WYATT'S BIG BLUFF.

With One of His Own Tellers He Claims to be Counted Out.
As was to have been expected, Messrs.
Coyle and Wyatt, the defeated candidates for State Treasurer, are putting up a big bluff.
The former gives it out that corporations were instrumental in encompassing his defeat, while the facts in the case are that Coyle and his colleagues received more votes from those delegates under the employ of corporations than did their opponents. This does away with the bluff.
This morning's Philadelphia Press contained the following despatch from Harrisburg:
"Senator Coyle and Sergeant-at-Arms Wyatt, of the House, were here today to see State Treasurer Hayward with reference to settling Mr. Wyatt's little legislative account.
Both of these gentlemen were defeated for delegates to the Republican state convention from the First Schuylkill District. Wyatt says he is going to make a contest. He claims to have been elected by one and one-half votes, and that he has the sworn statements of all the delegates who voted for him. He intended to lay his case before State Chairman Elkin today, but the latter was not here."
This is a clear case of bluff, and when the proper time comes will be so proven. The chairman of the convention and one of the tellers were both Wyatt supporters, and it is beyond all reason to say that their favors were counted out. Coyle's own paper gave Wyatt but 284 votes, and in their published table credited Messrs. the delegates from Mahanoy City who voted for Brill and Straughn, with but one vote, whereas his colleagues from the same ward, who voted for Wyatt and Coyle, is given credit with two votes.
William Clifford was a strong Coyle and Wyatt supporter, and was one of the tellers.
He was one of the tellers, and Coyle insisted upon another vote. "I guess not," replied Clifford, "the count is right, and there will be no second vote by my consent. I am willing to swear to the correctness of the count." Both tellers agreed in their count, and the chairman was satisfied they were right.
Their count corroborated by others who kept tally. Furthermore, one delegate who voted for Straughn was recorded for Wyatt.
If the latter wants a contest we are positive he will find that he is credited with more votes than he actually received. By all means let the contest proceed.

STRUCK BY A TRAIN.

A Young Man Will Die From the Injuries Received.
Special to EVENING HERALD.
TAMAQUA, Aug. 10.—At 11 o'clock today the express passenger train on the P. & C.
Railway struck a wagon at the foundry crossing. Samuel Southam, a young man, and Howard Kistler, aged 19 years, were on the locomotive and dragged over the rails and beneath the wheels fully 25 yards. Both his legs and arms were broken. The victim will die. Kistler was thrown to the ground and only slightly injured.

Benefits Denied.
John Youzefski was plaintiff in a civil suit before Justice Toomey last night, brought against St. Casimer's Lithuanian Society to recover $3 per week sick benefits from June 10th, last, up to yesterday. The plaintiff was represented by T. R. Bechtel, Esq. On the hearing the society, through M. M. Burke, Esq., claimed that the man was not entitled to benefits under a clause in the constitution of the society which provides that any member who gets drunk while on the sick list shall be cut off from benefits. Justice Toomey decided in favor of the evidence, the stand was well taken and gave judgment in favor of the society.

Fire at Tamaqua.

TAMAQUA, Aug. 10.—At three o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the Eagle Wagon Works, on Pine street, owned by Philip Krell. The rear portion of the factory was destroyed with 11 sleighs, 6 carriages and 10 wagons, the loss being $3,000.
The building loss was about $1,300. Both losses were partly covered by insurance.

Will Remain.

As near as can be learned the Lehigh Valley Coal Co. has decided to join with the individual operators and keep intact the Coal and Iron Pullman's Association. The location of the entire force, however, will be changed, and the Lehigh Valley is given the choice of naming the chief. This means a promotion for Rhone Trecoff, who will have exclusive charge of the entire force.

Feats of Rope Walking.

Last night the residents of Wm. Penn were treated to a series of feats in rope walking by Prof. Stiles, who is at present employed in painting the 90 feet stacks at the Wm. Penn colliery. The rope was stretched from the residence of Lewis Bender to his stable, a distance of 40 feet. The residents thronged out in large numbers to witness the exhibition.

Plain Engine Breaks Down.

During last night the drum on the hoisting engine at Mahanoy Plane broke down.
Consequently all coal shipped by Bear Run Junction and Frackville.
Collar Bone Fractured.
By falling from a wagon going to Turkey Run this morning, William, a twelve-year-old son of Charles Evans, of South Jardin street, fractured his right collar bone. Dr.
Callen was summoned to reduce the fracture.

A Dark Joke.

John Banks, the shaggy-headed young fellow who rejuvenates the appearance of the pedal extremities of guests of the Ferguson House, is indulging in a perpetual grin over an incident which occurred when out on a bike yesterday which almost caused him to take a header "when he heard a blind troubadour singing, "All Coons Look Alike to Me."

SUFFERING

Striking Miners' Families Appeal to the Officials.
MANY MEETINGS TO BE HELD!
Extraordinary Efforts Will be Made to Keep Up the Interest in the Strike For Living Wages—Four Miners Under Arrest.

Pittsburg, Aug. 10.—Appeals for food and provisions were numerous at the headquarters of the miners' officials in this city yesterday. It appeared as if there was a wall from every section of the district, and miners in person were present to ask that the suffering ones be looked after. Secretary Warner has kept busy answering the appeals.
He said last night that he had sent more than $1,000 worth of groceries and provisions into various parts of the district. The appeals are now coming in from the families, the heads of which are at the various mining camps, using their influence to keep other men from working.

ILLINOIS MINERS TO MARCH.

Lincoln, Ill., Aug. 10.—The miners of this city met and decided unanimously to march tomorrow morning to Mount Pulaski and endeavor to get the miners there to strike, and from there to go to Decatur, where delegations from Springfield, Hannibal and other places will meet them. The operators at Lincoln offered their men work every day in the week (they have been having but two days' work per week on an average) if they would return to work. The proposition was declined.

Ritchevski, George Labotis and William Kerickowski were before Justice Toomey last night on oath of Peter Stravinski, who alleged that on Sunday the place called the saloon on East Centre street and demanded admittance. When this was refused they forced open the door and beat the proprietor.
They were held for trial at court.

A Shamokin Boy Missing.

Ed Stevens, aged 12 years, of Shamokin, wandered away from home over a week ago, and his mother is nearly distracted over his loss. The boy is supposed to be in the vicinity of Pottsville. The matter was reported to the Pottsville police yesterday.

Improvements at Whitecock's.

The residence of Dr. C. S. Phillips, on West ing last night, the occasion being a surprise party tendered to his son, Charles, in honor of his seventeenth birthday anniversary. Games and vocal and instrumental music were indulged in and refreshments served.

Corbett-Fitz Fight Here.

Commencing this evening at 8 o'clock, the National Vitascops will open an engagement at Bobbin's opera house, presenting a correct fair simile of the great Corbett-Fitz simmons contest at Carson City, on March 17th. Every spectator can imagine himself

Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 10.—Matters district, and the miners are feeling encouraged. Yesterday a small army of miners from Moundsville and Benwood gathered at the works of the Glendale company, eight miles below the city, and soon induced the working miners at that plant to come out to a point.

Flushed with their success at this point
