A Swindler Captured.

The readers of the HERALD will remember man by the name of Geise, who represented the Pease Piano Co., of New York city, and who was arrested here about two years ago for embezziement and forgery. At that time a prominent business man of town furnished $1,000 half for Geise. The latter jumped his bail, and no trace of him could be found until a week or so ago, when he was arrested at Corydon, Ind., on a similar charge. He was at that time traveling under the name of J. C. Norris. The prosecution have been in correspondence with the companies who are after Geise, and are thoroughly convinced that they have the man. He is wanted specially by the Hannibal Music Co., of Hannibal, Mo., on charges of embezzlement, who he has swindled out of amounts aggre-gating $10,000. The Pense Piano Co., of New York city, would also like to have him on similar charges, likewise the Waterioo Organ Co., of Waterloo, N. Y., also the Jesse French Plano Co., St. Louis, Mo. The Waterloo Company's description of him is complete, even going so far as to mention the "sick racket," which he worked so successfully at s hotel here at the time when ball was furnished him. This, they say, he does by taking large doses of hismuth powders, which make him deathly sick and very pale.

T. F. GORMAN THE MAN SOUGHT

He is Said to be the Fourth Witness Present When the Alleged Compact Between Coyle and Wyatt Was Entered Into-The Case Goes to the Jury.

By Long Distance Telephone.

HARRISBURG, October 2. Thomas J. Joyce, editor of the Black Diamond, of Mahanoy City, was arraigned in the Dauphin county court at Harriaburg yea-terday afternoon, before Judge Archibald, of Lackawanna county, on the charge of libe preferred by Hou. Joseph Wyutt, of town. The latter charges Joyce with having published a libelous article in the issue of his paper of June 27, setting forth that Wyatr, in order to procure his election as Sergeant-ab-Arms, had entered into a written agreement to pay half of his salary to State Senutor John J. Coyle. The grand jury found a true bill yesterday morning, and the case was immediately marked for trial in the afternoon.

Among those from this county at Harrisburg, subpoenced as witnesses, are the following: David M. Graham, Charles C. Burchill, Hen. E. A. Graham, Charles C. Burchill, Hen. E. A. Griffiths, Patrick Cleary, Philip E. Coyle, John J. Coyle and John W. Parker, of Mahanoy City; Hon. C. N. Brumm, of Minersville; and Representatives Schrink and Orme.

Mr. Joyce was present in Harrisburg, but when the case was called he was not see when the case was called be was not propared, as he had no counsel. He subsequently retained Mr. Fox, an eminent lawyer of Harrisburg. Mr. Wyatt was represented by Scuntor McCarrell, of Dauphin, and John F. Whalen, of this county. Mr. Joyce asked for a continuance on the plea that an important witness, the fourth party present when the alleged agreement was signed, could not be secured before next week; and in reply to a question said E. A. Griffiths was an important witness in the Coyle case, but not in this one. Judge Archibald overruled the motion for a continuance

Mr. Wyatt was the first witness called. He stated he had been defeated for the Legisla-ture. He came to Pottaville and Hon, G. C. Schrink suggested that he run for the post tion of Sergeant-at-Arms. He thought favor ably of this proposition and spoke to his friends, among them being Congressman Brumm, Representative Orme, United States enator Quay and others. He saw State Senator Coyle about two weeks after the talk with Mr. Schrink, but no such meeting as had been mentioned in the article took pla neither had they entered into any agreement to elect him to the place.

Senator Coyle, the next witness, denied that such a meeting had been held or that such an agreement had been made. Represented the senator of t sentatives Schrink and Orme testified to reading the article, but acither knew of any agreement being made.

Congressman Brumm testified to a conver-sation he had with Joyce, in which the latter said he would not quit until he drove Coyle and Wyatt out of the county. At this point the Commonwealth rested, Wyatt met him in Pottsville and talked about the position of Sergeant-at-Arms. Witness told him to see Coyle and Wyatt came to Mahanoy City and they went to Coyle's office with another party, (the mysterous important witness). Wyatt asked Coyle to help him get the place of Sergeantenough by men for whom he had got places and he wanted an agreement in writing that he would get half of the salary. He said the position of Sergeant-at-Arms was worth but believed that it was concerning what had been taiked about. At this point court ad- All are invited.

SOLDIERS MONUMENT.

The Association Held an Important Meeting Last Night. The Shenandoah Soldiers' Monument Asso ciation held another meeting in the head quarters of the G. A. S., in Refowich's build ing on Main street, last night and about twenty-five representatives from the several organizations interested in the movement were in attendance. In the absence of the regular chairman, Mr. T. J. James, the meetng had as presiding officer Mr. David Mor gan, who also made a report in behalf of the finance committee and stated that there were one or two small things requiring attention to enable the committee to present a final re-port. He showed that considerable work had been done since the general committee last met and his report was quite satisfactory. It showed that the fonds available for the present time amount to $1,100. It was decided to give the committee an extension of two weeks time in which to prepare its inal report, Hon. M. C. Watson suggested that a committee be appointed to see if a site for the monument can be secured on the highway between the Odd Fellows' and Annunciation cemetries. There was a disposition to lay the matter over until after the finance committee's final report, but a more active spirit developed when Mr. P. D. Holman moved that the committee proceed with the soldlers monument project and make determined offorts to accomplish the result desired.

The object of the motion was to allay any doubts as to whether the committee intended to push the project to completion and it was adopted by a unanimous vote.

This motion was then followed by one that May 30, 1808, be fixed as the day for the dedication of the measurent. It occasioned considerable discussion and, at first, some opposition, but finally the sentiment in favor assumed proportions that resulted in the notion being carried.

Mr. J. J. Powell then made a motion that a committee of three be appointed to call upon Major Heber S. Thompson, Major E. C. Wagner and other officials of the Girard Estate to ascertain if a site for the monument can be secured on the mountain and between the Odd Fellows' and Annunciation cemeteries, or in the field above the Besone H. & L. Co.'s house. This motion

H. C. Boyer and R. H. Morgan.

Argument on this part of the proceedings was also quite lengthy before the motion prevailed, but it was understood that in the appointment of the committee there was no definite action on site. During the early stages of the committee it was decided to place the monument at the intersection of the corners of Main and Centre streets, but since that time it has become apparent that the plan is not feasible. Should the committee, which is to report at the next meeting, receive satisfactory replies from the Girard Estate officials the original motion on site will no doubt be reconsidered and action taken to conform to whatever arrangement the committee may designate. From the results of last night's meeting it seems that the soldiers' monument is to be pushed forward vigorously hereafter and all who will con-tribute to the project will have an opportunity to do so in a substantial manner in the nea

A BRIDEGROOMS'S LEAP TO DEATH

Jumped From the Window of a New Yor Hotel and Left His Bride of a Day a Widow Two Philadelphia Suicides.

New York, Oct. 2 .- A woman and her four children were found dead by asphyxiation in the West Shore hotel, Forty-second street and Eleventh avenue, resterday morning. The woman had evidently killed her children and committed suicide.

The victims of the terrible tragedy were the wife and children of Robert and all-lined Boucle lackets, single and Rivinius, an enlisted man in the United double, plush and beaver capes, empire States army at West Point. Rivinius is front and back and handsomely trimmed a printer in the administrative building. He was so excited that he could give no coherent accounof his family.

Laura, the oldest of the children, was 15, William 13, Albert 7 and Elizabeth 4 years old. Mrs. Rivinius was 40. Mrs. Victor Laher, a sister of Mrs. Rivinius, says that the trip of her sister-in-law to New York was merely a little pleas-ure excusion, as the children had had no outing during the summer.

It is surmised that Mrs. Rivinius
