THE walling and lamentation in the office of the Mahanoy City American ever since Saturday last is something appalling. There is, apparently, not one grain of comfort to be extracted from the crushing defeat administered, and the cowardly bully who has tyrannized so unmercifully over every one who has dared to hold a different opinion from him now howis as impotently as a yellow dog with a tin can tied to its tall. His rage only excites the ridicule and contempt of all honest citizens, who are elated over the man who has been the foulest blot on the ascutcheon of the Republican party of this county within the memory of anyone now living. This man, who JOE WYATT'S SALOON, has done more to debauch the polities of the county than anyone else; who has, ever since his connection with the sheet he is said to be the Pinest whiskeys, here porter and als principal owner of, used it as a club and eigars.
