Her Seditious Effort Succeeded.
 New York, Sept. 23.—Belle M. Webb, the young stenographer and typewriter who incited rioting and threw a rubber tube in a boarding house on West Fourteenth street, this city, last Sunday, died yesterday at the New York hospital. She was said to have been in love with a newspaper reporter in Philadelphia named Harris, and his suicide three weeks ago led her to destroy herself. Miss Webb's home was at South Chester, Pa. She came here last April and secured a position in a publishing house on Fifth avenue.

THE JURY STILL OUT.

settle this case?
 No, sir.
 Elected Johnson was next called and said he was a druggist of East Creek. He said he had heard of crookedness and corruption in a district for some years past. The reports were that the School Board was crooked. He heard that teachers didn't get their pay for attending institute and that contracts were given to the highest bidder. Soon was one of the parties who governed a contest against the School Directors and Tax Collector one time.
 Mr. Marr: Did you refuse to pay taxes a till the Tax Collector had you arrested?
 I did.
 You had a feeling against them then?
 Yes, sir, and long before. Everyone in West Mahanoy township knows how I stand against the School Board.
 You were the man who got up the contest and got Nott into it?
 No, sir.
 You was one of the men who instigated it? It was a party to it by being a "Square."
 Why was it you didn't pay your taxes?
 Because I had seen the expropriation list of School Directors, Township officials and boards.
 What School Director was expropriated?
 Martin McLain.
 Was it not his son?
 No.
 Did you know his name was there and his name was stricken off?
 No, sir.
 And don't you know he was illegally assessed?
 No, sir; it was not so.
 And do you swear now that Martin McLain, the School Director, was expropriated?
 I don't know that I saw Martin McLain's name on the list. We had about 323 expropriations out of 729 voters, and most of them voters were expropriated from state and county tax. There were school tax expropriations.

At this point the defense rested and Miss Rose Damm was called in rebuttal. She said there were times when David Thompson had the coal hauling contract and she didn't have coal at her school in Haven Run in this town. Thompson was a man who had been in his life to say a word against P. J. Ferguson, except politically. He was with the Ferguson party from the beginning and other parties interested in that matter. He ran against Ferguson's party. Another party went it up between them and they have been on good terms since.
 Mr. Wialen: For four years you went around attacking Ferguson?
 I never ran him down, only politically.
 And then you ran against him?
 Yes, sir.
 And then you got on good terms with him?
 Yes, sir.
 And you have been in the ring ever since?
 Yes, sir; I have been in the ring since I found it.
 You have been participating in the beneficial fund of West Mahanoy township, otherwise known as the campaign fund, is it not?
 Yes, sir. When I ran for office I did it on my own expense.
 Mr. Ferguson was recalled and denied that he made the offer of settlement testified to by O'Neill, the defendant. He also denied that he stopped the certificate of O'Neill's or anybody else's sister.
 County Superintendent G. W. Weiss was called by Mr. Marr and swore that Mr. Ferguson did not interfere with the certificate of O'Neill in Butler, or West Mahanoy township.

James A. Gallagher, principal of the West Mahanoy township school, explained the campaign fund as follows: The most active teachers in the township got together and considered among themselves that they might bear part of the election expenses and if certain directors were re-elected they would be more likely to be retained in their positions. Otherwise, several would be forced out of school. With that in view the teachers considered they would be justified in getting up a campaign fund and each teacher to contribute $10. The easiest way, it was considered, was to collect the installment orders. Several active teachers met and elected a president and treasurer. This organization was given complete control of the money contributed. Witness was treasurer one year. Last year there was no opposition. Witness has part of the money at home and the rest on deposit in his own name at the First National Bank, Shenandoah. Witness received 27 installment orders, or $270. As there was no contest last spring it was decided to hold the money for the next contest. There was no completion to give installment orders. The money was to be used to pay people who lost work to attend the polls and hire teams.
 Witness was asked the report that a School Director had paid a freight bill of $340 and an order was drawn for $340. He said he, himself, paid a freight bill for $3.35 because the invoice of the Board was too far off. When the order was filled out the secretary wrote the amount correctly on the order, but in making the figures left out the decimal point and the figure read $340. This was discovered and corrected by the auditors, but the affair gained circulation and created comment.
 Mr. Gallagher was the last witness called. John F. Wialen, Esq., summed up the case for the defendant and scored the prosecution severely, claiming the justification which he had been shown for any information which Mr. O'Neill had furnished the Miners' Journal so far as the libel suit was concerned. George J. Wadlinger summed up for the Commonwealth and maintained that the information had been furnished by O'Neill through malice and malicious libel had been established. He answered Mr. Wialen by scoring O'Neill. Counsel concluded the summing up at 6:45 and Judge Savidge announced that he would charge the jury at nine o'clock this morning.

AN AWFUL CRIME PREVENTED.
 Discharged, Farm Hand Poisoned His Former Employer's Cow and Milk.

Shamokin, Pa., Sept. 23.—Isaac Leppley, a farm worker, of Shamokin township, was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of having entered the barn of Dairyman M. L. Sober, at Elysburg, Tuesday night and poisoned two cows, placing a quantity of paris green in the milk cans, cutting all of the harness to pieces and removing the tubs from the wheels of the wagons. Mr. Sober borrowed a wagon from a neighbor and sent the milk to this city. Two hours later the farm girls found traces of poison in the milk cans, and George Sober jumped on his bicycle and started for Shamokin, six miles distant, at great speed to warn the 200 families supplied not to use the fluid. On reaching Shamokin he notified the authorities, and a number of men were hurried over the route with the terrible warning. So far as known they were successful in preventing the use of the milk.
 Leppley was given a hearing before Justice Rowe last evening, and was committed to prison. He lives near the Sober farm, and is alleged to have been hurried over the route with the terrible warning. So far as known they were successful in preventing the use of the milk.
 The Temple Cup series, Boston, Sept. 23.—Baseball Managers Hanlon and Seles held a conference over the telephone yesterday, and decided that the first three games for the Temple cup be played in this city on Oct. 4, 5 and 6. The second three games will be played in Baltimore on Oct. 9, 11 and 12.

Gland Reception.
 The Board of Directors of City Trusts of Philadelphia will make their annual tour of inspection of the valuable properties of the Girard Estate in this county the latter part of this month. Invitations have been issued for the reception to be held at the residence of Mr. Heber S. Thompson, at Potteville, on the 28th inst., at 8:00 o'clock p. m. Quite a number have been received by prominent citizens of this town. Last year the reception was held at Girardville.

We Go on the Catawissa Branch.
 A week occurred on the Catawissa branch of the P. & E. Railway this morning, by an empty car jumping the track. No one was injured, and the wrecked cars were cleared in a short while.
 Gold Seekers Will Wait Until Spring. Victoria, B. C., Sept. 23.—The steamer Queen, which arrived yesterday, brought back 30 miners who decided to wait until spring before proceeding to the Klondike. Winter has set in in earnest in the White and Chilkoot Passes, there being four feet of snow on the summits, and ice forming in the small streams. Those who want to get over now have to go by dog train. Horses are no longer of any use, and the animals for which men refused $300 and $400 a week ago can now be bought for $5. A large number of men are going to Juneau to winter, but many will come south and make a fresh start in the spring.

THERE IS NOTHING
 That will add to a man's appearance more than a good fitting stylish suit of clothing, and now we want to tell you something about the clothing we are going to sell this fall. We will guarantee every suit sold by us to be the best that can be bought for the price. If you get a
$1.00 or a $16.00
 Suit we guarantee you get a better bargain than you can get anywhere in the state, and we also wish to inform the public that our line of $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00 suits are better in material, make and workmanship than those $10.00 and $12.00 tailor-made suits that are being advertised by other dealers. We can prove that there is more wear in our suits than there is in those so-called tailor suits. Our suits are made to wear and give satisfaction to the wearer. That is the principal reason why we are the leading clothiers of this part of the state to-day. People like our clothing and are aware of the fact that in dealing at this store, which has an established reputation, they are assured of getting satisfaction. Our immense trade compels us to carry an immense stock, and in our large store room can be found more stock than all other clothiers in Shenandoah put together. Every inch of room is taken up and they are still coming in. We carry more stock in our store than any wholesale dealer in New York or Philadelphia and don't it stand to reason then that WE, in buying thousands of dollars worth of clothing, get better inducements than those other small stores. Why, sure, we do; we get every possible inducement that is offered, we take advantage of them and we therefore sell our goods cheaper than other dealers buy them. You can rest assured that we have everything in the line of stylish goods for this season in Plaids, Browns, Chevots, Blacks, Blues and any other color you may wish. We give a perfect fit, it don't matter if you are thin, fat, short or tall. It is a pleasure for you to come and examine our Children's Suits, which take up a half block. Every mother that wants a stylish Blouse, Junior, or Reecer Suit, or a good warm Woolen Suit for her boy, knows that this is the place to buy them. We have everything stylish and good at prices in strict accordance with the times. Our Overcoat, Children's, Pants and Gents' Furnishing Departments, are over-crowded with stock and everything is being sold at their lowest prices; that is 40 per cent. cheaper than all other stores in this county.
