intrigues is very seriously regarded here. The English newspapers published in India had already discussed the possibility of the ameer's complicity. It was reported some time ago that he had sent thousands of copies of his book on the Jenad, or religious war. o the native Indian regiments, while anonymous letters appeared in the In-dian native press glorifying the Turk-ish victories as "lelam's rising star," and declaring that the ameer was ready to come, like the glorious Mahmud Sabuktagin of yore, to rid India of the thraidom of the Christian yoke, bidding all the faithful to be prepared. and asserting that the riots at Chitpur were really a preliminary trial of Mohammedan strength, carefully organized by the highly educated real leaders of the community.

While the authority of the Afghan ameer over the frontier tribes is very weak, it must be remembered that the Beer and Porter Afghan general, Gholam Haldar, commanding at Asmar, who was in constant communication with the mullab who led the attack on Fort Shabkaur last Saturday, is the amoor's chief and most trusted commander, and taking lnto consideration the symptoms of unrest near Peshawar since the attack on Camp Malakand the Indian gov-ernment will be well advised if it maker in Swat. General Elies has a similar force in the vicinity of Peshawar. Another renerve brigade is split up between Mardan and Rawalpindi, and this is exclusive of the Tochi field force. The news of the military preparations will probably tend to quiet the tribes. The latest reports are that the Monmand tribesmen who were defeated in the attack on Fort Shabkaor and pursued by the government troops across the frontier are carrying their dead and wounded back across the Cabul river in the direction of Dakka, where the ameer has a local governor,

The irthes and chiefs in the lower Swat valley around Malakand and Chakkara have surrendered unconditionally, and it is expected that the tribesmen in the upper Swat valley will the same of the same ribesmen in the upper Swat valley follow their example. If they do submit a puntive expedition will start for that point at once.

KOREAN-DIPLOMAT DEAD

Exercise on a Bicycle Hastened the End.

A DISTINGUISHED ORIENTAL.

Appointed Minister to Washington. He Was Soon Elevated to the King's Privy Council, But III Health Prevented His Return Home.

Washington, Aug. 14, - Mr. Pom Kwang Sob, ex-minister from Korea, died at 5:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon of acute consumption, recently aggravated by over exercise.

Mr. Soh was 48 years old. He had been in poor health for many years, and in the past year or two it frequently gave rise to serious concern. Last autumn, when he was appointed to the head of the king's privy council, a post ranking next to the throne, he was unable to proceed to his country, owing to his ill health, and deterred his departure from time to time. With the approach of the queen's jubilee the king appointed him special commissioner to represent him on that occasion. The journey only aggravated his complaint, however, and the acute attack which hastened his demise brought on by violent exercise in riding bleyele last Saturday night.

The funeral exercises will take place at his late residence at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Minister Chim Pom Ye and attaches of the Korean legation, and Prince Ent Wha, second son of the king, who is now in this country. and many members of the diplomatic corps will attend. Immediately after the ceremony the remains will be cre mated in a local undertaking establish ment. This is in accordance with the hast request of the dead statsaman. Whether or not the ashes will then be sent to his mother country has not vet been decided.

Despite the fact that he was within the half century mark in age, few men have had a more varied career than he. For a long period he was exiled from Korea as a result of the political troubles in that kingdom. He came to this country and settled down in Washington. He at one time held a low grade position in one of the government departments. Then he be-came a clerk, and finally was employed in the United States bureau of educa-tion as a translator, Finally a change came in his own country, and the ban was removed, and he was placed in the highest office in the gift of the king. For about a half year Mr. Son was minister of justice for the kingdom. For a short time he also held the portfolio of minister of education. Then followed his appointment to represen Koren in this country. He came here in January, 1896, and continued in the position until the following June, when he was relieved by the present minis-ter, Mr. Soh led a quiet life in Wash-ington, but gathered about him a number of warm friends. He leaves a wife In Korea.
