THE result of Saturday's primary elections in Mahanoy City and Shen andoah was another "living example" of the waning power of John J. Coyle. He carried but one ward in Mahanoy City, and to make his de feat more humiliating Messrs. Comrey, Ball, Jones, et. al., were elected as delegates from that town. And Register Reese failed to carry at St. Patrick's cathedral, in this city his own ward in this town. Truly, matters political are not coming their way just at this time.

This year, in November, Ohio and Iowa each elects a Governor for two years, Virginia a Governor for four years and Massachusetts the same official for one year. In Ohio and Maryland there are also to be determined Senatorial contests. In the former state Mark Hanna is a candidate for the United States Senate and in the latter Arthur P. Gorman would also like to succeed himself. The election in Nebraska, which chooses a Judge of its Supreme Court and Regents of its university, ought to be interesting as showing how the party of Bryan stands in his own state, In Kentneky, there is to be elected a Clerk of the Court of Appeaks, and the contest will be given significance because the gold Democrats are determined to make an in dependent fight of their own, and, if possible, recapture the regular organization, now controlled by the slivoritos under Blackburn.
