CANOVAS' ASSASSIN.

Declares He Shot to Avenge the Barcelona Anarchists.

NO REMORSE FOR HIS CRIME.

Declared to the Afflicted Widow of the Corpus Christi Massacre.

Madrid, Aug. 10 - The assassination of Premier Canoyas del Castillo, it is now generally understood, was the outcome of an anarchist plot. The government was made aware of the plot some time ago, and had taken what was thought to be the necessary precautions to pro-tect the premier. Prominent anarchists declare that the assassination of some one high in Spain's government was ooked for by them. Canovas' death

The Spanish cabinet, which convened promptly upon official news of the death of Premier Canovas del Castillo, published in the Official Gazette yesteray, which appeared with a black border, the appointment of Lieutenaut General Don Marcolo de Azcarraga, the minister of war, as premier ad interim. After shooting the premier the murderer, who was immediately seized by people who were in the vicinity of the scene of the crime, was severely handled. He might have been killed had it not been for the protection afforded him by a number of civil guards, who run to the scene of the assassination. ed the premier "in the accomplishment of a just vengeance," at first gave the name of Rinaidi, and said that the deed was the outcome of an extensive an-archist conspiracy. Later, however, the assassin confessed that his real name was Michele Angine Golli, that he was 25 years of age, a native of Boggia, near Naples, and that he left Italy and came to Spain in 1896. Senora Canovas, wife of the premier committed, rushed to his side upon hearing the shots. As the premier lay dying upon the ground she bitterly re-proached the murderer for his crime. Golil, in reply to the agonizing words of the distracted wife, said: "I respect rou because you are an honorable lady, but I have done my duty, and I am now easy in mind, for I have avenged my friends and brothers of Monipulch." In appearance Golli is of medium height, wears a full beard and spectacles, and his demeanor is that of a quiet, law abiding citizen. He says e is satisfied with having done "his duty," and asserts that he had no personal grudge against the premier and was merely obeying orders reselved from his superiors in the se society to which he belonged. He frankly professes anarchistic doctrines, says e was sentenced in 1895 to 18 months Italy, and says that he escaped from there to Marsailles, from which port he made his way to Barcelona.

Last night Golil confessed that he killed Benor Canovas to avenge the coming from Marsailles. He was em-ployed in the printing office of The Re-ty, but he had already disappeared. Golli confesses that he followed Senor Canevas to church and to other places, waiting for an opportunity when he ould surely accomplish his purpose. He says he regrets that he has been unable to kill General Polavieja, who vas governor general of the Philippines when Dr. Rizal was executed last De-cember. He regards him as the mur-derer of Rizal. A dispatch from Rome says that Golli's name is not known to Italian police. No conviction is recorded at Naples or Lucera against a person of that name. Other dispatches from Rome, corroborated by a dispatch from Paris, say that the real name of Golli is Guiseppe Santo, If this is so it is a remarkable coincidence, for the name of the as-sessin of President Carnot was Ces-
