Fugitive Counterfaiter Recaptures. Chicago, Aug. IL-Inspector George W. Hazen, of the New York district of the secret service, left Chicago last evening with George Polycramis, other-wise known as "Greek George," a counterfeiter of international reputation, who broke from Ludiow street jail last January. Polycramis is noted as much for his daring and desperate nature as for hes skill as a counterfeiter. He was the leader of a gang which flooded New York with spurious coin, and which for a long time evaded the efforts of the department agents to capture the counterfellers.
