leaders of both factions had gone down in the struggle. In the First Legislative district Senator John J. Coyle and Sergeant-at-Arms Joseph Wyatt, two strong (quay) lions, were beaten on a close vote by George Brill and Charles Straughn."

YELLOW ONE PARK.

A Complete Tour via the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Yellowstone National Park is unquestionably the most interesting region on the globe, for within it is displayed the greatest collection of nature's manifold wonders. Indeed, this mountain-bound plateau, high up on the summit of the everlasting Rockies, is a veritable playground for the world's giant forces. To stand and gaze upon them in all their marvelous manifestations, the great geyser upheavals, the fierce steam blasts, the terrible leap of the river, and the awful masses, is a revelation, an experience to be had at no other point on the earth.

The personally-conducted tour of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which leaves New York on September 2, affords the most satisfactory means of visiting this wonderful and viewing its marvellous features. Tourists will travel by special train of Pullman smoking, dining, sleeping and observation cars in each direction. Eight days will be spent in the Park. Stops will also be made returning at St. Paul and Chicago. The round-trip rate, $200 from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington, $200 from Pittsburg, covers all necessary expenses.

For detailed itineraries and full information apply to ticket agents, Tourist Agent, 12th Broadway, New York, or address Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

Severe September Weather.

Prof. A. J. DeYoe, the eminent Jersey weather prophet, does not give us a cheery view of September weather. He fixes a violent electrical storm as due on the 2nd of this month, reaching its height on the 5th, and raging most severely over western Virginia and the southern part of Pennsylvania. Another big storm will follow on the 10th and will sweep across the Atlantic to ravage the coast of the United Kingdom. But worse yet, according to Mr. DeYoe, will be a storm from the 25th to the 30th, developing a tornado in Ohio and heavy rains with cold gusts on the middle Atlantic coast. Inactive and quiet weather is predicted for the 25th and a cooler storm in Italy, with floods in Austria and Parkey.

Sims, Harry Bickert, Samuel Acker, Jr., John Rosenberger, Jacob Nell, Sr., George Davidson, and John Mabon, of Brownsville, Miss Ida Gasliner, Stella Furlong, of town, and Miss Thompson, of Brownsville, were also among them.

Three Earned by Gasoline.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Three persons, comprising the family of Peter Veth, at 227 East Huron street, were seriously burned in a fire caused by an explosion of gasoline. The injured are Peter Veth, Edwin Veth, and the young son, Edwin Veth, aged 2 1/2 years. Mrs. Veth was more seriously injured than her husband and child, but she will probably recover. Mrs. Veth was cleaning a brass bedstead with the fluid and her husband struck a match for the purpose of lighting a cigar. In an instant there was an explosion, and the room was filled with flames. The flames caught the clothing of Mrs. Veth, and she was soon enveloped in flames from head to foot. Mrs. Solomon, the landlady, secured a bed quilt and smothered the burning clothes. Meantime the father had carried the boy from the room.

Beaten to Death by Thieves.

New York, Aug. 9.—Louis Daviasack, a ladies' tailor, 25 years old, was beaten to death by three unknown men in 12-13 West 11th street, near First avenue, at 11:15 o'clock yesterday morning. An Italian barber who lives near the corner saw the man attacked, and summoned the police by rapping on the sidewalk. A policeman arrived in time to see the three men run off in an opposite direction. The beaten man was lying dead on the pavement. The police decided that the man had been sandbagged, as his neck was broken and his skull fractured. The police believe the man was attacked by members of the gas house gang, and that they were frightened away before they could rob their victim. A young man named Daniel Kennedy is under arrest on suspicion.

Mob Defied the Military.

Houston, Tex., Aug. 9.—A mob of 500 surrounded the jail at Nacogoches Saturday night and demanded the surrender of Essack White and Armas Phillips, negroes, who had attempted a criminal assault on two young ladies. The mob finally broke into the jail, secured Essack White and hanged him on an improvised scaffold. He admitted that he was implicated in the crime, but laid the blame on others. The governor had ordered out the State Force reserves but they nor the sheriff could do anything to either overawe or disperse the mob. A threat to fire was made, but if it had been carried out a very bloody conflict would have ensued.

Suspicious of Murder.

Dubuque, Pa., Aug. 9.—Dreight Wilson, formerly of Aurora, N. Y., died from the effects of a gunshot wound late Saturday night, and there is a suspicion that he was murdered. Two weeks ago Wilson made his home with a man and woman at Ratheld, near here. Saturday night the three were having a quarrel, and returned home early. At a late hour a physician was called to attend Wilson, and found him lying in front of the house with a bullet hole in his head and a gun by his side. The couple declared that he had shot himself. An inquest is being held.

At the Exposition.

Nashville, Aug. 9.—The extent this week of the exposition will be in a great degree of a military character. The troops from north and south will camp on the military plaza, receptions, parades drill and social functions will be numerous, and the week's operations are to close with a monster sham battle. Tomorrow is to be a memorable day. It is Louisiana and New Orleans day. Governor Foster, with members of his staff, will attend, and many of the prominent men and women of New Orleans will accompany the governor.

A Hunter's Accidental Death.

Auburn, N. Y., Aug. 8.—The body of Dr. Arthur E. Kennedy, aged about 35 years, eye and throat specialist of this city, was found yesterday four miles north of this city. He left home about 6 o'clock in the morning to go hunting, and his death is supposed to have resulted from the accidental discharge of his gun, inflicting a wound just above the knee, from which he bled to death.
