MARCHING AGAIN.

The Lusatian Strikers Peaceable But Continue Their Tour.

Special to EVENING HERALD. HAZLETON, Sept. 8.—The striking miners this morning resumed their marching, starting from Bunker Hill. They first visited the Coleridge colliery, but work was stopped before they arrived. The colliery of Evans & Co. was next visited and work stopped. This afternoon the line of march is directed towards the Cox collieries. There has been no attempt at violence, or clash with the authorities.

The committee from the Yorktown colliery were notified yesterday that General Superintendent Lathrop would meet them during the day, but word arrived later that he could not be present. He will likely meet the Jeannette and Yorktown committee to-day or to-morrow. The grievance committee waited patiently for an answer all day yesterday but failed to receive any. It is possible that the officials are arranging a scale of wages to present.

The Cross Creek Coal Company, at Beaver Meadow, in anticipation of trouble from the strikers on their operations, have posted notices that trespassing on their private roads is prohibited. A copy of Sheriff Setzer's proclamation is put up with the notices. The officials have taken precaution against a strike of their men, particularly stripping hands, and many of them have advanced 10 per cent. in their daily wages. There is no dissatisfaction existing among these employees, and the prospects of a strike among them is decidedly remote. All receive their pay semi-monthly, and as they have no company store or butcher to deal with, they seem to be contented with their lot.

At 2:45 yesterday afternoon a mob of Italians and Hungarians gathered at Ebervale, and dispersed when the deputies arrived without injury to any of the men. John Scott, the superintendent, made this statement: "I was engaged in making out the pay roll, when I heard the steam shovel whistle blowing, and a moment later, I found about a dozen of the mob at my office door. Several of them tried their best to strike me with their clubs. One of the leaders informed me that it was their desire that I draw the fire at once. I complied with this request would not be informed with, and when they again attempted to beat me, I drew my revolver. I had scarcely done so before three revolvers were placed against my chest and I was dared to shoot. About this time the real leather appeared and said they intended to win the strike if they had to use the revolver in the end. While this conversation was in progress I instructed the clerks to close the office shutters, but this had scarcely been accomplished when the mob arrived. They at once began to bombard the place and succeeded in breaking the shutters and smashing every window in the building."

STACK-MULDOON.

A Popular Couple Joined in Wedlock This Morning.

The Annunciation church on West Cherry street was the scene of a pretty marriage ceremony this morning, at eight o'clock. The principals were Miss Mary A. Stack, until recently a teacher in our public schools, and Henry J. Muldoon, ex-School Director and proprietor of the well known hardware on West Centre street. Both are very popular and have the well wishes of a very large circle of friends. Notwithstanding the desire and efforts of the couple to avoid ostentation in connection with the ceremony and arrangements, their many friends gathered at their respective residences long before the hour for the ceremony. A large crowd followed the handsome closed carriage which O'Hara Brothers placed at the disposal of the couple; and when the church was reached it was thronged with friends. Miss Katharine O'Mally, of town, was the bridesmaid and Edward O'Mally, of Semanton, groomsmen. Mass was celebrated by Rev. James Kane and Rev. H.F. O'Reilly officiated at the tying of the nuptial knot. The wedding march was played by Miss Mollie O'Mally, of Semanton. After the ceremony the bridal party went to the residence of the bride's parents, on East Centre street, and at 10:15 Mr. Muldoon and his bride left on a Lehigh Valley train for New York City, where they intend spending a week enjoying the attractions of the metropolis. Upon their return they will occupy a handsomely furnished home which the bridegroom has prepared, adjoining his place of business. The friends of the bride and groom were attending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Muldoon.

Fruit jars were never so cheap as they are now at Swain's hardware store. p-8-17

Ritter Declines to Accept. Williamsport, Pa., Sept. 8.—Walter E. Ritter, of this city, has declined to accept the nomination for auditor general at the Democratic state convention. He made this announcement yesterday. This decision was arrived at after a thorough consideration of the matter and consultation with his friends throughout the state.

Condemned Murderer Respected. Harrisburg, Sept. 8.—Governor Hastings granted a respite yesterday afternoon for 60 days to Theodore Kinsler, of Pottsville, who was to have been hanged Oct. 7. The governor's action is taken at the request of Congressman Charles N. Brumm, of Schuylkill, who has made application to the board of pardons for a commutation of sentence to life imprisonment.

Three Special Bargains. Five hundred pairs good white or grey blankets will be sold at the August sale price of 30 cents per pair. One thousand yards Klondike double naped flannels, worth 10 cents, now 8 cents. Two thousand yards grey wool flannels worth 15 cents, now 10 cents. L. J. WILKINSON, Cor. Main and Lloyd Sts. p-8-17

Fence Erected. The new school house on North White street now presents an imposing appearance. After many improvements during the past year the finishing touches were administered to-day, when the last picket of the iron fence was put in position. The fence is of a beautiful design, several feet in height, and the entrance to the yard is graced by two heavy posts of a square figure. It is the work of A. L. Graf, the screen and iron fence manufacturer, and reflects great credit upon him.

Cause of the Delay. The delay caused in turning on the water supply this morning was due to a valve stem on the main line breaking. Ask your grocer for the "Royal Patent" flour, and take no other brand. It is the best flour made.

PROMINENT CITIZEN DIES

Death of Ex-Councilman E. F. Gallagher From Typhoid Fever.

HE HAD BEEN ILL BUT A WEEK.

The Deceased Was Very Popular and By His Death the Borough Loses One of Its Most Active and Useful Citizens—Served Three Years on Council.

Edward F. Gallagher died at his home on South Jardin street at one o'clock this morning from an attack of typhoid fever. He had been confined to bed only since Tuesday last. The deceased was 37 years of age, and survived by his wife and four children, ranging from one to seven years of age. The announcement of the death was received with great surprise and greater regret. In Mr. Gallagher's death the borough loses one of its most active and popular citizens, one who always gave his labor and advice to its interests, regardless of party affiliations and for three years, as a member of the Borough Council, devoted much time to its affairs, and frequently at the sacrifice of personal interests. He was one of the comparatively few men in public life who had the moral courage to take a stand in accordance with the dictates of his best judgment and conscience, regardless of individual preference and outside pressure. This trait in his character won him many friends in all circles and his excellent judgment and extended experience in connection with the public water works made him a great service to that department, which continued after his term as Councilman expired and up to the time he contracted the fatal illness. Mr. Gallagher was a member of the Borough Council during the years 1892, 1893 and 1894, representing the Fifth ward. Upon the close of his term he moved into the Third ward.

The deceased was born in Rahm township and when he attained the age of ten years his parents moved to Summit Hill. He continued to reside there until about fifteen years ago, when he moved to town, engaging in the plumbing and gas fitting business, which he continued up to the last week of his life. Mr. Gallagher married Miss McGilvray, daughter of Thomas P. McGilvray, of town. By the death of Mr. Gallagher the Master Plumber's Association, Phoenix Fire Company and Knights of Annunciation of town lose one of their most popular and zealous members and each organization will keenly regret his death.

Arrangements have been made to hold the funeral on Saturday morning. High mass will be celebrated at the Annunciation church and the remains will be interred in the Annunciation cemetery.

JOE KEISER CAUGHT.

The Shenandoah Shell Game Man Arrested at Nashville, Tenn.

Chief of Police Tooh yesterday afternoon received a telegram from the Chief of Police at Nashville, Tenn., stating that Joe Keiser, the shell game man of town, was under arrest at that place. Keiser had been a fugitive from this county since May 4th, last, and owing to his popularity and business success in the United States, including Baltimore, Md., and Bay City, Michigan, Keiser is not wanted at Nashville, but is under arrest there pending requisition proceedings to bring him to town. It is quite likely that he will be brought here by next Saturday, and then taken to Pottsville, where he will remain in jail until he can be removed to his home settlement with the people who are prosecuting him.

A year ago last June Pottsville's citizens gave an exhibition at Pottsville and Keiser and a gang operated a shell game on the road leading to the grounds. Among the victims was a man named Schultz, of Pottsville. It is alleged that the victim refused to pay up when he lost and that Keiser held him while twenty dollars was taken from the man. A charge of assault and highway robbery was lodged against Keiser, but he skipped from Pottsville before the warrant could be served. A few weeks later he was arrested at Hazleton and a friend paid $1,500 bail at Pottsville. Keiser succeeded in getting the case postponed several times. It looked as if the trial would have to proceed in the May term and on the 4th of that month Keiser skipped, leaving his bondsman in the lurch. The latter was not dissatisfied with the result. He was not dissatisfied to forfeit $1,500 without an effort to make his man toe the scratch, however, and steps were taken to run Keiser down. An old photograph of the man was secured and duplicates forwarded to several police and detective headquarters in the United States. Once Keiser was tracked to Baltimore, but the clue failed. A few weeks ago Detective Amour went to Michigan and Keiser was traced to Bay City, but he disappeared to the lumber region. Keiser was posted by one of his gang and left Michigan. He then sought peace and safety in the South. He arrived at Nashville yesterday and was in the city but a few hours when one of the detectives of the place, recognizing the crook through the aid of one of the photographs sent out from here, effected an arrest.

Water to be Shut Off. Notice is hereby given to water consumers of the Borough water works that beginning with September 7th the water will be shut off at 7 p. m. and turned on again at 6:30 a. m. This schedule will continue until further notice.

A. D. GARLE, Chairman Water Committee.

Reeder and Eikin to Resign. HARRISBURG, Sept. 8.—Close friends of General Frank Reeder, Secretary of the Commonwealth, and loyal supporter of Senator Quay, admit that he contemplates resigning his important and remunerative office. If he does Deputy Attorney General Eikin, chairman of the State Republican Committee, will also undoubtedly relinquish his state post office. Their confederates with Governor Hastings yesterday held a caucus to remove to this effect, for neither the Governor nor the two members of his Cabinet named would deny the rumors. It is also said David Martin will succeed Reeder, by the Governor's appointment.

Notice to Delinquents. Notice is hereby given that the delinquent taxpayers for 1896 must make settlement at once, or they will be proceeded against according to law. M. J. SCANLAN, Receiver of Taxes.

GUBERNATORIAL BOOMS.

At the Convention of Pennsylvania Republican Leaguers.

Williamsport, Pa., Sept. 8.—The State League of Republican clubs holds its annual convention here today. The greatest interest centers in the various gubernatorial booms. In compliance with the recently expressed wishes of Attorney General McCormick, whose home is in this city, his friends do not propose to be demonstrative with his gubernatorial boom. There are some shouters here for the booms of ex-Mayor Stuart and P. A. H. Widener, of Philadelphia, Congressman William Conrad of Scranton, ex-Congressman John Leisenring of Luzerne and Congressman William A. Stone of Allegheny. Senator S. J. M. McCarroll, of Harrisburg, president pro tem. of the senate, is on hand to push his campaign for lieutenant governor.

The executive committee met and appointed an auditing committee consisting of J. D. Little, of Pittsburg, Howard Lyon of Williamsport and C. E. Schermershorn of Philadelphia. It was decided to change the selection of executive committees from senatorial districts to the counties with the exception of Allegheny and Philadelphia, and to have a league committee of five in each county. George I. Rudolph, of Allegheny, will introduce in the convention radical resolutions in opposition to civil service reform as at present administered. He will be supported by Thomas G. Sample and William T. Bradbury, of Allegheny, and many Philadelphians. There will be no opposition to the re-election of President Isadore Sobel of Erie, Treasurer Mahlon H. Young of Philadelphia and Secretary C. F. Harris of Pittsburg. Wilkestraw, Lebanon and Pittsburg are making a bid for the next convention, with the chances in favor of Lebanon.

Netelwender's, Cor. Main and Coal Sts. Grand Army bean soup, free, to-night. Hot lunch to-morrow morning. Meals served at all hours.

Obituary. E. B. Ayres, proprietor of the big stores at Treaskow, Audenried and Kelyras, died at Monday afternoon. For almost a score of years he has operated the Treaskow and Audenried stores and about ten years ago established the Kelyras store, and through his superior system of management and wise election of assistants soon had an extensive trade.

The many friends of Mrs. Annie E. Shields, widow of the late David Shields, who is survived by two children, George, Thomas and Martin, and Mrs. Mary Burnett, of town, and Mrs. Josiah Stauffer, of Ringtown. The funeral will take place Friday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, from the late residence, and interment will be made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

At Kepelinski's Arcade Cafe. Vegetable soup, free, to-night. Hot lunch to-morrow morning.

Hi Henry's Big Minstrels. The present season finds this able manager in the field with one of the largest, strongest, most expensive minstrel attraction of the day. The leading journals of New York city, where they have recently appeared, endorse Mr. Henry and his attractions in terms that cannot be misunderstood. They pronounce his attraction one of the brightest, most elegant, pleasing, refined and varied in their first part and for every part of their refined program, and their large solo orchestra provides all that can be desired in the way of capital music. This attraction will appear at Ferguson's theatre on September 11th. Admissions have been placed at the remarkably low figures, 15, 25, 35 and 50 cents, and seats can be had at Kirtle's drug store. Go and see them; you will not regret it.

Baker's Cafe. Our free lunch to-night will consist of oyster soup, Boston baked beans and pork to-morrow morning.

For Murder of his Father. BLOOMSBURG, Pa., Sept. 8.—Columbia county will have an interesting murder trial this month, when Stephen Menninger, a young man of Beaver Valley, will be called upon to answer the charge of patricide. It is the first case of the kind in the history of the local courts. This fact, in connection with the mystery which surrounds the case, serves to make it the object of wide attention. Young Menninger is but 21 years of age. He lived with his father, Daniel Menninger, in a little story-and-a-half shanty near the Beaver Valley station. For some time previous to March 4, the day when the old man is supposed to have been killed, father and son frequently disagreed.

Kendrick House Free Lunch. Grand Army bean soup will be served, free, to all patrons to-night.

A Serious Blow. George Kramer and James Delaney, of Leont Gap, became involved in a quarrel, on account of an old grudge, so it is alleged, and Kramer hit Delaney over the head with a large club. The latter did not regain consciousness for twelve hours and is suffering from a concussion of the brain and it is feared that the blow may prove serious. Kramer is under arrest.

COLUMBUS CONVENTION I

The Pittsburg District Delegates Go Uninstructed.

SECESSION IS NOT IMPROBABLE I

President Dolan, of the Pittsburg District, Believes His Followers Have Been Discriminated Against, and Will Fight For the Compromise Rate.

Pittsburg, Sept. 8.—The convention of mine workers yesterday to select delegates to the Columbus convention, which opens at noon today, was one of the largest ever held, and probably has not been before equaled in excitement and importance. Although the rank and file of the delegates seemed imbued with the idea that the operators were ready to throw up their hands and pay the 89 cent rate demanded by the strikers President Dolan kept them drawn in and intimated that there will be a secession from the national organization by the Pittsburg district. Dolan will use every endeavor to bring the convention in line for the acceptance of the compromise rate. Many delegates from other states, notably Illinois and Ohio, will go into the convention with a determination to hang out for the 69 cent rate, in spite of the wish of the national officials. Dolan knows this, and in order to have his own district with him he succeeded in checking off a resolution embodying the rate question by one of the most eloquent speeches ever heard in City Hall, and gained the victory he fought for.

The following delegates at large were elected: Thomas Kenny, Thomas Chaway, Paul Trimmer, Jacob Alder and Frank McKelvey. District delegates were elected as follows: Patrick Dolan, William Doells, William Miller, Henry Walker, J. W. Hindmarsh, Charles Laird, Jeremiah Lavanche, Joseph Rae, William George, William Warner, John O'Neil, Cameron Miller, John Driscoll, Peter Sample and D. C. Hino.

The delegates left last night over the Pan Handle for Columbus in the best frame of mind. Yesterday was the time set for the second presentation in court of the petition of the New York and Cleveland Gas Co. to the court to revoke the court to issue an attachment for contempt against Patrick Dolan and other mine officials. The attorneys for the prosecution failed to appear, and the hearing was postponed. The attorneys say the proceedings have not been dropped. Patrick Dolan's petition will be presented they could not say. The striking miners who were encamped at Irwin left for their homes yesterday and abandoned their camps. The strikers said they were satisfied to take 69 cents, and will go to work, with the men of the Westmoreland and Pennsylvania Gas Co. coal company and at work yesterday.

At Hermitine the miners are actually on the point of starvation. They were receiving 69 cents, and voted to remain at work, but the strikers from the five marched to Hermitine and persuaded the men to go out. The Hermitine wind-White company last night closed down their mines, fenced in the pits and shipped their mules to Clearfield. The miners are now out of work and out of money, and the condition is serious. They have begged the company to open the mines and let them return to work at the old price, but the company has not yet signified its intention of granting the request.

About the same condition exists at shaft No. 4, at Sewickley. The men there were receiving 69 cents and were satisfied. They were forced out by the river miners and the Penn company closed the mines and turned the mules out to pasture. Now the men are in want, and wish to return to work.

The Military Capital Commission, Harrisburg, Sept. 8.—The capital commission held a short session yesterday afternoon to consider the selection of designs for a new state house. It was finally decided to adjourn until tomorrow afternoon, and in the meanwhile the experts will go over the plans of the Philadelphia firm and that of Harding & Gossch, of New York, and prepare a report to the commission as to the matter used in making the drawing and other technicalities. The prospects are that at its next meeting the commission will either select one of the plans recommended by the experts or reject the experts' report and agree upon an architect who shall make a plan to meet the wishes of a majority of the commissioners.

John L. Sullivan's Platform. John L. Sullivan, the ex-champion prize fighter, who was in this region a few weeks ago umpiring ball games, is now a full-fledged candidate for Mayor of the cultured city of Boston. John is stumping the city on an original platform. He says: "If I am ever Mayor of Boston my motto will be, 'Feed the poor right. Give the under-dog a chance. Tax the man that can afford to pay. Help the poor woman and girls that will be mothers of the next crop of citizens. Save the thieves. Do everything in the open.'"
