SPANIARDS CANNOT GET HER.

Even Should They Desire Her Extradition There Is Nothing in Existing Treatles That Would Warrant Our Government in Surrendering Her.

Washington, Oct. 12.—Opinion differs as to what complications are liable to arise between the United States and Spain as a consequence of the escape of Senorita Cisneros from the Spanish ison in Cuba, through the efforts of the New York Journal's correspondent in Havana. While the general impres-sion is that Spain might make a great opinion of many is that the new min-istry will be glad to get rid of a pris-this government in the wrong.

As a political prisoner Senorita Cis-As a political prisoner Senorita Cisneros would be exempt from extradition, and, therefore, if extradition is demanded by Spain it will be based on the claim that she was a prisoner of war, and the complaint will be a conspiracy in this country to liberate Spainsh prisoners of war. This would not be tenable, for the reason that Spain does not officially admit that a Cild would who residence in the country to the country to liberate Spainsh prisoners of war. State department officials make light of the prospect of any international trouble following the escape of Miss Cisperos. They say that, presuming that the girl and her rescuer have reached the United States, they can-

our organic law be surrendered, and there is no clause in the Spanish extradition treaty that would serve as a basis for a claim for her surrender. The circumstances under which she may have reached the United States annot affect the force of this doctrine

MISS CISNEROS IN NEW YORK.

The Young Cuban Patrlot Joyfully Received at Cuban Headquarters. New York, Oct. 12.—Today's Herald says: Senorita Evangelina Costo y Cisneros, the Cuban girl who escaped from Casa de Recogidas, in Havana, on Wednesday night last, arrived in this city yesterday morning. American friends accompanied her by train from New Orleans. On reaching Jersey City Miss Cisneros was taken in a closed carriage to the headquarters of the Cuban sympathizers in this city at 56 New street, where she was joyfully received. After a short reception she was taken away, and no one was allowed to see her until last evening.

A special edition of the local Cubar newspaper was published, asking all loyal Cubans to assemble at the office of the junta at 8 o'clock tonight to join n a torchlight parade in honor of the young woman's delivery.

On the night of the alleged attempt the minister was in Stockton, and had been invited by Andrew B. Larison, one of the members of the church there, to remain at his home over night. During the evening a neighboring building took fire, and Larison went to the fire. It was during his absence that the alleged assault took place. After a careor of nearly twenty years o uninterrupted growth is justified in claim-ing that the standard first established by its founders is the one true test of

Mr. Larison testified that he was absent from the house perhaps ten minutes. When he reached the gate on his return he heard his wife scream and ran into the house. Mrs. Larison testified that after her husband started for the fire Mr. Mott called her to come to a window where he was standing and from which the fire could be seen. When she reached the window he threw his arms about her and tried

Dragging a Private by the Heals Not

Consurable: Chiengo, Oct. 12.-Charles Hammond the private who was dragged by a rope tied to his feet from the guard house at Fort Sheridan to headquar-ters of the post, began yesterday noon to serve a 14 day sentence of solitary confinement with bread and water diet. This decision of the summary court at Fort Sheridan deals alone with Hammond's refusal to work as a prisoner. The finding was returned by Lieuten-
