PERSONAL MENTION.

James Williams, of Iowa, transacted business in Lansford today. Robert Blasing returned yesterday afternoon from a prosperous commercial trip through the West and South. Mr. and Mrs. William Davis, of Malvern, were visitors to town last evening. They were on their way to Northumberland to visit friends. Mrs. T. D. Davies, of North Jordan street, this morning received a telegram announcing the death of her niece, Mrs. Mary Herbert, at Columbus, Ohio, and left for that place this afternoon to attend the funeral. Miss Beckie Siegel, of Reading, who has been spending a short time here with Miss Gertrude Yost, left town yesterday for Dunmore, to spend the remainder of her vacation at the guest of Miss Ruby Yost, formerly of town.

John Baird, of Brownsville, left town yesterday to visit his brother, Dr. William Baird, a prosperous physician at McKeesport, Pa., and also his brother, Thomas, who has a lucrative position at Mt. Pleasant, Pa.

Thespians Leave.

"We may as well be first as last," is what Tommy Waters remarked when he left town to take the viascope on the road, with the intention of organizing a theatrical troupe. He has met with success since his departure from here two weeks ago and is now playing at Mechanicsburg, Dauphin county. Last night he telegraphed to town and summoned to his fold Miss Lida Carter, and "Jack" Jenkins and his sister, Lida, who left for that place this morning. In connection with the viascope production of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight specialty acts will be added. The entire company is now composed of some talent and includes those mentioned above with Messrs. Tommy Waters, Harry Crum, Thomas Tempest, Felix McMenamin and John McDonald, the clever little buck and wing dancer.

Malvernville Comedimanic Trouble.

There is considerable trouble at present among the Comedimanic at Malvernville. It appears that the contract for the new borough building had been awarded to Adolf Timm, of Mahanoy City. Timm's bond not being iron-clad his contract was withdrawn and awarded to William Glenn, of town. Later on the majority of the building committee convened and awarded the contract to Snyder & Maurer, of Ashland, on the ground that the Glenn contract was illegal, because it was decided at a special meeting not called for that purpose. The bid of Snyder & Maurer is $215 less than Glenn's. The latter has begun work on the erection of the building and the committee now threatens to issue an injunction against its construction.

From John S. Zehner and wife to George B. Adnan, premises in West Penn township.

15,000 baskets of Juniata county peaches will arrive in small lots every morning at Womer's, 124 North Main street.

Marriage Licenses.

Irvin J. Schaffer and Emma L. Rex, both of West Penn township.

Peter Bobbin and Victoria Leucavage, both of Mahanoy City.

Charles E. Stutzman, of Hubley township, and Ellen Morgan, of Hegins township.

Water to be Shut Off. Notice is hereby given to water consumers of the Borough water works that beginning with September 7th the water will be shut off at 7 p. m. and turned on again at 6:30 a. m. This schedule will continue until further notice.

A. D. GABLE, Chairman Water Committee.

Unknown Identified.

The body of the unknown man injured by falling over a wall at Mt. Carbon early Sunday morning and who died Sunday night at the Shenandoah hospital, was yesterday identified by a sister as Lawrence Kelley, of Minersville. The remains were sent to his former home.

H. Henry's Great Minstrel Band.

Hours of soul-stirring music and elegant display, with the streets at night to-morrow and you will witness the swell parade of H. Henry's New Colonial Minstrel Aggregation, fifty in number, and you will hear the largest, finest military band ever connected with a minstrel organization. Their music is written purposely for them, so you will hear nothing but the best ever heard or will ever be again drummed to death upon our streets; elegant gold-trimmed band instruments, gold-trimmed drama, solid gold canes, elegant taily-be dress, and the flash of diamonds with the scintillations of the burnished instruments will feast the eye while the most stirring music ever offered by a minstrel organization will remind you that they play at Ferguson's theatre in the evening and that they present a program which has everywhere received the highest compliments as being foremost in the minstrel line. Elegant costumes, elaborate scenery, the beautiful story of the night, with sayings, infectious laughter, artistic solo with H. Henry will round out a program that has everywhere received the highest favor. Their admissions are at the astonishing low figures, 15, 25, 35 and 50 cents, and none need stay away.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will run its last one-day excursion to Atlantic City on Sunday next, September 12. No change of cars. Special train leaves Shenandoah at 4:25 a. m., running through to Atlantic City via the Delaware River Bridge. No street cars. No ferries.

Scottish Horse.

This morning, as a funeral cortege was winding its way toward the Lithuanian cemetery a horse attached to a buggy in the line became frisky at the corner of Main and Centre streets and caused some excitement. He broke away from the line of other teams and collided with a team coming in the opposite direction. The collision snapped the rear axle of the buggy in half. The driver was pluckily endeavoring to bring the horse under control and succeeded when the horse ran into the gutter at Smith's safe.

The Chemical Out of Service.

The new chemical engine purchased by the Hummer Fire Company, of Pottsville, has been taken out of service, because of the unfavorable report made to Council by the fire apparatus committee and the refusal of the Council to accept the new engine. The chemical was purchased and paid for by the company, at no expense to the Council, and the members of the company consider the action shabby treatment. As a result the engine was taken out of service.

Controller and Constables.

Controller Lloyd, of Luzerne county, refuses to pay the constables of the county for making their returns, though the constables claim that a recent law, passed by the legislature, entitles them to the fees. A test case may be instituted within a short time.

SPEAKER NEED ON GOOD TIMES.

The Big Man From Maine Presents His Views of Prosperity From the Republican Standpoint.

William Jennings Bryan, the champion of the silver cause, stated in last Sunday's Press the views of the Silver Party on WHEAT, THE RETURN OF PROSPERITY AND ITS EFFECT ON SILVER. This was most important, as being the first statement from that point of view since good times have returned.

In next Sunday's Press exclusively, there will appear a great article by Speaker Thomas H. Hood treating of these questions from the standpoint of the Republican party. This will be one of the greatest articles of the year, and everyone will be interested in reading what the great man from Maine has to say.

This article will appear only in next Sunday's Press and so one can afford to miss it. Order your newspaper to save it for you at once.
