

Creates business because of its known large circulation and renders rich results to its advertisers.

To reach the public through a progressive, dignified, influential journal—use the HERALD columns.

THIS QUEEN OF Sewing Machines

Only $19.50

Warranted for Five Years.

GREAT BARGAINS OFFERED IN

FURNITURE

To cash buyers or on the installment plan. Come and see the largest stock in the county to select from at prices that defy competition.

J. P. WILLIAMS & SON, 13 SOUTH MAIN STREET SHENANDOAH, PA

FALL AND WINTER WOOLEN UNDERWEAR.

This is the time for you to buy them, for our line is complete, at our old prices. All people are aware that Woolen Underwear has gone up in price by the tariff.

Do Not Forget That We Are Selling at the Old Price.

MAX LEVIT,

Up-To-Date Hatter and Gents' Furnisher, No. 15 East Centre Street.

ELEGANT NEW CARPETS

All of this season. It will pay all who want to purchase in this line to buy here. We have Ingrains

From 20 Cents and up.

Rag Carpets

From 22 Cents and up.

Brussels

From 40 Cents and up.

Oil Cloths and Linoleum a Specialty.

If in need of Dry Goods we have a large and selected stock to buy from.

P. J. MONAGHAN, 30 S. Main Street.

FALL OF 1897.

NEW AND COMPLETE LINE OF

Carpets, Oil Cloths, Window Shades, Linoleums, Rugs, New Draperies and Covers

Special Sale of TABLE LINENS. Bargains in all kinds of REMNANTS.

J. J. PRICE'S, North Main St., Shenandoah, Pa.

THE PINNACLE OF EXCELLENCE

Is a way-up point of elevation not easily reached, but

COLUMBIA BEER.

THE ONLY SHENANDOAH BEER

Is up there, and has been up there ever since its existence. So do not wonder at the popularity of Columbia, but call for Columbia and see that Columbia is presented to you.

PAINTING AND DECORATING!

WALL PAPERS.

Thomas H. Snyder, 23 South Jardin St., Shenandoah, Pa.

NEW CARPETS!

ALL KINDS AND GRADES.

FLOOR OIL CLOTHS,

NEW FALL PATTERNS

Just Received.

TWO CARS OF Old White Oats.

At KEITER'S.

IMPORTANT CAPTURE.

A Young Man Against Whom Several Charges Are Made.

Michael Farrell, a young man of Centralia, for whom the C. & I. policemen have been hunting for several weeks, was arrested at Gilberton yesterday by C. & I. Policeman Kreiger in connection with Detective Bobb, of Mahanoy Plane. Farrell is but 20 years of age, but the authorities say that several serious charges are pending against him. Farrell was on a milk wagon when arrested and when he was taken to Mahanoy Plane several relatives and friends appeared to offer bail, but Kreiger said he would accept only gilt-edge security and finally brought the prisoner to town and locked him up. Last evening the prisoner was taken before Justice Shoemaker, upon request of Farrell's uncle, who wanted to give bail. Up to this time the only charge made known was assault and battery with intent to kill on Policeman Kreiger on the 13th of last June. Farrell's uncle was very indignant because the accused had been pulled from a milk wagon on which he was riding to learn a delivery route and handcuffed, and also because bail had been refused at Mahanoy Plane. The uncle sought Mr. J. J. Bridgman, who is an acquaintance of Farrell's parents. Mr. Bridgman appeared to give bail, but after consultation with Kreiger and Justice Shoemaker Mr. Bridgman concluded that the security was insufficient in the matter. M. M. Burke, Esq., was retained in the case and finally bail was secured from another party for Farrell's appearance for a hearing before Justice Larkin in Centralia at 10 o'clock this morning. It is alleged that Farrell was implicated in the robbing of a freight car loaded with goods consigned to T. M. Richter & Co., Mt. Carmel. That on June 13th, last, Policeman Kreiger was about to arrest Farrell, but the latter made his escape after throwing a coupling at the officer. It is also alleged that several other charges are pending against the young man.

Our black and brown stiff hats at $1.00 cannot be excelled in style, price or quality. At MAX LEVIT'S, 15 East Centre street.

Theatrical Notes.

The Cameron Opera Company continues its productions at Ferguson's theatre with great success and is drawing large audiences nightly. The bill last night was "Lights of London," produced with scenery and stage effects complete and an excellent display of wardrobe. Mr. Cameron Clemens and Miss Katherine Crego acquitted themselves in the leading roles. Tonight the company will present, notably from Willard Lark, Fred. D. Munroe, Carlo Miller and Miss Harmon. Will C. Morton and Miss Margaret Tennant were highly successful in the comedy role. The audience was generous with its applause and evidently thoroughly pleased with the production. Tonight "The Playmaster," Duocan B. Harrison's famous play, will be produced with all accessories complete. This company has the reputation of producing the great play on a scale exceeding the original in splendor of effects and costumes. To-morrow afternoon a children's matinee will be given and admission to all parts of the house will be but ten cents.

THE VERDICT.

It is said that the verisimilitude is without a doubt the most perfect of any of the projecting pictures yet produced. In the pictures of the Corbett-Pittsimmons glove contest, which took place at Carson City, every little action and detail of this great contest is shown to the spectators as clearly as they were to the witnesses of the original contest. Many little incidents that, in the excitement at the ring-side were hardly noticed, are shown most distinctly in these pictures and they have given rise to considerable journalistic discussion regarding the decision given by the spectators as clearly as they were to the witnesses of the original contest. These pictures will be seen at Ferguson's theatre on Thursday night next.

We are Ready for You

With the finest line of shoes of every description ever shown in Shenandoah. Our fall and winter styles and box calf shoes for men are beautiful. They are built for wear and they will give wear—better buy now and be in style. Goodyear hand sewed, double sole, Scotch edge, and English back stay. Our qualities and prices not affected by the war tariff.

SHUFF'S NEW SHOE STORE,

17 North Main Street.

Nelwender's, Cor. Main and Coal Sts.

Oyster soup, free, to-night.

Hot lunch to-morrow morning.

Meals served at all hours.

The Triennial Assessment.

The County Commissioners yesterday delivered the assessment books throughout the county. Commissioner Benis was in town yesterday and to-day delivering the books to the local ward assessors and administered the required oath of office to each assessor. Personal relations have been equalized in making up the present triennial assessment, and all property is to be assessed at what it would bring at a bona fide sale after full public notice.

At Kogelbush's Arcade Cafe.

Cream of tomato soup will be served, free during and between the daylight.

Hot lunch to-morrow morning.

Census Completed.

Rev. P. F. Daggert, rector of St. Mary Magdalen's church, has finished taking a census of the parishioners residing in the Wm. Penn district. The total number is 876. He was assisted in the work by Messrs. James H. Burns and John Haggerty, of Wm. Penn. The reverend gentleman was now engaged in similar work in the Lost Creek district.

For Sale.

Two pool tables, in good condition, can be bought very reasonable. Apply to John Medallia, 105 South Main street. 9-23-97

Forgery Charged.

Hiram Niewender was before Justice Toomey last night, charged by George F. Leitzel with forging the $200 bill for trial. Negotiations for a settlement are pending. The case hinges on two powers of attorney Niewender is alleged to have given for wages earned at a colliery, one having been given to Leitzel and another to Mrs. Cale.

Dancing school by the Schoppes orchestra will be held in Robbins' opera house Saturday night. 9-23-97

Stolen Violin.

Louis Long was before Justice Toomey last night, charged by Patrick Mack with receiving a violin stolen from the latter. Long swore that he purchased the violin from the person charged with the theft and paid fifty cents for it that he did not know it was stolen. Long was released on his own recognizance to appear when the man who stole the violin is arrested.

TO THE UP-TO-DATE DRESSER.

We have just received the new Dunlap stiff hat which is the prettiest of the season. We offer them at our usually popular hat prices. At MAX LEVIT'S.

O'NEILL TO PAY COSTS!

"Not Guilty, but Pay the Costs," Was the Verdict.

THE FAMOUS LABEL CASE ENDED

A Sealed Verdict Was Handed to Judge Savage This Morning—The Jury Continued Its Deliberations Until After Six O'clock This Morning.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

POTTSVILLE, Sept. 24.—The jury in the case of P. J. Ferguson, School Director of West Mahanoy township, against J. Jerome O'Neill, of Lost Creek, for libel, this morning handed in a sealed verdict of "Not guilty, but pay the costs."

The jury was out from 9:45 o'clock yesterday morning until 6:30 o'clock this morning. Judge Savage remained here until late yesterday afternoon and when he found the jury had not reached a verdict he left directed that the verdict be handed in sealed and sent home. He returned here at ten o'clock this morning and received the verdict.

From present indications it appears that both the Commonwealth's and defense are satisfied with the verdict. Mr. O'Neill and his friends claim to have learned that when the jury started in upon its deliberations it stood seven for acquittal and costs upon the prosecution, and that the long deliberation brought upon the placing of the costs, culminating in a compromise verdict.

The prosecution, on the other hand, claim that the verdict practically means "not guilty, but don't do it again," and is therefore a vindication.

To the disinterested parties the verdict does not appear satisfactory, in view of the charges that were made by the defense during the progress of the case. It seems to be the general opinion that, owing to the grave character of the case, O'Neill should either have been found guilty and added with the costs, or completely exonerated.

One thing is certain, and that is interest in the misdemeanor cases against certain members of the West Mahanoy township School Directors will be increased by the verdict. Had the verdict been unqualifiedly against O'Neill there is little doubt that the misdemeanor case would never come up for trial. As the matter stands now a trial appears to be a certainty. The misdemeanor case, which is brought by Thomas Dea against certain directors of the Mahanoy Township School Board, and the perjury case against Dea, brought by the directors he has prosecuted, have been postponed to the November term of criminal court. It is understood that the misdemeanor case will be tried first, although it is probable that an agreement will be reached by which the result of both cases will be allowed to rest upon one trial.

At a late hour this afternoon it was stated that Mr. O'Neill's counsel will have a surprise to spring in court to-morrow morning in connection with the verdict. The nature of the surprise could not be definitely learned, but it is expected that a sensation will be created.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Councilman D. R. James went to the Allentown fair this morning.

Gordon Brown was among the townspeople who spent yesterday at the fair in Allentown.

M. M. Burke, Esq., transacted legal business at Centralia and Bloomsburg to-day.

Dr. W. N. Stein last night returned from a visit to Philadelphia.

Miss Lizzie Morrison, daughter of Maurice Morrison, attended the obsequies of Miss Pepper at Ashland yesterday.

Dr. George L. Hagan, formerly a physician in this borough, but who has since become a leading practitioner and citizen at Berwick, Pa., is a guest of friends here.

Miss Anna Bachman, of Mahanoy Plane, spent last evening in town.

Miss Mary Pomeroy has gone to Pottsville for an indefinite period.

Jacob Levit, brother of Max Levit, of town, has opened a clothing and gent's furnishing goods store at Mahanoy City. He was until recently employed by Goldin, the clothier, of town.

Landlord J. A. Bickert has gone to Philadelphia to inquire into the condition of his son, Carl, who is being treated for paralysis at a medical institution.

Max Dornen will leave for New York to-morrow morning where he will spend the Hebrew New Year. His affections point in that direction.

Miss May Lee, and her friend, Mr. Nash, returned to Philadelphia to-day.

Baird Hammer, of Reading, who spent the past week in town as the guest of his cousin, Miss Carrie Folmer, left town this morning homeward bound. He journeyed as far as Orwigburg.

The Burned Men.

Advice received from the Miners' hospital at Fountain Springs to-day state that Peter Poff, Sr., and his son, Joseph, of town, who were burned by an explosion of gas at the Shenandoah City colliery yesterday morning, are in a critical condition, but there are chances for their recovery. The two miners burned at Packer No. 4 colliery yesterday morning are in a dangerous condition.

Full Water Supply.

The recent falls of rain have replenished the streams of the public water works to such an extent that the water supply in the borough will be given full night and day until further notice.

Mrs. Nash's Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Nash, an aged resident of town, took place from the residence of her son, John Nash, on West Line street, this morning. High mass was celebrated in the Annunciation church. The remains were taken to Girardville for interment, which was made in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Almost Severed.

At Suffolk colliery yesterday afternoon, Patrick Meeufski, had the ring finger on his left hand almost severed by a fall of coal. The injuries of the victim were dressed by Dr. W. N. Stein.

Just try a 10c box of Casarets, the finest liver and bowel regulator ever made.

SUED BY A LODGE.

Landlord Sought to be Held For Value of Fixtures.

A civil suit of interest to many people of town was tried before Justice Shoemaker last night with the trustees of Shenandoah Lodge No. 591, I. O. O. F., as plaintiffs and John A. Kelly as defendant. J. H. Pomeroy, Esq., appeared for the trustees and M. M. Burke, Esq., represented the defendant. About three hours was consumed in the trial of the case. Messrs. Thomas Bellis, T. T. Williams, Harry House and William Remmie were witnesses for the plaintiffs. The defense put no witnesses on the stand, depending upon arguments.

It appears that when Mr. Kelly built his building on South Main street after the great fire of 1882, the trustees of the lodge made an agreement with him by which they leased the entire third floor of the structure for lodge and ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge, and the two thus appointed were to select a third. The three appraisers were then to fix a value on the furnishings and fixtures of the ante-rooms. It is stated that Mr. Kelly was not prepared to put the place in the condition the lodge required, so the latter advanced him five years' rental to finish that part of the building. An agreement was then entered into by the trustees and Mr. Kelly, by which the lodge was to fit up the ante-rooms, partitions, furniture, etc., and that within twelve months should decide to vacate the premises fifteen days notice would be given to appoint an appraiser to meet an appraiser appointed by the lodge