Miss Sterner Received.

After a pleasant stay of several weeks at South Bethlehem and other points of interest in the picturesque Lehigh Valley, Miss Sadie Sterner returned to town on Saturday evening. Upon her arrival at her residence, on West Line street, she was confronted by a large number of friends who were waiting to tender her a surprise on her return. Many of the guests present displayed their abilities as musical and vocal artists. A luncheon was also served. Among those present were: Misses Emma Eisenbawer, Sadie Sterner, Emma Rock, Lottie Lambert, Hattie Cappon, Minnie Davis, Anna Bartsch, Marie Bees, Lillie Selinger, Frankville; Messrs. John Charles, Edward Danka, Alfred Millchapp, Isaac Griffiths, Grant Sterner, Thomas Millchapp, Clarence Hower, Harry Master, William Butler, William Rowland, Mr. Huffay, of Sycamore, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sterner.

A Beautiful Service.

A most beautiful service was held in the Trinity Reformed church yesterday morning and evening. The occasion was the annual Harvest Home service, celebrated during September throughout the entire Reformed church. It is a church Thanksgiving Day. This is what the people did yesterday. A luncheon was held at the church. The main altar, chancel and pulpit were beautifully and tastefully decorated with fruit, choice cut flowers and plants. A large pyramid consisting of all kinds of fruit stood along the side of the pulpit. The services were inspiring and elevating throughout. The church was crowded to the doors at the evening service. Many people of other churches, after their services, went to see and admire the beautiful decorations.

Hi Henry's Minstrel occupied the boards at Ferguson's theatre Saturday night and highly pleased a good sized audience. The performance was clean cut minstrelsy of an up-to-date order and the company certainly has no superior as a musical organization on the road. Arthur Denning, the monologist, made a great hit with one of his topical songs in which he has incorporated a verse on the shooting of strikers at Hazleton. The closing farce, based on the Klondike rush, is one of the amusing up-to-date features of the show.

QUIET AT HAZLETON.

Funeral of Ten Victims Took Place This Morning.

FOUR THOUSAND MEN ATTEND!

No Disturbances Marred the Ceremonies and No Trouble is Anticipated To-morrow, According to Late Dispatches Received To-day.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

HAZLETON, Sept. 13, 3 p. m.—Everything continues quiet here. There is not the slightest indication of any more trouble and people who anticipated trouble to-day are satisfied that peace has been restored.

The funeral of ten of the dead strikers took place this morning, proceeding from the respective residences at Hazleton to the Polish church on Carson street, where Rev. Aust read mass. The funeral procession was the largest ever known in the history of the coal regions. Fully 4,000 men were in attendance. There was not the slightest disturbance other than that necessarily attending the moving of such a throng. No trouble is anticipated for to-morrow.

THE SCALE OF WAGES.

General Supt. Lawall, of the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre, met the men on the South Side on Saturday and agreed upon an advance in wages that is satisfactory to the committee and through the committee to the employees, who will return to work Tuesday morning provided the strikers at the other collieries want them to resume. If the latter demand that they remain out, they may do so out of sympathy though not rejecting the proposition of the company.

Following is the new scale of wages as agreed upon by Supt. Lawall: Stripping and outside laborers, $1.10 per day; drivers, 1st. class, $1.35, 2nd. class, $1.30, 3rd. class, $1.20; Hitters, 1st. class, $1.15, 2nd. class, $1.10; water boys, 75 cents; slate pickers 40 cents to $1; platform men $1.25; footmen at breakers, $1.25; stripping miners, 1st. class, $1.30, 2nd. class, $1.25; inside rate on Lehigh region basis: stripping engineers $1.47 to $1.35; hauling engineers, $1.47 shall be the lowest class; and agree to adjust all difficulties as speedily as possible.

A SOLDIER HELD UP.

One of the soldiers camping at Beaver Brook was held up on the highway at McAdoo last evening. He was relieved of his revolver, $15 in cash and all his ammunition.

CAUSE OF THE TROUBLE.

The cause of all the trouble dates back nearly six weeks ago when the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre employees first went out. At that time the company promised to adjust the matter if the men would return to work. The men accepted the terms but when the time came for an adjustment the company failed to keep their word. This immediately precipitated another strike which ended in murder last Friday. Had Superintendent Lawall and his company done two weeks ago what they did on Saturday there would have been no murder committed and all miners would now be at work.

MR. FAIRY INTERVIEWED.

President Fahey, of the United Mine Workers Association, to-day gave out the following interview, as the best means of avoiding further trouble: "In my opinion, if the proper thing were done, operators and miners throughout this entire district would come together and agree upon a uniform scale of wages and conditions of employment to govern all alike. It seems to me that if this were done it would give more general satisfaction and go further toward preventing discontent between employer and employee, than can possibly be expected from not doing this. I believe, too, that something of this kind would be fair to all concerned, employer as well as employee. In this district natural advantages and disadvantages in the production of coal are practically the same to all, therefore it seems that no employer in the district should have an advantage over another employer when paying wages to or imposing conditions on employees for performing the same grades of work. I fail to see where any person could in fairness object to bringing about a condition such as this, that would in its operation in this region treat all alike and give neither an advantage over the other. At this time I know of nothing else that is better calculated to promote and continue a healthy feeling of satisfaction and contentment between the employers and employees of this district."

The Hungarians employed at Lattimer, enraged at the killing of their countrymen, have decided to remain out until they are granted an advance. Thus Lattimer is added to the towns on the strike list.

OPERATORS CONFEE.

All the principal operators are in attendance at a conference this afternoon at Bethlehem with a view to bringing about a settlement. They will endeavor to agree upon a rate of uniform wages, the adoption of which will mean the general resumption of work at a rate which they believe will prove satisfactory.

STORIES OF STRIKERS.

Versions Given By Some as to the Fatal Shooting at Lattimer.

HAZLETON, Pa., Sept. 13.—The situation here today is graver than it has been at any time since the bloody affray of Friday afternoon. There is strong reason to fear a conflict between the strikers and the military, and there is an indication that from 5,000 to 7,000 more miners will join the malcontents. Feeling continues high against Sheriff Martin and his deputies, and the intensity of the situation is such that a sudden turn of the head or a word spoken above the ordinary tone brings a running crowd. The soldiers are watchful and ready for any emergency, and the people of the town are in a state which may easily become panic.

An incident of ugly emotion occurred during the funeral of three of the victims yesterday. While services were being held inside St. Joseph's church about 2,000 of the foreigners were congregated about the doors. A number of them raised their voices, and it is declared by eye witnesses that a policeman stationed near the door became unofficious. Instantly an ominous muttering, mingled with howling looks and clenched fists, followed. Word was immediately carried indoors to the Rev. Father Aust. He hurried out to the door and banded the men who seemed most quarrelsome into the church. A few words of counsel to the others prevented further demonstrations.

The military authorities are determined that from this time on there shall be no marching of any character whatsoever, whether during funerals or otherwise. This resolution is not generally known, and the miners are going on with their arrangements for funeral marches. It is apparent that General Gobin is not cheered by the immediate outlook. Although he says he thinks there will be no further turbulence, he would not say when the troops are likely to be withdrawn, and he has resolved to act with the utmost rigidity.

Furthermore he made a revelation which put a startling aspect upon the situation. This was that the house of the engineer of No. 3 colliery had been broken into late Saturday night by six masked men, and the engineer, who is a cripple, unmercifully beaten. There is no clue to the identity of the assailants. The only work the man has been doing lately is the pumping necessary to free the mine from water. The general had also received a formal report of the Audenried outrage of last Thursday night, when strikers broke into the house of the engineer, stole therefrom a quantity of dynamite. As soon as he heard of this General Gobin assigned a guard of the Thirtieth regiment to remain at Audenried.

The addition to the strikers' ranks, if made, will be the men at Cox's mines, who would then go out to last big anthracite company in the region will be idle. It was not known until yesterday that the 2,000 men employed at Colliery No. 1 held a meeting at Stockton Saturday night and drew up a petition to the operators demanding an increase of 10 per cent. The action in the event of refusal is "strike." It is accepted as a fact that if these men go out all the others employed by the company will join them, making the total number something between 5,000 and 7,000 from these mines alone. The Coxes men had already been offered an increase, but rejected it on the ground that it was still lower than the scale paid by the other operators in the region.

To all intent and purposes Hazleton is under martial law. General Gobin declared last night that, in spite of the warrants issued, no constabulary nor any civil authority will be permitted to arrest the hated deputies. He said that the sheriff is an executive officer whose duty is to preserve the peace, and that he, Gobin, and the troops are really subordinate to the sheriff at this time, being engaged in helping him to perform that duty. Under these circumstances he will not permit interference with the sheriff's officials so long as the militia is here. In spite of this fine distinction, the commander's decision on this point is accepted as superseding the civil authorities by the military power.

The events of yesterday were the death of another of the wounded, Jacob Tomashantz, the 13-year-old boy who was shot through the head, and the announcement by the hospital doctors that five more will die, and the funeral of four of the victims. These were Andrew Yarek, Stephen Ulrich, John Futa and Mike Cheslok. Ten more will be buried today, and here the trouble is likely to occur. It has been arranged that the ten coffins shall be carried on the shoulders of the strikers from the undertaker's shop to the front of St. Joseph's church. In front of the church a platform is to be erected, upon which it is the purpose to place the ten coffins, so that they may be viewed by the crowd.

Then addresses in Polish, Lithuanian and English are to be made by priests and others. The bodies will then be carried inside and posthumous high mass will be celebrated. After the services the procession will go to the Polish cemetery, where eight of the coffins, those containing Poles, will be placed in one large grave. It is the purpose to acquire by subscription sufficient funds to erect over this a monument bearing the names of the victims and a brief history of the event. Seventeen collieries, all but one made up of Poles, Hungarians and others of the Slav race, and one of Irish, are to march in the funeral procession. If General Gobin executes the intention he announced last night this whole program will be upset, and it is feared that the men will resort any interference with the disposition of their dead.

Dr. H. P. Lewandowski, of New York, representing the Polish societies of that city, arrived here yesterday. He is empowered to assist the strikers in every possible way. He said he had received word that a check for $1,500 from the National Polish Alliance, which recently met in Philadelphia, has been

OFFER MORAL AND FINANCIAL AID

In Prosecuting Sheriff Martin and His Deputies.

SYMPATHIZERS IN CONVENTION!

The Lithuanian Church Was Packed Last Night and Addresses Were Made by Clergymen and Others Condemning the Awful Massacre at Lattimer.

Eighteen hundred or two thousand Lithuanians, Poles, Greeks and Hungarians assembled in the vast basement of St. George's Lithuanian Roman Catholic church on South Jardin street last night to take action condemning Sheriff Martin, of Luzerne county, and his posse for the killing and wounding of strikers at Lattimer last Friday, tendering sympathy to the wounded and families of the killed and pledging moral and financial aid in the prosecution of the Sheriff and his posse.

The committee in charge of the meeting were Messrs. Charles Radziewicz, Harry Savulsky, Michael Makarowicz and M. M. Burke, Esq., who was called to the meeting by a committee, Rev. Peter Abelskites, pastor of the Lithuanian church, presided at the meeting and Mr. Burke was the first speaker, dwelling upon the legal aspects of the case as they presented themselves to him from the reports of the terrible occurrence. In closing Mr. Burke tendered his services, in cooperation with the Luzerne county officials, in the prosecution of Sheriff Martin and his deputies, free of charge, and the meeting extended the speaker a vote of thanks for the offer. Resolutions were then offered and read. Rev. Mikulas, curate of the Lithuanian church, spoke upon them when he concluded his remarks the resolutions were unanimously adopted. They were as follows:

WHEREAS, We have learned, with profoundest sorrow, that on Friday, last, Sheriff Martin, of Luzerne county, and his deputies, in cooperation with the Luzerne county officials, in the prosecution of Sheriff Martin and his deputies, free of charge, and the meeting extended the speaker a vote of thanks for the offer. Resolutions were then offered and read. Rev. Mikulas, curate of the Lithuanian church, spoke upon them when he concluded his remarks the resolutions were unanimously adopted. They were as follows:

Resolved, That we, the Lithuanian, Russian, Greek and Hungarian citizens of the borough of Shenandoah, in public meeting assembled, do hereby express our condemnation of the cowardly, unchristian, unlawful and barbarous conduct of Sheriff Martin and his posse in summarily shooting down, without just provocation, unarmed and unoffending citizens peaceably assembled in the exercise of their lawful rights, and we solemnly guarantee them by the fundamental law of the land:

Resolved, That we, the Lithuanian, Russian, Greek and Hungarian citizens of the borough of Shenandoah, in public meeting assembled, do hereby express our condemnation of the cowardly, unchristian, unlawful and barbarous conduct of Sheriff Martin and his posse in summarily shooting down, without just provocation, unarmed and unoffending citizens peaceably assembled in the exercise of their lawful rights, and we solemnly guarantee them by the fundamental law of the land:

Resolved, That we heartily condemn the unchristian and unchristianlike conduct of those in authority at all times exercise their official power in suppressing every effort of the sons of toil to assert and maintain their God-given and legal rights, and we condemn the cowardly and un-American sentimentality displayed in certain quarters towards the citizens of foreign birth.

Resolved, That we extend the families and families of the victims of Sheriff Martin and his posse our deepest sympathy and assurance of our moral and financial support in their hour of sorrow.

Resolved, That we take steps to aid the authorities of Luzerne county in invoking and enforcing the penalty of the law against Sheriff Martin and his deputies.

Rev. Cornelius Lanes, pastor of the Greek Catholic church, was the next speaker and was followed by Pius W. Blustein and Michael Makarowicz. For some reason the assembly was not disposed to pay strict attention to the former and after a series of interruptions on the part of the crowd Mr. Blustein was obliged to give way to Mr. Makarowicz. One of the leaders in the meeting subsequently stated that Mr. Blustein attempted to inject political sentiments in his remarks and the assembly was not disposed to listen to his arguments on that line.

Charles Radziewicz was the next speaker and addressed the meeting at length in both the Polish and Lithuanian languages in a manner that brought forth loud applause.

Just before an adjournment was taken Pius Kucorcia, of Jersey City, made a lengthy address which was pronounced by one of the Lithuanian auditors as "good for the workmen."

A committee was appointed to solicit financial aid for the prosecution of Sheriff Martin and his deputies.

It was also decided at the meeting that special high mass of requiem would be held at 10 o'clock this morning in St. George's Lithuanian and Greek Catholic churches of town for the repose of the souls of the Lattimer victims.

A report gained circulation yesterday that a meeting was held in town Saturday night, looking to an extension of the Hazleton strike to this region. A HERALD reporter learned from what appeared to be an authentic source yesterday that there was a meeting in a Lithuanian saloon on South Main street, between Cherry and Poplar streets, at which a female labor agitator from Hazleton was in attendance. The information stated that plans were initiated for an extension of the strike to the Lehigh Valley Coal Company's collieries in this part of the region this week. The HERALD's reporter called upon the proprietor of the saloon, who denied any knowledge of the alleged plans. He admitted, however, that there was a large gathering at his place Saturday night and that the situation at Hazleton was freely discussed. He also admitted that a woman from Hazleton was present and took part in the discussion. When asked, concerning her whereabouts he stated that she had returned to Hazleton yesterday morning. He said the woman was a good speaker.
