The Remains of James Shields Laid at Rest This Morning.

The funeral of James Shields took place this morning from the family residence on East Centre street and was attended by several hundred people. The cortege was beaded by the members of the Columbia H. &. S. F. E. Co. No. 1, of which the deceased was a member, in full dress uniform and three members of the company served as pall bearers. There were about forty carriages in line behind the hearse. There were a number of beautiful floral offerings notably one from the Schmidt Brewing Commounty one root the Schmidt brewing Com-pany at Pottsville, for which the deceased was the local agent. The pall bearers were Hon. M. C. Watson, John A. Reilly, M. J. Scanlan, Timothy O'Brien, Daniel E. Bran-uan James McDonald, P. J. Feeley and O. S. Ozman and Louis Roeder, of Pottsville. The cortege left the family residence at Fa. m. and proceeded to the Asumonistion church on West Cherry street, where Rev. H. F.
