THE BASKET.

The basket was made of willow work,
Made rough, but very strong.
With a top to hide wint was put inside
And a handle to take it along.
A man came by the market place.
He was a good man and true.
Re bought the basket, and, filling it up,
Said, 'I've put all I could in you.'

It was only a basics of medium size,

At was anny a tention of medium size,
But it carried that man so high,
After 'twas left at a widow's door,
That it bare him above the sky,
Up and up to heaven's bright gate,
Which the angel opened wide,
And the basicst as filled for the hungry poor Landed him safe inside.

Our feeling is that the new tariff law starts into operation under more favorable circumstances than have characterized any of its preducessors during the present generation. It amounts almost to a conviction in our mind that the country has entered upon ane of the most prosperous periods in its history. The liquidation of four years has formished a solid groundwork for a new prosperity, and it looks as if a great rush for our agricultural products and an extraordinary increase during the next year, constitute a tlood tide, the like of which has seldom beer witnessed on this side of the Atlantic,-

PITTSBURG DISTRICT MINERS.

Strong Opposition to Remaining Lille Ten Days Longer.

Pittsburg, Sept. 13.—The Pittsburg district coal operators believe that this week will had many nones in this re-gion in full operation, and to further this belief the majority of the mine owners have announced that their pits will be opened at once, in residiness for all of their men who may wish to an of their men who may wen to ignere the ten day provise of the Co-lumbus settlement. It is believed that many of the strikers will take ad-vantage of the opportunity. Secretary Warner, of the miners as-sociation, however, says the Columbus agreement will be strictly adhered to.

It is not believed, though, that the off cials of the district will raise their hands to stop the men from going to work immediately. A district conven-tion or influers has been called for Wed-nesday morning, at which "matters of vital importance are to be discussed." The convention is presumably called to device ways and means for confinuing the fight against such firms as atill refuse to pay the district price and it is thought the advisability o breaking the ten days provision an
