PRICES, though not a glut in the market, can hardly be called scarce, and prices, under the circumstances, do not rule high.

CANOVAS was assassinated August 8th and the murderer was executed August 20th. In one particular no American can say that Spain is slow and out of date.

A CROWD of 250,000 visitors at the Grand Army reunion at Buffalo shows that the country honors the veterans, and also keeps alive the military spirit of our national history.

THE average Schuykill Democrat has dropped that absurd query, "Have you seen Gen. Prosperity?" Prosperity is a dangerous topic for a man in the calumny business to touch just now.

THE Democracy will hold their state convention to-morrow at Reading. The greatest interest centres on the platform, and the action of the State Committee on the Hairy case.

THE free-trade theorists are not hunting up just now their assertions made when the McKinley law was enacted, that no amount of protection would enable the United States to make its own tin-plate.

It is the duty of every Republican to see that his name appears upon the registration book. Do not depend upon the Register to properly record your name, but make personal application to that official and see that you are qualified to vote in November.

It is a great deal easier for the ordinary man to find the bottom price of the goods he wants to buy than to find the top price for the labor he wants to sell.

OUR Democratic friends on the School Board are still banking after the "loaves and fishes." The Board will meet next Wednesday evening, when the election of night school teachers will take place, and it is rumored all those who differ politically with the majority of the Board must go the way of the Citizens jantlers.

NOTWITHSTANDING Judge Aehuson's opinion that the alien tax law is unconstitutional because it violates the fourteenth amendment to the constitution in imposing burdens upon the alien which the citizen is not called upon to bear, the soundness of his position is being questioned upon the ground that it not only does not impose such a burden, but because the law actually only imposes a tax upon the alien who, heretofore, has been practically free from all taxation.

ing placed upon an equality with the citizen who pays for their support.

Mr. Bryan has concluded to postpone his visit to Mexico for the purpose of investigating the silver question of that country to a more convenient season.

Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has cured hundreds of cases of deafness that were supposed to be incurable.
