ROBERT YEAGER

The Best Shows from the Street (His) Free Press.

It is but recently that Democratic sheets were concerned, beyond measure, about the welfare of the farmer.

Instead of putting woolen coats and dresses upon men and women the Democratic tariff clothed most of them in shoddy and left the others in rags.

The people are to be congratulated upon the fact that the new revenue producing and business reviving tariff is now in force.

Notwithstanding the large stocks of manufactured goods imported in anticipation of the enactment of a protective tariff the Dingley bill should bring an early improvement in all lines of trade.

Professor Wilson does not seem to be much in demand as a campaign orator among the Democrats this year.

Clairing a Reward. Chief of Police Tush went to Pottsville this morning to have a trial of a civil suit which he instituted in 1892 to recover the balance of a reward of $100 from Max Reese, Louis Refowich, Louis Goldin and others. The case was arbitrated some time ago and Mr. Tush received an award for $80, the balance claimed. An appeal was taken and the trial of the case in court fixed for today. Mr. Tush alleges that in 1892 a circular in the Lithuanian language was issued in town, urging that the Hebrews should not take up arms at that time Mr. Tush was a constable and he claims to have been employed by the defendants in the suit to locate the source of the circular. This, he says, he did and received but $10 for his work. This morning a verdict for $80 and interest for five years was awarded in Tush's favor.

Caused a Str. A tale is being narrated about the streets today in which a Schuylkill Traction conductor is the star. This knight of the bell cord was yesterday called upon to take up the collection in a church at Lost Creek. As he was passing the plate along to the parishioners he was observed occasionally reaching for the bell cord thinking he was collecting fares on the trolley car. The amusing incident caused a stir among the worshippers.

IT WAS "REGULAR."

As Viewed by an Editor in Far Off Kansas. From the Topics (Kan.) Capital. The late Democratic state convention of Pennsylvania, dominated by the silvercrats, is described by leading papers of that state, including such old time Democratic organs as the Philadelphia Record and Times, as the worst exhibition of political ruffianism ever witnessed in Pennsylvania.
