New York has more varieties of Democrats than Pennsylvania, but they are wiser than to attempt to meet in the same hall.

WHAT will the enterprising news editor say when Weyer twines still, we have with us the "calamity bowler" and the foot ball fiend, to say nothing of the Klondike.

A YOUNG woman of Louisville acted as referee at a bloody fist fight between two claimants for her hand. The case seemed to be one in which both suitors would be warranted in shaking hands and withdrawing together.

THE national law against the seal which is dried cheese is drying the vile mixture of dirty greed and chemicals out of the markets. There is at the same time a corresponding revival of confidence in American cheese.

THE Treasury Department estimates that the population of the United States is increasing 2,000,000 a year. That is fast enough without admitting great numbers of illegals from countries with which we have nothing in common.

HENRY GEORGE was a traveling newspaper correspondent last year to the New York Journal, and wrote to his paper that Bryan would carry Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota and New York. The returns proved the contrary, and place Mr. George in the category of a poor prophet.

THE Democratic members of the School Board are nothing if not practical. When vacancies do not exist, they simply remove the old teachers and appoint in their stead applicants of their own political faith. There is no "give and take" in the category of our Democratic friends on the present Board, and the excellent civil service system which has ruled in school matters is set aside to reward friends regardless of all other considerations.

THE importance of using good paper for catalogues and booklets can not be too frequently impressed upon the attention of advertisers, says Advertising Experience. The usefulness of the most cleverly written matter and the most perfect illustrations is too often destroyed by poor printing, and the cause of poor printing is frequently the poor quality of the paper used. The job department connected with the Herald office is not surprised in the interior of the state. First-class workmen, good material are the magnets that attract the bulk of the trade our way.

THE London Spectator, in speaking of the Cuban conflict, says that "to prolong the war would be a crime, and if America chooses to stop these hideous cruelties all Englishmen should applaud and refuse to inquire too narrowly into the reasons which influenced her statesmen in putting pressure on Spain." This probably represents the view of a large majority of the English people, and very likely it is in harmony with the feeling of their government. Spain will have no ally in Europe if a conflict comes between her and the United States.

The prompt and apparently authoritative denial of the rumor that Pope Leo is at death's door puts at rest for the time being the oft-repeated story of the approaching end of the Supreme Pontiff. Accepting these denials as reflecting the true condition of Leo's health, which is represented to be all that can be expected in a man of his advanced years, there is nevertheless and because of his great age reason for believing that the end of his illustrious career cannot be very far off. The tendency with which he has held on to life and retained full control of his faculties has been the source of wonderment and admiration, and the world would not receive with surprise final news of his death. Long ago Leo passed the allotted span of man, and at regular intervals has come the rumor of the collapse marking the beginning of the end. But equally as regularly have come the denials, followed ever by indubitable proofs of his control of his brilliant resources.

MRS ATKINSON'S ORDEAL

Trial of the Governor's Wife Forged in West Virginia.
 Glenville, W. Va., Oct. 7.—The trial of Mrs. Atkinson was resumed yesterday. The preliminary proceedings were begun and a jury sworn. The indictment charges Mrs. Atkinson and Joshua P. Owens, a prominent farmer, with having jointly engaged in a felonious writing of certain receipts alleged to be forged, and Owens and Mrs. Atkinson are being tried together. The receipts involved in the transaction, amounting over $1,000, were filed by the state as evidence. The state claims that these receipts were written and signed in Judge Camden's name by Mrs. Atkinson, that Mrs. Camden, seven years after Judge Camden's death. The last allegation is denied by the defense, although the fact that the receipts are wholly in the handwriting of Mrs. Atkinson was admitted by her attorneys. Camden's signature, as a witness, evidence of the indictment, was in fact the first witness examined by the state. He described his discovery of the papers and pointed out his reason for the belief that they were forged. Letters from Owens to Judge Camden were here introduced as evidence in the case for the purpose of showing the non-payment of the money upon which the receipts were issued to have been given. The cross-examination of the witness was very rigid, but seemed to leave the statements unshaken. The defense, however, introduced statements which were produced, other state witnesses followed Summers with similar testimony.

STOCK AND PRODUCE MARKETS

Hair-Maintain a Warring Attitude and Keep Investors From Getting New York, Oct. 7.—The bulls maintained a warring attitude for the most part in today's stock market, and the bears were kept busy trying to keep the market from going higher and depressing the general level of the market a further sharp reaction. There seems to be long work to do, and the bears are this time endeavoring to continue their efforts. Where there is evidence of rallying they apply pressure by short selling and so precipitate the decline to a point where they lose interest. The commodities of this policy was some very sharp decline in special stocks during the day. Sugar, Chicago Oct. 7. Main, Harry, Bay State One and the transfer, being the objects of the most aggressive attacks.
