A PRETTY WEDDING.

John T. Lawson and Miss Maggie Davis Married To-day.

The Welsh Congregational church on South West street was the scene of a very pretty wedding at two o'clock this afternoon, the principals being John T. Lawson and Miss Maggie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Davis. The altar of the church was elaborately decorated for the occasion with flowers and plants. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Davis, and Robert Lawson, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen. Messrs. John Danks and William Rees were the ushers. Rev. Alfred Heebner, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiated at the ceremony and Miss Edith Moran was the organist. The church was filled with relatives and friends of the bridal couple. The presents were numerous and embraced silver, china and linen in almost endless variety. After the ceremony there was a reception, followed by a collation at the residence of the bride's parents, 801 South West street, in which the bridal couple and immediate relatives participated. Mr. and Mrs. Lawson left town on the 4:30 p. m. Pennsylvania R. R. train for Philadelphia, where they will spend several days. Upon their return they will occupy a handsomely furnished home on South West street. The church in which they were married, The HERALD joins the many friends in extending congratulations.

IT WAS A MISTAKE.

Simon Klein's Arrest Was Caused by a False Report.

Isaac Levine is a junk dealer of town. He employs Simon Klein to go about with a horse and wagon and buy up old powder kegs, rags, guns, boots, &c. Yesterday they had a settlement and there was two dollars due Klein. Levine gave him a $20 bill to go changed and Klein failed to return. The junk dealer caused a warrant to be issued and Klein was arrested. When the parties met before Justice Shoemaker Klein made a satisfactory explanation of his failure to return with the change. Levine said he would not have caused the arrest had he not been told that Klein was about to depart for New York. The latter denied the story and the case was settled, the prosecutor paying two-thirds of the costs and the defendant one-third. Their business relations continue as before.

The Schoppe orchestra will hold their usual dancing school at Robb's opera house on Saturday evening. 9:25-11.

The Corbett-Fitzsimmons Fight.

The verisimilitude pictures with the original films of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight, will be produced in Ferguson's theatre this evening. The advance sale of seats is large, and the indications point to a crowded house. These pictures were produced at Ashtabud on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings to large houses, and the Ashtabud Local says: "The verisimilitude pictures of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight, at Carson City, which were shown at the opera house last night, are very good and every blow and movement of the principal as well as the audience on that memorable day was vividly portrayed. The audience was as wildly enthusiastic as if they were witnessing a real fight. We recommend all lovers of the noble art to go and see the verisimilitude as it is the best reproduction of the memorable fight we have seen."

GRAND PARADE AND BANQUET!

The Degree Team of the Mt. Carmel Camp Mustered in Over One Hundred Recruits—Many Visiting Delegates Were in Attendance at the Ceremonies.

The culmination of the Sons of Veterans boom gave the town a holiday appearance last night and attracted hundreds of visitors from the neighboring towns. It was the most auspicious event held under the auspices of the local camp since the state camp convened here several years ago and all arrangements were carried out with marked success. Camps and Guards in full uniform accompanied by drum corps commenced to arrive at six o'clock in the evening, among the first being the Mt. Carmel Guards with drum corps. They gave an excellent drill on West Centre street before going into the local camp's headquarters.

It was after eight o'clock before the last delegation arrived. It was Gen. Ord Camp of Mahanoy City and drum corps. The delegation arrived on one of the Lakeside Electric Railway Company's eight-wheel cars. By this time people thronged the intersection of Main and Centre streets and the vicinity to witness the parade. In welcoming each visiting delegation they had cheered themselves hoarse. Immediately after the arrival of the delegation from Mahanoy City the line of parade was formed in front of the hotel building on West Centre street, in the following order:

The route of parade was on East Centre street, North West, East and West Oak, Jardin, West Oak, Chestnut, West Cherry and Main streets. When the head of the column reached Main street there was a counter-march to Bedford's hall, where the mustering in of the recruits took place. This ceremony was conducted by the degree team of General James A. Garfield Camp No. 34, of Mt. Carmel. The recruits in attendance numbered 107. ### The Palo Alto Suicide.

The Coroner's jury last night rendered a verdict in the matter of Miss Mattie Swayze's death at Palo Alto. The principal witness was Dr. John M. Gray, of Port Carbon, who testified that it was strange the inmates of the adjoining room did not hear at least a gurgling sound, inasmuch as the door separating the rooms was open. The fact that the razor was found under the bed clothing was a mystery, and unexpected. The jury thought it almost impossible for the girl to have inflicted the injuries which caused her death, and he in the condition in which he found her. He regarded the case as a remarkable one. Frank Dettewich, who, it is alleged, was on friendly terms with the girl, was recalled and assumed an air of indifference in giving his testimony. The jury, after a consultation, returned a verdict that she had killed Swayze came to death, at the hands of persons unknown to the jury. It will be seen that the jury ignores the theory of suicide, leaving that an open question to be acted upon by the District Attorney, who was invited to be present at the inquest.

A DECISION BY JUDGE McPHERSON

Declares the Amended Ballot Law Unconstitutional, in That It is an Interference With the Free Right of Suffrage.

Harrisburg, Sept. 30.—Judge McPherson heard argument yesterday afternoon on the application of the Philadelphia City Democratic committee for a writ of mandamus to compel Secretary of the Commonwealth Martin to certify the nominations of Judges Willbanks, Brown, Antonelli and Ferguson, of Philadelphia, for printing. In the Democratic column on the official ballots. They were first nominated by the Republicans and subsequently by the Democrats. Secretary Martin declined to place the names twice on the official ballot. Judge McPherson said that he had no doubt of the illegality of the provision of the statute that a name may appear only once on the ballot. He made an order that the mandamus issue without leaving the bench.

John G. Johnson and Michael J. Ryan, of Philadelphia, and ex-Deputy Attorney General Hastings, of Harrisburg, appeared for the City Committee, and Attorney General McCormick and Deputy Attorney General Reeder for the other side.

Mr. McCormick said that Secretary Martin made no resistance to the application, and that he was authorized to say for Governor Hastings that if the section of the law requiring that the name of a candidate may appear only once on the ballot had stood alone when the bill was before him for consideration he would have disapproved it. Mr. McCormick also stated that this provision of the act was evidently passed without due consideration of its consequences, and that he was in accord with argument of counsel of the other side.

The decision of Judge McPherson covers the case of Judge O. P. Bechtel, of Schuylkill county, who was nominated by the Republicans and subsequently by the Democrats. His name will, therefore, appear at the top of both the Republican and Democratic columns on the official ballot.
