BECOMING SERIOUS.

The Strikers in the Luzerne Region Are Determined. HAZLETON, Sept. 1.—From reports received today it appears that the strike situation so far as the collieries at Mifflintown and Coleraine are concerned is unchanged, the foreigners will be determined in leaving their demands unaltered. A large party of the Coleraine strikers marched to McAdoo yesterday, where they mingled with the men employed by the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Co. The men were orderly and made no demonstration of any kind.

The strike situation at Coleraine and Avondale remains unchanged. The strikers continue to hold meetings and reaffirm their determination to hold out for their demands. There is now a better understanding existing between the foremen and English-speaking class, and their grievances have been presented to Superintendent Roderick in an intelligent manner. The meetings are presided over by intelligent speakers, who address the men on the subject of the strike in the English, Italian and Slavonic languages.

Criminal Court. The September term of criminal court will open next Monday, for two weeks, when three courts will be in session both weeks. For the first week the most important cases fixed for trial, among them being: Rose Jacobson, infanticide, oath of James Russell, Matt. Karpovich, murder, oath of Eva Tomulonis. This is a Shenandoah case, the husband of the prosecutrix being killed in a quarrel. Charles McHale, manslaughter, oath of Wm. Parke, J. J. Cagle vs. Thomas H. Dece vs. P. J. Ferguson, et al., misdemeanor in office, Daniel Christian vs. Thomas Campion, M. Close, G. Deegan, John Leary, John Gibbons, J. Dalton, School Board of Cass Twp., misdemeanor in office; this case is fixed for Wednesday. The Van Valkenburg case and that of T. M. Jones vs. H. E. Lupton, embezzlement. It is expected that fully 500 cases will be returned for this term of court.

It Was a Joke. The Shamokin and Mt. Carmel newspapers last evening published extensive accounts of an alleged dynamite plot, stating that "a despatch attempt to kill Frederick Kurtz, wife and children, was made by two unknown men at the new Mt. Carmel resort." George Lambert, a friend of the Kurtz's, fired three shots at the would-be dynamiters, who escaped in the heavy underbrush along the Mt. Carmel pike. As the Kurtz family and Lambert were residents of this town prior to the starting of work on the reservoir referred to the report aroused some interest here, but a later report from the Mt. Carmel News set the whole affair was a joke played by Kurtz's friends. The sticks of dynamite which he saw were nothing more nor less than two paper bags of sawdust. The men who ran into the woods were afterwards in the crowd who searched for the "villains" who tried to take their friend's life.

A Famous Beverage. The world's famous Munich beer, imported from Germany, pure barley malt extract, constantly on draught at William Derr's cafe, 38 North Main street.

Last Registration Day. State Chairman Elkin was asked at Harrisburg yesterday regarding the last day for registration of voters, concerning which there seems to be some dispute. He said: "The old law required the voter to register sixty-one days prior to the Tuesday following the first Monday of November; but the Act of 1895 changes that, and requires registration to be at least sixty-two days. The election this year falls on November 2, and the first day of September will be sixty-two days." According to this, to-day will be the last day for voters to register.

Hazleton Officials Here. J. Altmeier, mayor of the city of Hazleton; J. Brook Celine, city surveyor, and William F. McNair, city solicitor, were in town for a short while last evening. They drove over from Mahanoy City in company with Contractor J. H. Wallace, where they inspected the paving in that town, and were highly pleased with the work. Hazleton has appropriated $35,000 for paving, and it is expected that at least eight squares in that town will be paved with the Mack brick before winter sets in.

Property Purchased. Thomas H. Snyder, the painter, has purchased from E. W. Sheeler for $2,500 the property at 22 South Jardin street. The negotiations were closed to-day. Mr. Sheeler is making preparations to move to Brooklyn, N. Y.

Obituary. Adam, the bright and interesting little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Leckie, died at the family residence on East Centre street last evening, aged 5 months. The funeral will take place from the residence to-morrow afternoon, where services will be held. The remains which are in charge of J. P. Williams & Son, will be interred in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Arbitration Postponed. The suit of C. E. Titman against William Stier, which was to have been arbitrated at Pottsville to-day, was indefinitely postponed on account of some of the parties not being in readiness to proceed.

The Coal Contract. The bids for furnishing the public schools with coal were opened by the committee of the School Board last night and it was decided to recommend at the meeting of the Board to-night that O'Hara Bros. be given the contract. Owen Brennan, E. J. Davies, William Kiewender and W. P. Seward were the other bidders.

Sons of Veterans Rally. The members of Henry Horacastle Camp No. 48, Sons of Veterans, of town, will hold a rally and banquet on the 21st inst. Delegation from Mahanoy City, Hazleton, Mt. Carmel, Shamokin and other places will be in attendance. Among the visitors will be the military corps of the organization from Shamokin and Mt. Carmel. The rally will be held in the camp rooms and the banquet in Robinson's opera house. The object of the affair is to lay a foundation for an increase in membership of the local camp. The initiation fee has been reduced.

Female Constabulars. Mrs. John Berg, of West Coal street, was the defendant in a case before Justice Toomey last night on a warrant issued by John Smith. The plaintiff charges her with assaulting and beating Mary Margolis, who is a servant girl at Smith's saloon. Mrs. Berg waived a hearing and entered $500 bail for her appearance to court.

Parents and Children Fight. In Justice Toomey's court last night Louis Choroski and his wife, Lena, were held on charges of assault and battery preferred by Joseph Gowanski. The children of both parents had been playing together and later began to quarrel. Mrs. Gowanski consorted them, which angered the Choroskis, who set upon her and beat her. Both were held in $500 bail.

The Herks County Fair. Will be held in the city of Reading, Pa., on September 7, 8, 9 and 10. It promises to be a big event, a large number of special features having been provided for the entertainment and enjoyment of visitors. The managers announce that the number of exhibits will be far in excess of previous years and will fully represent the agricultural and industrial resources of the county. The fruit display at the Herks county fair has always been a great drawing card. This year's fruit crop is one of the best in the history of the county. Passenger trains run direct to the main entrance and will leave the heart of the city for the grounds every 20 minutes.

LOVE AND DYNAMITE.

Sallie Brobst Captures the Hearts of Brandonville Gallants. Two tall, lank men about fifty years of age were in Justice Shoemaker's office this afternoon to attend a hearing. One was Samuel J. Rupert and the other John Swazey. Both are farm hands and live at Brandonville. Rupert charged Swazey with threatening to blow his house up with dynamite. Rupert says that Swazey with a malicious intent, with an unmarried woman named Sallie Brobst, although he has a wife living. The wife is alleged to be demoralized and is an inmate of the Schuylkill Haven almshouse. Swazey waived a hearing and entered $500 bail on the dynamite charge and $500 bail on the other. He said the whole affair is a piece of spite work because Rupert can't get the Brobst woman to live with him. Rupert is a bachelor. He says that a few nights ago the Brobst woman and Swazey had a quarrel. The woman left Swazey and Rupert took her and her luggage into his home. This night Swazey appeared in front of the Brobst woman and made the dynamite threats. The woman, Rupert says, became frightened and returned to Swazey. The Brobst woman is about 30 years of age, fair looking and of neat appearance. She was in the office during the hearing and sat close to Swazey. She appeared to remark: "Yes, I guess Sallie has gone back on me after all!"

MR. MONAGHAN WEDDED.

P. F. Monaghan Joins the Ranks of Benedictines in Philadelphia To-day. No little surprise was occasioned in town this morning when the news leaked out that P. F. Monaghan had tied himself to Philadelphia to seek a life partner. The fiancee was Miss Ella Rosier, of that place, and at an early hour this morning Mr. Monaghan was initiated into the ranks of Benedictines by being united in marriage to St. Mary's R. C. church, at Philadelphia. Dr. James Monaghan, a brother of the bridegroom, officiated as best man. The honeymoon of the happy couple will be spent in Boston, Mass., after which they will return to town and take up their residence at 308 West Oak street, which has lately been undergoing extensive improvements and upon its completion will present a cozy appearance. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Monaghan, of South Main street, and is widely known in town and the neighboring region. Until recently he was a partner in the New York Progress Hat and Cap Company, which has discontinued business. The Herald joins his many friends in wishing him and his bride a happy voyage on the sea of matrimony.

FOREIGN-BORN PEOPLE Whose Parents Have Been Naturalized Are Citizens. A great deal of trouble and incidental expense may be saved many persons who are informed of the fact that although born in a foreign land they may be citizens of the United States without going through the formality of taking out naturalization papers. This rule, however, only applies to children who were under age at the time of the naturalization of their parents. The act of Congress upon this subject is as follows: "The children of persons who have been duly naturalized under any law of the United States, being under the age of 21 years at the time of the naturalization of their parents shall, if dwelling in the United States, be considered citizens of the United States."
